I. Introduction

Al Snow is one of my favorite wrestlers to use in the game WWF Royal Rumble, mainly because I prefer the wrestlers that have speed and agility. And Al Snow has the speed and agility I like. He even has a cool finishing move called the Snowplow. Adding to the mystique is that he plays a character known as a psycho, so he brings some insanity to the World Wrestling Federation. So, I used him a lot. Hope you find this FAQ useful, please send any questions to the address listed above. Thanks and enjoy the guide!

Real Name: Al Snow

Wrestler Bio: Al Snow

(bio from Prima Games)

Right after, "Do you smell what the Rock is cookin?" the question World Wrestling Federation fans most like to hear has to be, "What does everybody want?" The answer of course, is Al Snow's inanimate sidekick, HEAD.

There is no doubt that Al Snow and HEAD are a wildly entertaining duo, as many of their "conversations" have to be considered Federation classics, but the most disturbing thing about HEAD is that most people focus on it so much that they take the person behind it for granted.

Lost in the shuffle of the euphoria that HEAD provides is the fact that Al Snow is one of the most talented Superstars on the roster. With Snow Plows, Hurracaranas off the barricade, and enough hardcore ability to fill a killer whale, Al Snow is an amazing athlete to watch.

And let's not forget that Al Snow is definitely not right in the, well, head (as if carrying around a mannequin did not tell you this already). He has got no problem with fighting in a dress, beating himself over the noggin with a chair, or dragging his opponent outside to fight in a blizzard.

No matter what the conditions are- a Hardcore match, a comedy routine, or a spin on the psychologist's couch - Al Snow is definitely a good person to have on your side.

There aren't many people that can make someone's blandness seem interesting. But Al Snow does exactly that with Steve Blackman! Al, who can never be called dull, is hoping that a little bit of his personality can run off on the extra bland Blackman. Despite a mastery of the martial arts, Steve has a problem showing signs of life and Snow is hoping to cure that by setting his buddy up on blind dates and even booking him to perform stand up routines at senior citizen homes.

Sometimes lost in all of his antics is the fact that Snow remains one of the most talented Super Stars on the roster. He is that rare breed of athlete that can alter his game 1 hardcore, technical, marital arts 1 to fit just about anybody's style. And as far as his entertaining ability is concerned, if you can cause people to laugh at Blackman's antics (or lack thereof), you can do just about anything!

My Two Cents: Al Snow

What does everyone want? Al Snow! Al Snow has got to be one of the most popular superstars in the World Wrestling Federation, as well as being one of my most favorite. The addition of Steve Blackman and a formation of a team called "Head Cheese" has only added to Al Snow's popularity.
