1. Story

In the past.

Two heroes stood against the Destructor, the God of Ruin known as the Golden Silver.

After a mighty battle, these heroes defeated the God of Ruin at the Moon. However, when the heroes defeated the God of Ruin, it exploded, resulting in the creation of four new moons that eventually began to orbit the Earth.

Many years passed, and the moons were colonized. And so began an era of prosperity.

However, a fifth moon has recently emerged. A "machine" moon created by an organization only known as the Empire.

This man-made satellite looms ominously. It is apparently a part of the Empire's master plan to resurrect the God of Ruin once more, is obsession since its discovery of a relic known as the Megalith.

However, the Empire's plan hasn't gone unnoticed. On the Earth, the organization known as "3YE" has secretly created an elite unit to counter the Empire's plan.

In recognition of the past heroes, this elite unit has been given the codename "Gunstar Super Heroes."

2. Characters

This information was taken from the character section of the booklet. Ignore the center, left, and right parts under Pink's character information.

2.1 Red

A red-head with a temper, she is an expert marksman, and relatively new to 3YE [the 3rd Eye] as an operative. She's very impulsive, but optimistic and a little naive in nature. She's definitely not afraid to show emotions. She lost her parents when she was just a child, and upon joining the organization, has considered Blue as her bigger brother.

Force: Shoots a beam of plasma energy.

Fire: Shoots a ball of fire that explodes.

Chaser: Shots laser darts that seek out and destroy multiple enemies.

2.2 Blue

Blue is a level-headed Gunstar, who rarely shows much emotion. He tends to be sarcastic about things, although, he actually does have a strong sense of responsibility. He likes to alleviate stressful moments by teasing Red, whose personality is quite different from his own. Blue was also an orphan, so he can relate to Red.

Lightning: Fires a stream of electricity.

Chaser: Shots laser darts that seek out and destroy multiple enemies.

Fire: Shoots a ball of fire that explodes.

2.3 Yellow

The commander in charge of the Gunstar Super Heroes, she relays the orders of 3YE to Red and Blue. She tends to worry, and thinks of herself as the mother figure for Red and Blue, despite all of them being of similar age. Her past is shrouded in secrecy, although it's been rumored that she has an older brother.

2.4 Green

A former member of the Gunstar Super Heroes, for reasons unknown, he left and decided to join the Empire. It's said that he holds an ancient relic known as the "Seven Force." He also has a mysterious past that no one seems to know about.

2.5 Pink, Kain, and Kotaro

Pink [center] is a well known bounty hunter. She rarely goes anywhere without her two minions, Kain [left] and Kotaro [right], who both obey her without question. Recently hired by the Empire, they await the Gunstar Super Heroes at Cobit Village.

2.6 Orange

The captain of a huge warship. Orange loves melee combat, and is known for his incredible fighting skills and strength.

2.7 Black

2.8 Smash

Not much is known about Colonel Smash except that he obediently follows General Gray. He is eager to face the Gunstars and prove his worth to the general.

2.9 General Gray

The head of the Empire, not much is known about the General's past. It's only rumored that he plans to resurrect the God of Ruin for unknown reasons and that he's hired Pink, Orange, Green, and Black to help him. He has had clashes with 3YE in the past.

3. Intro.

We have to stop him!

Your journey ends here!

Where is he? That light! It's too late!

No!. The Earth. Under one person's power.

In the past. Two heroes have fought against the terrible Destructor. These two noble heroes were known as the Gunstar Heroes. But nothing else was known about them. They beat the Destructor in an epic battle on the Moon. The Destructor exploded, resulting in a genesis. A genesis of 4 new moons that orbited the Earth. As time passed, development occurred on the 4 moons. It was a prosperous era; Then a 5th Moon appeared. This moon served as an ominous omen. A huge military satellite. Created by the Empire. It plans to resurrect the Destructor, the God of Ruin. Its obsession since the find of a relic, the Megalith. But the Empire's grab for power hasn't gone unnoticed. The 3YE force on Earth has created a unit to stop it. This elite unit has been given the codename. Gunstar Super Heroes

4. Red's Script

4.1 Easy Mode

A. Level 1: Earth

Yellow: This is Yellow! The 3YE office is under attack by the Empire. Move out, Gunstars!

Red: Roger!

[3YE Base: Headquarters]

General Gray: Greetings, I am General Gray. You're too late. I already acquired the data I needed. Now I shall awaken the God of Ruin, Golden Silver.

Red: The Destructor?

Yellow: Gunstars! I need your help! The Empire's robot.

General Gray: Ha ha ha ha! I'm sure we'll meet again, Gunstars!

Red: Shoot, we've got to get back to Yellow.

[3YE Base: Rescue Yellow]

Yellow: The stolen data says each of the 4 moons has a gem. Golden Silver will awaken if all of these gems are obtained. Gunstars, go to the 4 moons and get these Treasure Gems!

Red: Roger!

B. Level 2: Moon 1

Yellow: A Treasure Gem should be buried under the pyramid. But watch out for the hired merc, Pink and her gang.

Blue: Here they come, Red. Take care of them!

Red: Roger!

[Cobit Village: Save the Cobits]

Red: Bring it on!

[Pyramid: Hunter's Attack]

Ho ho ho. I'm the bounty hunter known as Pink.

After boss fight

Red: We won't let the Empire win!

Pink: Well, Lady Luck's on your side. We have to pull out. But remember, we'll get the gems sooner or later. Kain, Kotaro, let's go! Until next time. Ho ho ho. Absilio Mundus!

Red: So you say. I say the Gunstars will prevail!

And so the blue Treasure Gem was acquired! Its sparkle. Could it be trying to communicate?

C. Level 3: Moon 2

Yellow: Hurry! The Treasure Gem is already on a huge warship. And the warship's on its way to the Empire!

Red: Roger!

[Iron Ship: Fight in the Storm]

Orange: I am orange! I will take you down with a single blow of my fist!

After boss fight

Red: Evil will never prevail! Why don't you give up?

Orange: Gunstars, remember this! I will have my revenge! Absilio Mundus!

Red: Wait-!

And so the yellow Treasure Gem was acquired! But what of the terrifying and powerful Empire? Who is the man behind all this? Why is it that we cannot live together in peace? Treasure Gem sparkling. Is it trying to communicate?

D. Level 4: Moon 3

Yellow: A treasure Gem is buried deep under the mine. Be careful! The Empire's dug up the Seven Force here. This relic allows its user to transform himself.

Red: Roger!

[Burning Pit: Seven Force]

Green: I am Green.

After boss fight

Red: Green! Gunstar Green? Why're you working with the Empire?

Green: I cannot discuss this now. Til we meet again! Farewell! Absilio Mundus!

Red: Green! Wait! Yellow's been.

And so the green Treasure Gem was acquired! But Green, Yellow's brother, was gone. What could cause Green to work for the Empire?

E. Level 5: Moon 4

The Casino Boss, Black, has a hidden Treasure Gem! It's in his mysterious Black Fortress. I'll bet there are plenty of traps there. So be careful!

Red: Roger!

[Fortress Game: On the Board]

Black: Care to bet on Black?

After boss fight

Black: Impressive. You survived my Megalith powered Fortress.

Red: Megalith? What is it?

Black: Sorry my dear. It's not in the cards for you. Bye! Absilio Mundus!

Red: Wait! You coward!

And so the red Treasure Gem was acquired! Who is the mysterious enemy behind all this? What is the Megalith and what are its powers? Treasure Gem sparkling. Is it trying to communicate?

F. Level 6: Moon 5

General Gray: I applaud you, Gunstars. I'm impressed that you were able to obtain all the gems. But I've acquired Yellow, and her fate is in my hands. Bring the Treasure Gems to me. Assuming you can get here in one piece. Ha ha ha.

Yellow: Don't come, Gunstars!

Blue: Darn it! What are we going to do?

Red: You need to ask? We've got to rescue Yellow!

[Giga Polis: Enemy Path]

General Gray: All right now. Stay there and throw the Treasure Gems to me.

Red: Grr. Here you go!

General Gray: Ha ha! And now the Empire shall be invincible. And to thank you, I'll send you both to hell!

Red: What? That's not fair!

Blue: Don't forget about me, Gunstar Blue!

General Gray: Y, you! Bah, I don't need anything but the gems! So long!

Smash: G. General Gray!

Red: Yellow! Am I glad that you're safe now!

Yellow: Sorry, but we've got to go to the Empire's main base. The body of the Destructor lies in waiting there.

Red: What?

Yellow: With the 4 gems, the God of Ruin will be resurrected. Get in, Gunstars! We've got to go after them!

Red: Roger!

[Imperial Moon: Sign of Ruin]

Yellow: We've got to beat Gray by going straight for the base!

Red: Let me get my spacesuit on, and I'll cut a path for us.

G. Level 7: G-ARC

Yellow: We landed successfully, but the enemies keep on coming!

Blue: We'll take care of things from here. Take off, okay?

Red: Thanks, guys.

General Gray: I am General Gray! Now that we have all 4 gems, it is time. Time to reawaken the God of Ruin, our light crusader! And then the world shall be under the Empire's control! Long live the Empire! Long live the God of Ruin!

Soldiers: Wow.

[Last Stage: Big Fight]

Red: Bring it on!

Before battle with Orange

Red: Bring it on!

Before battle with Black

Red: Bring it on!

[Golden Silver: Dead End]

General Gray: Heh heh heh. Looks like you've finally made it. But you're too late! I shall reawaken the Destructor now! Time to rise, Golden Silver! Rise God of Ruin! Destroy those not worthy in your eyes with your power!

Red: No! Stop!

General Gray: Arise Golden Silver! No. No! What are you doing to me?

Golden Silver: I am Golden Silver. I will destroy everything!

Red: This had better be the last boss! Okay, let's go!

After boss fight

Golden Silver: You. Gunstar.

Red: W-What?

Golden Silver: I shall blow up the Earth.

Yellow: This is Yellow! What's going on? Something's heading toward the Earth.

Red: It's the God of Ruin! We've go to stop it!

Blue: Get on board quickly. We'll chase it with our ship!

Red: Roger!

Red: There it is! The God of Ruin!

Blue: No! We're not going to make it in time. The Earth.

Yellow: Wait! There's something else approaching. What is it?

Voice: I'm sorry that I've brought trouble upon you all.

Red: That voice.

Green: I am sorry, Gunstars! I made a wrong decision. Now I intend to pay in full! It is the price I must pay!

Yellow: Brother!

The god of Ruin has been destroyed again. Through the ultimate sacrifice of Green. The world is saved. But mysteries still linger. What was the Megalith? What were the Treasure Gems? Are there also other unknown facts that await unveiling?

4.2 Normal Mode

A. Level 1: Earth

Yellow: Please respond headquarters. This is Yellow. Respond 3YE! Communication blackout! But our defense system. Go investigate, Gunstars! And be careful!

Red: Roger!

[3YE Base: Headquarters]

General Gray: Greetings, I am General Gray. You're too late. I've already got what I wanted.

Red: Where are the guards? What have you done to them?

General Gray: Ah, I erased them I used the power of the Megalith.

Red: Megalith. What the heck is a Megalith?

Yellow: Yellow here. I require help. I'm under attack!

Red: What? There was no warning. Where did it come from?

General Gray: Hmph. You cannot comprehend the power of the Megalith. Soon, everyone will bow to the power of the Empire. Absilio Mundus!

Red: Shoot, we've got to get back to Yellow.

[3YE Base: Rescue Yellow]

Yellow: 3YE seems to have vanished. But it's so hard to believe. Excluding us, 3YE no longer exists in any form.

Red: NO longer exists? What does this mean?

Yellow: I don't know. But the stolen data may provide a clue. It says each of the 4 moons has a Treasure Gem.

Red: T-the legendary gems said to call forth the God of Ruin?

Blue: But weren't they destroyed along with the Destructor?

Yellow: Yes, but I recall how 4 moons appeared after that battle. I think these gems have been regenerating in the moons. And now they've "reawakened."

Red: If so, then they must have the same purpose.

Yellow: To awaken the God of Ruin, Golden Silver, again.

Blue: So history repeats itself once more.

Yellow: Now we know what the Empire wants. We were aptly name. Somehow, I have a feeling of d,j... vu.

Blue: Will we meet Pink, Orange and Smash? What irony.

Yellow: Well, we better get to the 4 moons before the Empire.

Red: Roger!

B. Level 2: Moon 1

Yellow: A Treasure Gem should be underneath this pyramid. But the Empire's ready. It's hired mercs to deal with us. Pink and her gang are also expecting us, so be careful.

Blue: It looks like the Empire's already here. Get ready!

Red: Roger!

[Cobit Village: Save the Cobits]

Red: Bring it on!

[Pyramid: Hunter's Attack]

Ho ho ho. I'm the bounty hunter known as Pink.

After boss fight

Red: We won't let the Empire win!

Pink The Empire already controls all the moons, silly girl. And 3YE is gone.

Why continue fighting?

Red: Because we're Gunstars!

Pink: So be it. May the moons be your burial ground. Kain, Kotaro, let's go! Ho ho ho! Absilio Mundus!

And so the blue Treasure Gem was acquired! Its sparkle. Could it be trying to communicate?

C. Level 3: Moon 2

Yellow: Hurry, the Empire's already acquired the Treasure Gem! It's on a warship that's about to leave the moon! If it reaches space, we won't be able to catch it.

Red: Understood!

[Iron Ship: Fight in the Storm]

Orange: I am orange! I will take you down with a single blow of my fist!

After Boss fight

Red: Stop your foolish plan. What do you hope to accomplish? Think of the consequences if you reawaken the Destructor.

Orange: We have. We now know how to control the God of Ruin.

Red: What? What do you mean?

Orange: With the power of the great Megalith in our hands. It will be glorious once we awaken Golden Silver again. Absilio Mundus!

Red: Wait!

And so the yellow Treasure Gem was acquired! But can the Megalith control the legendary God of Ruin? The Treasure Gems quietly sparkle. holding the key.

D. Level 4: Moon 3

Yellow: A Treasure Gem is deep beneath the mine, here.

Red: Wasn't this where Green was last seen? If only.

Red: Don't talk about my brother! Focus on the mission.

Red: I'm sorry.

Yellow: I've prepared a Force Mecha to traverse the mine. It'll change position when you press the Jump Button. Be careful. The Empire has control over the mine. And they've uncovered Seven Force, a powerful relic.

Red: Understood!

[Burning Pit: Seven Force]

Green: I am Green.

Red: Green! Why are you working with the Empire?

Green: Because of the Megalith!

Red: The Megalith. Just what is the Megalith?

Green: Someday you may find out. Good bye! Absilio Mundus!

Red: Wait, Green! Yellow's been.

And so the green Treasure Gem was acquired! But why would Green agree to work for the Empire? Treasure Gem sparkling. What mysteries does it hold?

E. Level 5: Moon 4

Yellow: The casino here is popular, run by a man named Black. However, it's also an Empire Fortress filled with traps.

Red: One of the Treasure Gems must be in there.

Yellow: Keep your eyes open, and your trigger finger ready.

Red: Understand. It'll be a piece of cake.

[Fortress Game: On the Board]

Black: Care to bet on Black?

Black: Impressive. You survived my Megalith powered Fortress.

Red: Again!? Come on, tell me what the Megalith is.

Black: Ha ha ha. Remember the alien soldiers you fought here? They were brought here with the power of the Megalith. But that's just a portion of its power.

Wait until we have both the Megalith and Treasure Gems. Then, you'll see something truly spectacular! Absilio Mundus!

Red: Wait!

And so the red Treasure Gem was acquired! So, the Megalith can be used to cross dimensions. But how does this relate to the Treasure Gems? Its silent sparkle. the Treasure Gems say nothing.

F. Level 6: Moon 5

General Gray: I applaud you, Gunstars. I'm impressed that you were able to obtain all the gems. But I've acquired Yellow, and her fate is in my hands. Come to me, Gunstars! I'll give you Yellow when I receive the Treasure Gems.

Yellow: Don't come, Gunstars!

Blue: Darn it! What are we going to do?

Red: You need to ask? We've got to rescue Yellow!

[Giga Polis: Enemy Path]

General Gray: All right now. Stay there and throw the Treasure Gems to me.

Red: Grr. Here you go!

General Gray: Ha ha! And now the Empire shall be invincible. And to thank you, I'll send you all to hell!

Red: What?! That's not fair!

Blue: Don't forget about me, Gunstar Blue!

General Gray: Y, you! Bah, I don't need anything but the gems! So long!

Smash: Your excell. General!

Red: Yellow! Am I glad that you're safe now!

Yellow: Sorry, but we've got to go to the Empire's main base. The body of the Destructor lies in waiting there.

Red: What?

Yellow: With the 4 gems, the God of Ruin will be resurrected. Get in, Gunstars! We've got to go after them!

Red: Roger!

[Imperial Moon: Sign of Ruin]

After boss fight

Yellow: Look, they're heading there. Let's go straight in!

Red: Let me get me get my spacesuit on, then we'll take them!

H. Level 7: Moon G-ARC

Yellow: We've landed successfully, but the enemies keep on coming!

Blue: Yellow and I will handle things here. Now go!

Red: Thanks.

General Gray: I am General Gray! Listen to me! Our time is now at hand. We now have the 4 gems. We will reawaken the God of Ruin and control it. Using the Megalith, it will become our messiah. The Earth government will no longer oppress us. We will establish a new world order, a new empire.

Soldiers: Wow.

[Last Stage: Big Fight]

Red: Bring it on!

Before fight with Orange

Red: Bring it on!

Before fight with Black

Red: Bring it on!

Before fight with Green

Red: Bring it on!

General Gray: Heh heh heh. Looks like you've finally made it. But you're too late! The Destructor is waking up now.

Red: How can you believe Golden Silver to be the messiah? Have you forgotten? It nearly destroyed the world!

General Gray: We haven't forgotten. It's exactly what we want. We must have fear and death before the new order!

Red: What?!

General Gray: With Megalith, we shall manipulate the Destructor. We'll use it to cleanse humanity. The fires of judgment will leave only the pure alive. And that is when we will create a new ideal world!

Red: An ideal world? And toss lives aside as trash?!

General Gray: And what's wrong with that? Can you save humanity? Humanity cannot save itself. See the wars being fought. Look at our over population. We need to be cleansed. And so it shall be done, by the Megalith's power.

General Gray: Awaken, Golden Silver!

General Gray: No, no!

Golden Silver: I am Golden Silver.

General Gray: W-What are you doing? Obey me!

Golden Silver: Foolish, mortal, I listen to no one. I am a god! I am Golden Silver, I will give you a god's peace. The peace of death. To all humans, equally.

[Golden Silver: Dead End]

Golden Silver: I. am a god. I grant the wish of death. My mercy.

Red: What's going on? It looks like it's burning up.

Golden Silver: I am. mortal. The. Earth. My.

Yellow: This is Yellow! What's going on? We saw a large energy force heading toward the Earth!

Red: It's the God of Ruin! We've got to stop it!

Blue: Not now! I've got my hands full with these guys!

Red: Forget them! We've got to get to the Earth!

Blue: Man, I hate leaving in the middle of a battle!

Red: There it is! The God of Ruin!

Blue: No! We're not going to make it in time. The Earth.

Yellow: Wait! There's another energy force. What is it?

Voice: I'm sorry that I've brought trouble upon you all.

Red: That voice.

Green: My revenge. TO actualize my father's wish. But it seems I went down the wrong path. Words cannot express my regret. But I shall pay with my actions. And pay them in full!

Yellow: Brother!

The God of Ruin has been destroyed again. The world is saved. But mysteries still linger. We know the Megalith could open other dimensions. And it apparently controlled Gray to do its bidding. But where did Gray find the Megalith? Green's word's: His revenge?, his father's wish? It looks like there are still some mysteries. The 4 Treasure Gems sparkle as if they have the answers.

[Pyramid: Hunter's Attack]

Ho ho ho. I'm the bounty hunter known as Pink.

After boss fight

The blue Treasure gem touches your mind.

Blue Treasure Gem: I am the 1st gem, Satoa, from a different Earth. Red, I will endow you with my history. On my Earth, war and death were the only two constants. Humans never evolved, and were always in conflict. I was created to help stop humankind from extinction. But in the end, I failed,. Man was too savage. All my efforts could not stop man's conflict. Yet despite this, I still loved humankind. I vowed to prevent this from happening again. I evolved, and was able to travel through dimensions. That was when I learned of a horrifying power. An ulterior force also able to travel dimensions. Its intent: the destruction of all living things. It is only known as Outside Space. I am here to try and prevent it from succeeding. Find my comrades, and you shall learn more, Red. But be quick. Your Earth is in danger.

C. Level 3: Moon 2

Yellow: Hurry, the Empire's already acquired the Treasure Gem! It's on a warship that's about to leave the moon! If it reaches space, we won't be able to catch it.

Red: Understood!

[Iron Ship: Fight in the Storm]

Orange: I am orange! I will take you down with a single blow of my fist!

After boss fight

The yellow Treasure Gem touches your mind.

Yellow Treasure Gem: I am the 2nd gem, Ruks, from a different Earth, Red, I will endow you with my vision. I see that your soul is linked to a different world. On my Earth, people like you were often heroes. Yet, some lacked real honor, and left after their task. I cannot see whether you are true hero or not. But we must rely on you. We cannot directly interfere. We believe that you will do what must be done. Outside Space attempts to invade once again. You are the only hope for this Earth. Yet by saving your Earth, you will save others. We are glad that we have found you. Be brave, and look to the future, Look beyond the task and become a hero. We will be watching.

D. Level 4: Moon 3

Yellow: A Treasure Gem is deep beneath the mine, here.

Red: Wasn't this where Green was last seen If only.

Yellow: Don't talk about my brother! Focus on the mission.

Red: I'm sorry.

Yellow: I've prepared a Force Mecha to traverse the mine. It'll change position when you press the Jump Button. Be careful. The Empire has control over the mine. And they've uncovered Seven Force, a powerful relic.

Red: Understood!

[Burning Pit: Seven Force]

Green: I am Green.

After boss fight

The Green Treasure Gem touches your mind.

Green Treasure Gem: I am the 3rd gem, Alioto, from a different Earth. Red, I will endow you with my history. On my Earth, the environment was harsh. So humans learned to manipulate their genes. But by doing so, they lost their humanity. They were monstrosities that fought over everything. Born into this world, I fought for my humanity. But that was when I found another horror. It was a horror from another dimension. It was something that would endanger all our Earths. This was Outside Space. A vile evil entity. It was then that I had a new goal, to preserve humanity. I searched for help in this upcoming battle. That is why I am here. You must help us save all our Earths. Save humanity. Red, we're counting on you.

E. Level 5: Moon 4

The casino here is popular, run by a man named Black. However, it's also an Empire Fortress filled with traps.

Red: One of the Treasure Gems must be in there.

Yellow: Keep your eyes open, and your trigger finger ready.

Red: Understood!

[Fortress Game: On the Board]

Black: Care to bet on Black?

After boss fight

The Red Treasure Gem touches your mind.

Red Treasure Gem: I am the 4th gem, Miko, from a different Earth. Red, I will endow you with my history. My Earth was torn apart by war. That's when I was born. Created as a peacemaker, I was able to save my Earth. But then I lost my consciousness. Yet during this time, I evolved. It was then that I learned of other Earths. I also discovered the horror known as Outside Space. Able to travel dimensions, it threatens all our Earths. Yes, your Earth is in danger as well. While it cannot directly engage us, it's aware of use. Soon, it will strike, and attempt to destroy us all. It has already planted its seed here. Some have already been misled. You must recognize this false savior and us it. Red, keep your courage. It allows us to speak to you. Destroy the false savior with your two hands!

F. Level 6: Moon 5

General Gray: I applaud you, Gunstars. I'm impressed that you were able to obtain all the gems. But I've acquired Yellow, and her fate is in my hands. Come to me, Gunstars! I'll give you Yellow when I receive the Treasure Gems.

Yellow: Don't come, Gunstars!

Blue: Darn it! What are we going to do?

Red: You need to ask? We've got to rescue Yellow!

[Giga Polis: Enemy Path]

(coming soon)

General Gray: Green? What are you doing here? Where are my men?

Green: You fool. I am about to usurp your control.

General Gray: W-What? How can you do this to me? Why?

Green: Does my real name help? It's Green Shadow Light. And Pink, Orange, and Black have agreed to follow me.

General Gray: No! It can't be!

Smash: Oh no!

Green: Yellow! I am truly sorry. I gave the orders to have you captured, to trap Gray. So my revenge is complete. Now, for father's wish. Don't worry, you'll always be in my heart!

Yellow: Brother!

Red: Yellow! I'm glad that you're safe now!

Yellow: Sorry, but my brother's in trouble. He's going to fulfill our dad's wish. To reawaken.

Red: What?

Yellow: We can't allow my brother to get to the main base. Get in, Gunstars! We'll use this ship to get to him!

Red: Roger!

[G-ARC: Space Strike]

Yellow: Look, they're heading there. Let's go straight in!

Red: Let me get my spacesuit on, then we'll take them!

G. Level 7: G-ARC

Yellow: We landed successfully, but the enemies keep on coming!

Blue: Yellow and I will handle things here. Now go!

Red: Thanks.

Green: I am Green. Shadow Light. The Empire shall follow me. I am the son of the Empire's first governor. The Empire was created to reawaken humanity. But it was used by Gray after my father's death. His only objective was to rule all the moons. I hid myself in the Empire to eliminate this scourge. Now with the General gone, I claim that which is mine. Men, let us bring the Empire back to its original path. I shall use the Megalith to fulfill my father's wish. I shall awaken humanity. And bring about my father's ideal world. Absilio Mundus!

Soldiers: Wow!

[Last Stage: Big Fight]

Red: Bring it on!

Before fight with Orange

Red: Bring it on!

Before fight with Black

Red: Bring it on!

Before fight with Green

Red: Bring it on!

Treasure Gems: We are happy to see that you made it here. But you must not stop the God of Ruin from awakening.

Red: What? What do you mean?

Treasure Gems: The God of Ruins is the power of humanity. It is the only thing that can stop Outside Space. If destroyed we will all lose. You must not destroy the God of Ruin. Like a child, the God of Ruin will destroy. But eventually it will shut down.

Red: But. But that's not fair! What about all the people that will die? I-I don't know what to do. I can't handle this. Please. Is there any other alternative?

Treasure Gems: We see the compassion in your heart, but.

Green: Red, don't listen to them! They're lying to you! Believe in the Megalith. It will change the God of Ruin. Golden Silver will bring about a new age of peace.

Treasure Gems: You are deceived. Yet we can do nothing. Seal your fate.

Green: I shall. Reawaken Golden Silver!

Red: No. No!

Golden Silver: I am Golden Silver, God of Ruin, the Destructor.

Green: What? Megalith, have you deceived me?

Golden Silver: I feel despair. fear. immense hate. You are filled with negative emotions. How can you blame me, if you cannot repress them? Your need to rely on me only shows your ineptitude.

Red: Green! Darn it!

Golden Silver: I am Golden Silver, a mere silhouette mirage of you. Your despair, your fear, I will use to destroy.

[Golden Silver: Dead End]

Golden Silver: I am. Golden Silver. A son. revenge. wish.

Red: W-What?

Golden Silver: True identity. Earth. Destroy! Destroy! Destroy!

Treasure Gems: The God of Ruin is going out of control!

Red: Are we safe? Did we win?

Treasure Gems: No, the God of Ruin is an alter ego of you. Its confusion means the destruction of Earth.

Red: W-What? Its going to destroy the Earth along with itself? Blue! Yellow! Can you hear me? We've got to go! Green, I'm sorry we'll come back for you later!

Red: There it is! The God of Ruin!

Blue: No! We can't make it in time! The Earth.

Yellow: There's another high energy reading! What is it?

Voice: I'm sorry, everyone.

Red: That voice.

Green: We aren't ready yet to awaken Golden Silver. But as humans, we must never give up! Red! Blue! Yellow! Take care of the future! Watch over Golden Silver! Help the God of Ruin from its damned destiny. Guide it without the gems or the Megalith. Seven Force!

Yellow: Brother!

Blue: What is it?

Red: The 4 gems!

Treasure Gems: Green, you are the first to pity the God of Ruin. Your concern has taught the God of Ruin some humanity. It has begun to evolve, ever so slightly. And so. You have been saved by saving the God of Ruin. Bear in mind, the Destructor will rise again. What the Destructor becomes depends on you. Humanity decides its fate. Farewell Green, child of Shadow Light.

Yellow: Brother!

Red: Green, you really are a Gunstar!

Yellow (or Blue): Correction. We're all truly Gunstars.

Gunstar Super Heroes!

5. Blue's Script

5.1 Easy Mode

A. Level 1: Earth

Yellow: This is Yellow! The 3YE office is under attack by the Empire. Get over there, Gunstars!

Blue: Yeah, yeah. Moving out!

[3YE Base: Headquarters]

General Gray: Greetings, I am General Gray. You're too late. I already acquired the data I needed. Now I shall awaken the God of Ruin, Golden Silver.

Blue: Golden Silver?

Yellow: Gunstars! I need your help! The Empire's robot.

Blue: Not now, Yellow!

General Gray: Ha ha ha ha! I'm sure we'll meet again, Gunstars!

Blue: Shoot! We screwed up!

[3YE Base: rescue Yellow]

Yellow: The stolen data says each of the 4 moons has a gem. Golden Silver will awaken if all these gems are obtained. Gunstars, go to the 4 moons and get these Treasure Gems!

Blue: Yeah, yeah. Moving out!

B. Level 2: Moon 1

Yellow: A Treasure Gem should be buried under the pyramid. But watch out for the hired merc, Pink and her gang.

Red: Looks like they're already here. Blue, fight them off!

Blue: Man, what a pain!

[Cobit Village: Save the Cobits]

Red: Bring it on!

[Pyramid: Hunter's Attack]

Ho ho ho. I'm the bounty hunter known as Pink.

After boss fight

Blue: Get out of my way grandma! Can't you see I'm busy?

Pink: Grandma? Why you insolent little boy.

Blue: Sorry. That's too nice. You're an old witch.

Pink: You're lucky I'm too much a lady to respond as I should. But I AM a lady of action, and I'll see you spanked. But just not yet, boy. For now, we must go! Ho ho ho! Absilio Mundus!

Blue: Hmm, witch wasn't the right word either. Ah, it's.

And so the blue Treasure Gem was acquired! And alas, poor Pink. What should she be called? Treasure Gem sparkling. Is it trying to communicate?

C. Level 3: Moon 2

Yellow: Hurry! The Treasure Gem is already on a huge warship. And the warship's on its way to the Empire!

Blue: Man, what a pain!

[Iron Ship: Fight in the Storm]

Orange: I am orange! I'll take you down with a single blow of my fist!

After boss fight

Blue: Old man, it's good that you keep in shape, but you really aren't using your head, are you? Shouldn't you be using your ship instead of your fists?

Orange: Nonsense! My body is my pride. Absilio Mundus!

Blue: Running away, again!? Heh.

And so the yellow Treasure Gem was acquired! Now I wonder if Orange gets cold in that outfit. And why do so many military men like Mohican haircuts? Treasure Gem sparkling. Is it trying to communicate?

D. Level 4: Moon 3

Yellow: A Treasure Gem is buried deep under the mine. Be careful! The Empire's dug up the Seven Force here. The owner has the ability to transform into 7 forms.

Blue: 7 different forms? Sheesh, 2 is more than enough!

[Force Canyon: Running Fight]

Green: I am Green.

After boss fight

Blue: Gunstar Green?! How can you be working for the Empire?!

Green: I cannot discuss this now. Til we meet again! Farewell! Absilio Mundus!

Blue: Shoot, they're retreating!

And so the green Treasure Gem was acquired! But Green, Yellow's brother, was gone. What could cause Green to work for the Empire?

E. Level 5: Moon 4

Yellow: The Casino Boss, Black, has a hidden Treasure Gem! It's in his mysterious Black Fortress. I'll bet there are plenty of traps there. So be careful!

Blue: Man, what a pain!

[Fortress Game: On The Board]

Black: Care to bet on Black?

After boss fight

Black: The odds were in my favor. Alas, how could you beat me?

Blue: Geez, what a windbag!

Black: You idiot. I speak how a real man should speak. But you'll never understand, kid! Absilio Mundus!

Blue: Hey! We're not done yet! Come back here!

And so the red Treasure Gem was acquired! Wasn't that fortress amazing? Think of all the work that must've gone into it. Treasure Gem sparkling. Is it trying to communicate?

F. Level 6: Moon 5

General Gray: I applaud you, Gunstars. I'm impressed that you were able to obtain all the gems. But I've acquired Yellow, and her fate is in my hands. Bring the Treasure Gems to me. Assuming you can get here in one piece. Ha ha ha.

Yellow: Don't come, Gunstars!

Red: We've got to rescue Yellow!

Blue: Man, am I ever going to get a break?

[Giga Polis: Enemy Path]

General Gray: All right now. Stay there and throw the Treasure Gems to me.

Blue: Grr. Here you go!

General Gray: Ha ha! And now the Empire shall be invincible. And to thank you, I'll send you both to hell!

Blue: How deceitful?

Red: Hey, Gunstar Blue! Did you forget about me?

General Gray: Y, you! Bah, I don't need anything but the gems! So long!

Smash: G. General Gray!

Blue: Yellow! I'm glad that you're safe now!

Yellow: Sorry, but we've got to go to the Empire's main base. The body of the Destructor lies in waiting there.

Blue: What?

Yellow: With the 4 gems, the God of Ruin will be resurrected. Get in, Gunstars! We've got to go after them!

Blue: Boy, are we looking for trouble! Let's go!

[G-ARC: Space Station]

Yellow: We've got to beat Gray by going straight for the base!

Blue: Okay, got my spacesuit on! Let's do it!

G. Level 7: G-ARC

Yellow: We landed successfully, but the enemies keep on coming!

Red: We'll move on. You go take off, okay?

Blue: I guess that leaves everything to me!

General Gray: I am General Gray! Now that we have all 4 gems, it is time. Time to reawaken the God of Ruin! And then the world shall be under the Empire's control! Long live the Empire! Long live the God of Ruin!

Soldiers: Wow.

[Last Stage: Big Fight]

Blue: Bring it on!

Before fight with Orange

Blue: Bring it on!

Before fight with Black

Blue: Bring it on!

Before fight with Green

Blue: Bring it on!

Before boss fight

General Gray: Heh heh heh. Looks like you've finally made it. But you're too late! I shall reawaken the Destructor now! Time to rise, Golden Silver! Rise God of Ruin! Destroy those not worthy in your eyes with your power!

Blue: This isn't very cool!

General Gray: Arise Golden Silver!

General Gray: No, No! What are you doing to me?

Golden Silver: I am Golden Silver. I will destroy everything!

Blue: It figures I'd come down to this!

[Golden Silver: Dead End]

Golden Silver: You. Gunstar.

Blue: What do you think you're doing?

Golden Silver: I shall blow up the Earth.

Yellow: This is Yellow! What's going on? Something's heading toward the Earth.

Blue: It's the God of Ruin! It's headed toward the Earth!

Red: Get on board the ship and we'll go after it!

Blue: Man, so typical!

Blue: There it is! The God of Ruin!

Red: No! We're not going to make it in time. The Earth.

Yellow: Wait! There's something else approaching. What is it?

Voice: I am sorry that I've brought trouble upon you all.

Blue: That voice.

Green: I am sorry, Gunstars! I made a wrong decision. Now I intend to pay in full! It is the price I must pay!

Yellow: Brother!

The God of Ruin has been destroyed again. Through the ultimate sacrifice of Green. The world is saved. But mysteries still linger. What were the Treasure Gems? Are there also other unknown facts that await unveiling?

5.2 Normal Mode

A. Level 1: Earth

Yellow: This is Yellow! Respond HQ. Respond 3YE. It's no use! This could've only happened if someone betrayed us! Go Gunstars! Get in before things get worse for 3YE!

Blue: Yeah, yeah. Moving out!

General Gray: Greetings, I am General Gray. You're too late, Gunstar. I have the data.

Blue: What do you hope to gain by this?

General Gray: Only to free the moons from Earth's oppression. With this data, we'll gather the 4 Treasure Gems. Once we have them, we'll call forth the God of Ruin!

Blue: What kind of utter nonsense is this?

Yellow: This is Yellow! I need support!

Blue: That's the latest Earth military technology. How.

General Gray: Don't you see? We also have support on Earth as well! Soon you'll learn the truth. The Earth shall pay for its crimes on the moons. Absilio Mundus!

Blue: Man, I failed!

Yellow: It's impossible, but I can't hear any 3YE communications. It's as if 3YE never existed.

Blue: Well, let's let the Earth army deal with this.

Red: What! Blue! How can you call yourself a Gunstar?

Blue: Gunstar?! Isn't it just a codename? We're not heroes! What can the three of us possibly do?

Red: Blue, you.

Yellow: Stop it, Red! I believe the Empire can't win under normal conditions. But if they can revive the God of Ruin, they'll win.

Blue: Right, so let those who want to fight, fight.

Yellow: But think about why the 3YE was created. If the Earth Arm fights, it'll be an all out war. Many innocents will die regardless of the outcome. We've got to try. For their sake.

Red: Okay, Yellow. Whatever. You're a Gunstar so act like one.

Blue: Sigh I wish I could be as simple-minded as you!

Red: Do you really dislike this job so much, Blue?

Blue: Oh boy, please don't make that face. I'll go, okay?

B. Level 2: Moon 1

Yellow: Apparently, the gems were symbols of native tribes. Through generations, they appeared on burial sites. It explains why there's one inside the pyramid.

Blue: Hey, I didn't sign up for an archeology lecture.

Red: You're right. Enemy aircraft are approaching. Get ready!

Blue: Okay, let me get ready, then kick in the afterburner!

[Cobit Village: Save the Cobits]

Blue: Bring it on!

[Pyramid: Hunter's Attack]

Ho ho ho. I'm the bounty hunter known as Pink.

After boss fight

Blue: Learned your lesson? Why don't you leave now?

Pink: Gunstars! Are you willing to listen to the truth? Look at this moon! Its beauty and inhabitants. A paradise. But only for Earthlings. While we're confined to homes in the desert. With no choice but to watch the rich enjoy themselves. Yes, I was born on this moon, too. And the only vacation I had was to be a bounty hunter.

Blue: Stop your whining. Your makeup's going to come off.

Pink: I'll see you again, boy! Absilio Mundus!

And so the blue Treasure Gem was acquired! Even in the future, conflict cannot be avoided. What does this mean for mankind? The Treasure Gem sparkles silently.

C. Level 3: Moon 2

Yellow: no! The Empire's already acquired the Treasure Gem. It's on a warship that's about to leave! We'll run into anti-aircraft fire, so watch out!

Blue: Anti-aircraft fire? Why is the moon helping the Empire?

Yellow: Since 3YE's disappearance, the Empire's gained support.

Red: Why? The Empire's acts of violence hurt everyone.

Blue: But some believe conflict is the only answer. Especially those who live on the moon.

Red: Man, all this talk is driving me nuts!

[Iron Ship: Fight In The Storm]

Orange: I am Orange! I'll take you with a single blow from my fist!

After boss fight

Blue: Hey, old man. Do you really want to continue fighting? The Earth's willing to fight to control the moons. Isn't it better to have peace than to provoke them?

Orange: are you joking? We've suffered under their rule. Why should I believe they'll act any differently now? Besides the Empire, I can trust no one. I shall only remain as a color, the color Orange. But Gunstars, I curse your blindness. Absilio Mundus!

Red: Blue, is what we're doing meaningless? I see the determination in his eyes, and I wonder. Are we doing the right thing?

Blue: It's not something you should worry about, Red. I'll make sure we do the right thing.

And so the yellow Treasure Gems was acquired! The Empire threatens the Earth to save the moons. Is there such a thing as true justice? Gunstars. The Treasure Gems continues to sparkle in silence.

D. Level 4: Moon 3

Yellow: We believe the Treasure Gem is inside the Force Mine. The mineshaft is 200 km in length. So don't get lost.

Blue: Also, 7 force, a machine life form, was buried here. I'm surprised you have so much data on the mines.

Yellow: I've prepared a Force Mecha for you. It'll change position when you press the Jump Button. The Empire already controls the mine, but there's more. They dug up Seven Force, a powerful relic. Be careful!

Blue: Hmph. Always easier said than done.

[Burning Pit: Seven Force]

Green: I am Green!

After boss fight

Blue: Green! Why are you working with the Empire?

Green: And why are you working for the Earth government? Did you know all the resources were taken here? The Earth took everything and left the colonists. They had nothing, and were left a sterile land. A now lifeless husk of a moon.

Blue: But why join the Empire? Their acts are just as evil.

Green: Perhaps in time, you may understand. Farewell! Absilio Mundus!

Blue: Wait! I still have questions!

And so the green Treasure Gem was acquired! So a former Gunstar is now part of the Empire. What truth is there in conflict? The Treasure Gem remains silent.

E. Level 5: Moon 4

Yellow: The casino here is popular, run by a man named Black. He was once a scientist. Now he works for the Empire. I think he expects us at his Fortress.

Blue: It was likely funded by the money from his Casino.

Yellow: Given his nature, be careful of his weird traps.

Blue: Hmm. I'm not a betting man. I'll be careful.

[Fortress Game: On The Board]

Black: Care to bet on Black?

After boss fight

Black: So, you survived my first trial, Gunstar.

Blue: First trial? This place isn't much of a challenge.

Black: Well, this was once a lab, created by Dr. Shadow Light. 15 years ago, we uncovered the Megalith and its power. It could pull beings from other dimensions. It was supposed to be able to reawaken the Destructor. Oh doctor, why was I left alive? Then the Empire came. With that power hungry Gray! Now the Empire's objective is to defeat the Earth. And I was left all alone. Stuck in this barren place.

Blue: What? Whose this doctor that you're talking about?

Black: You'll know soon enough. And perhaps the doctor's wish. Absilio Mundus!

And so the rd Treasure Gem was acquired! Rumors say that Gray created the Empire 10 years ago. Before then, no one knew of the Empire and General Gray. And who is Dr. Shadow Light? The Treasure Gem sparkles. With a silent answer.

G. Level 6: Moon 5

General Gray: I applaud you, Gunstars. I'm impressed that you were able to obtain all the gems. But I've acquired Yellow, and her fate is in my hands. Come to me, Gunstars! I'll give you Yellow when I receive the Treasure Gems.

Yellow: Don't come, Gunstars!

Red: We've go to rescue Yellow!

Blue: Man, why'd she have to get herself captured?

[Giga Polis: Enemy Path]

General Gray: All right now. Stay there and throw the Treasure Gems to me.

Blue: Grr. Here you go!

General Gray: Ha ha! And now the Empire shall be invincible. And to thank you, I'll send you all to hell!

Blue: How deceitful?

General Gray: Green?! Have you lost your mind?

Green: No, I have suffered enough under your orders. Look upon me. My true name is Green Shadow Light. I am the son of the man you killed, heir to the Empire.

General Gray: I-it can't be!

Smash: Oh no!

Green: Yellow! Leave the Earth! I will fulfill our father's wish! I shall control the Empire and create an ideal world. Take care.

Yellow: Brother!

Blue: Yellow! I'm glad that you're safe now!

Yellow: Sorry, but my brother's in trouble. He's going to fulfill our dad's wish. To reawaken.

Blue: What?

Yellow: We can't allow my brother to get to the main base. Get in, Gunstars!

We'll use this ship to get to him!

Blue: Okay!

[Imperial Moon: Sign of Ruin]

Yellow: Look, that small craft is headed toward that planet.

Blue: Man, looks like we've got to follow it. Let me get ready!

H. Level 7: G-ARC

Yellow: We landed successfully, but the enemies keep on coming!

Red: Yellow and I will take care of things here. Go on!

Blue: I guess that leaves everything to me!

Green: I am Green. Shadow Light. The Empire shall follow me. I am the son of the Empire's first governor. The Empire was created to reawaken humanity. But it was used by Gray after my father's death. His only objective was to rule all the moons. I hid myself in the Empire to eliminate this scourge. Now with the General gone, I claim that which is mine. Men, let us bring the Empire back on its original path. I shall use the Megalith to fulfill my father's wish. I shall awaken humanity. And bring about my father's ideal world. Absilio Mundus!
Soldiers: Wow!

[Last Stage: Big Fight]

Blue: Bring it on!

Before fight with Orange

Blue: Bring it on!

Before fight with Black

Blue: Bring it on!

Before fight with Green

Blue: Bring it on!

After boss fight

Green: I see you've finally arrived, Gunstars. If you wished to stop me, you're too late.

Blue: But why? Why would you want to reawaken the God of Ruin?

Green: What if I said Golden Silver is not the God of Ruin? Have you considered why it appears and destroys things?

Blue: What are you implying?

Green: My father found a mysterious relic in space 15 years ago. This was the Megalith. It told him something amazing. Golden Silver is the consciousness of humankind. But it's been awakened incorrectly by the 4 gems.

Blue: Are you saying Golden Silver is some kind of savior?

Green: Yes. It only acted warlike due to our mistakes. The Megalith is the 5th gem to give it true awareness. Gray only wanted Golden Silver for his own desires. I only wish to awaken it to aid humankind. It'll open us to new worlds, to new resources, a new era. No more conflict between the Earth and its moons. That was my father's wish. Absilio Mundus! Now awaken, Golden Silver!
No. No!

Golden Silver: I am Golden Silver.

Green: What are you doing?

Golden Silver: Yes, I am the savior of humankind. I am human. But you are impure. You must be destroyed!

Blue: What are you saying? You're still the Destructor!

Golden Silver: I represent humankind. Those impure, must be destroyed.

[Golden Silver: Dead End]

Golden Silver: I. am. humankind. Death for all. Humans.

Blue: I-It looks like it's burning up!

Golden Silver: I am humankind. All else must be destroyed. Earth.

Green: Uh oh! It's headed towards Earth. Blue, come on!

Yellow: This is Yellow! What's going on?

Green: The God of Ruin is headed toward Earth. We'll stop it.

Yellow: No! Stop! The only one who can stop it is.

Green: Just bail out with Red! Blue, do you hear me?!

Blue: Don't order me around. I've got a job to do.

Blue: There! The God of Ruin!

Green: No! We can't catch up. It's headed toward Earth.

Red: This is Red! Yellow went after it, alone!

Green: What?

Blue: There's another high energy object approaching! It is.

Yellow: I'm sorry, brother. This is the only way to stop it. The Seven Force was meant for me. I can use its power. Father prepared it for me in case of this. I know you've watched over me in the past. Now it's my time. Thank you!
And. Good bye!

Green: Yellow!

The God of Ruin has been stopped again. A brave Gunstar. Sacrificed her life. The world's been saved. But questions remain unanswered. With the Megalith, Golden Silver was truly awakened. Yet it stood as before, as the dreadful God of Ruin. Is the Megalith a fifth Treasure Gem? What did Dr. Shadow Light see in space 15 years ago? It looks like there are still some mysteries. The 4 Treasure Gems sparkle, as if they have the answers.

5.3 Hard Mode

A. Level 1: Earth

Yellow: This is Yellow! Respond HQ. Nothing's getting through! A spy must've infiltrated our system. GO investigate, Gunstar! The Empire's already in 3YE!
Blue: Man, what a pain!

[3YE Base: Headquarters]

General Gray: Greetings, I am General Gray. You're too late, Gunstar. I have the data.

Blue: What do you hope to gain by this?

[Cobit Village: Save the Cobits]

Blue: Bring it on!

[Pyramid: Hunter's Attack]

Pink: Ho ho ho. I'm the bounty hunter known as Pink.

After boss fight

Pink: Well, Lady Luck's on your side. We have to pull out. Kain, Kotaro, let's go! Until next time. Ho ho ho.

Blue: They left something behind. What is it? It's a data disk. The Shadow Light Journal?

Yellow: I wonder what's in here.

Shadow Light Journal 1

Notes from Dr. Shadow Light, Earth science div.

Thanks to the Gunstars, the God of Ruin was defeated. But 4 new moons were born. What mysteries do they hold? Why didn't the matter form rings, instead of moons? How did these moons gain an atmosphere and gravity? I must examine all the data I can obtain. Ah, a clue. The relationship between the Earth and moons! The orbit between the moons seems unnatural. There should be a 5th object, a lost planet? This was where the God of Ruin impacted our moon! After surveying this area, I found an object. I found the Megalith, a gem with intelligence!

C. Level 3: Moon 2

Yellow: No! The Empire's already acquired the Treasure Gem. It's on a warship that's about to leave! We'll run into anti-aircraft fire, so watch out!

Blue: Anti-aircraft fire? Why is the moon helping the Empire?

Yellow: Since 3YE's disappearance, the Empire's gained support.

Red: Why? The Empire's acts of violence hurt everyone.

Blue: But some believe conflict is the only answer. Especially those who live on the moon.

Red: Man, all this talk is driving me nuts!

[Iron Ship: Fight In The Storm]

Orange: I'm Orange! I'll take you down with a single blow of my fist!

After boss fight

Orange: You better watch your back from now on, Gunstars!

Blue: Man, another journal to read?

Shadow Light Journal 2

Notes from Dr. Shadow Light, Earth science div.

The Megalith can communicate telepathically. But what surprised me more was its story. Apparently, humans still haven't evolved much. But if we can develop our intellect, we can be reborn. Then we can transcend time and space, like the 4 gems! These 4 gems came from different Earths. And they wished to help lead us to infantile beings. But they had trouble with our savage nature. But the Megalith, the 5th gem, can aid us. No one will believe me, so I must pursue this alone. I've quit my job, and set up a lab on one of the moons. With my assistant, Black, I will study the Megalith.

D. Level 4: Moon 3

Yellow: We believe the Treasure Gem is inside the Force Mine. The mineshaft is 200 km in length. So don't get lost.

Blue: Also, Force, a machine life form, was buried here. I'm surprised you have so much data on the mines.

Yellow: I've prepared a Force Mecha for you. It'll change the position when you press the Jump Button. The Empire already controls the mine, but there's more. They dug up Seven Force, a powerful relic. Be careful!

Blue: Hmph. Always easier said than done.

[Burning Pit: Seven Force]

Green: I am Green.

After boss fight

Green: I shall leave now! But please give this to Yellow!

Blue: Another data disk? What's in this one?

Shadow Light Journal 3

Today, I witnessed a phenomenal event. We saw a life form emerge from thin air!

All this from following the Megalith's instructions. It disappeared, but gave us a glimpse of another being. The Megalith says it's just rewriting our reality. But what does that imply? Does it mean we're like a piece of code in a program? If so, wouldn't the possibilities be endless? It makes our conflict for resources seem so small. With the Megalith, we can enter a new era of humanity. But I'll need more funding to do further studies. I need to find some one who also believes in this. Gray, a wealthy earthman, has agreed to listen to me.

E. Level 5: Moon 4

Yellow: The casino here is popular, run by a man named Black. He was once a scientist. Now he works for the Empire. I think he expects us at his Fortress.

Blue: It was likely funded by the money from his Casino.

Yellow: Given his nature, be careful of his weird traps.

Blue: Hmm. I'm not a betting man. I'll be careful.

[Fortress Game: On The Board]

Black: Care to bet on Black?

After boss fight

Blue: Another journal? How many are there?

Shadow Light Journal 4

I've learned many things, and I'm closer to my goal. The key. Golden Silver. It can be used as a portal to other dimensions. We'd be able to explore and find new resources. We would no longer need to fight for limited resources. But Gray's interest seems to be different than mine. He seems to want power. He's inflamed the moon colonists. They believe we'll fight the Earth government. What Gray has done is inexcusable. Even though it may destroy my work, I must stop him. We must bring humankind to a new era of peace. Hence, my slogan, "Absilio Mundus!". I've given my journals to my son and daughter. I pray they will not need to use the information in them. But I no longer trust Gray, and I fear my life. My son, daughter. May they live in peaceful times.

Yellow: .

F. Level 6: Moon 5

General Gray: I applaud you, Gunstars. I'm impressed that you were able to obtain all the gems. But I've acquired Yellow, and her fate is in my hands. Come to me, Gunstars! I'll give you Yellow when I receive the Treasure Gems.

Blue: Man, the Treasure Gems we've gathered are.

Red: What's this? The 4 gems are radiating!

Blue: What? There's a voice in my head!

Treasure Gems: We are the will of different Earths. Learn the truth.

[Giga Polis: Enemy Path]

General Gray: All right now. Stay there and throw the Treasure Gems to me.

Blue: Grr. Here you go!

General Gray: Ha ha! And now the Empire shall be invincible. And to thank you, I'll send you all to hell!

Blue: What?! That's not fair!

General Gray: Green? What do you think you're doing? Your face.

Green: You fool. I've only obeyed you to get the gems. I am the son of Dr. Shadow Light, heir to the Empire. Now I'll make you pay for killing my father.

General Gray: No, it can't be!

Smash: Oh no!

Yellow: Brother, I'm glad you're here!

Green: Thank you for helping me out, sister.

Blue: Yellow, you let yourself get caught, didn't you?

Yellow: Yes, I'm sorry I took advantage of you two. The journals my brother left reminded me of my real task. I am Yellow Shadow Light. We must fulfill our dad's wish.

Blue: Uh oh!

Red: What should we do? Yellow's now a bad guy!

Blue: It's okay. The 4 gems told me this would happen. They're going to the Empire's HQ to awaken the Destructor.

Red: W-What?

Blue: Come on! We'll go after them in this ship!

[G-ARC: Space Strike]

Red: Look, that small craft is headed toward that planet.

Blue: Man, looks like we've got to follow it. Let me get ready!

G. Level 7: G-ARC

Red: Ouch! Crash landing! Here come some guests! I'll take care of them. You go find those two!

Blue: it's always up to me to clean up the mess!

Yellow: Hear me! I am Yellow, Yellow Shadow Light. I'm the daughter of the Empire's first governor. My brother and I shall fulfill our father's wish. The Empire was born where the Destructor was buried. To represent a new era of peace, not conflict. We'll open a door of hope to unlimited resources. We wait upon the God of Ruin to fulfill its role. Now we shall awaken the God of Ruin as our savior. With the Megalith, we will complete our father's task! We will be the guardian heroes for humanity. May mankind go forth! Absilio Mundus!

Soldiers: Wow!

[Last Stage: Big Fight]

Blue: Bring it on!

Before fight with Orange

Blue: Bring it on!

Before fight with Black

Blue: Bring it on!

Before fight with Green

Blue: Bring it on!

After boss fight

Megalith: Ah, Gunstars, you've finally arrived. I am Megalith. Allow me to reveal the truth to you!

Blue: So, you decided to show yourself!

Yellow: Please, Blue! Listen to what it says!

Blue: Sorry, but the 4 gems already gave me the story. Megalith! I know what your goal is! You aren't the 5th gem! You were sent by Outside Space! Your purpose is to use the Destructor to eliminate us!

Yellow: What?

Megalith: . I only have your word. Why would the gems betray me? Shouldn't you know? They only have one objective. Their only concern is to protect their "Space." The God of Ruin can be used in either fashion. That's why they won't stop it from awakening. They want power, just like I do. Neither side cares what happens to the people here. We only care that the God of Ruin remains intact.

Yellow: What are you talking about? We're not your puppets!

Green: Megalith! How can you be telling the truth?

Megalith: This farce is over now. Awaken Golden Silver!

Blue: No!

Green: No. No!

Yellow: Arrgh!

Golden Silver: I am Golden Silver. I am power fueled by humanity. I must feed myself to become stronger.

Blue: You. You monster!

[Golden Silver: Dead End]

Golden Silver: Who. What am I? Why do I exist?

Blue: Look, it's running away!

Golden Silver: I shall. return to the chaos I was born from!

Blue: Hey! It split! Did you meddle in this, Megalith?

Megalith: No. The 4 gems and I have done nothing. There is no value in controlling the God of Ruin. What drives it now is its own hatred toward itself. It wishes to destroy itself and that which created it. You will get no aid from us. Stop it if you wish. Ha ha ha ha ha!

Blue: Red! We've got to go after the God of Ruin! Come on! Green! Yellow! We'll be back to save you! Sorry.

Blue: There's the God of Ruin. But our ship's too slow!

Red: Let's try to crash into it with our ship!

Blue: Red?!

Red: It's the only way to save the Earth. Sorry, Blue! Come on!

Blue: Oh boy!

Blue: Um, Red? I love you!

Red: Yeah. Let's go! We're Gunstars, right?

Green (or Yellow?): Blue! Red! We won't let you go alone!

Yellow (or Green?): We'll be with you, too! Seven Force!

Pink: Gunstars!

Orange: Green! Yellow!

Black: Doctor! Your children.

Absilio Mundus!

Is peace ultimately just a fantasy?

Billions of people on billions of Earths.

Each have their own prayers, their hopes and wishes. All eternal in an otherwise ephemeral life.

That is the power of humans. So conflicted, yet wishing for peace. We shall be united once more. Now is the time for a new awakening!
