The (L) button and the bottom directional button together will make you whistle for your dog.

The (L) and Select buttons together will bring-up the Farm Map. You will be able to see your crops you are growing, your house, barn, chicken coop, where your animals are, etc. The (L) and Start buttons together will bring-up the Worlds Map. The World Map will show you all of Mineral Town. From Mother's Hill to Mineral Beach. You'll be able to see all of Mineral Town.

2. ~~FARM~~

Your Farm consists of these things:

- A. Your House
- B. Your Barn for your Cows and Sheep
- C. Your Wood Bin
- D. Your Horse Stable
- E. Your Chicken Coop
- F. Your Tree
- G. Your Land where you can grow your crops, or your fencing where your animals can graze.

You can have extensions to your farm too! Before any extensions, your house will have:

- A. A Calendar
- B. A Single-Person Bed
- C. A Diary
- D. A Chest where you can put your tools

- E. A Small Table
- F. A Television
- G. A Bookshelf

You can buy a Mirror and a Clock from the TV Shopping Network too.

You can extend your house two times. The first time you extend your house you will have:

- A. A Calendar still
- B. A Television still
- C. A Diary still
- D. A Single-Person Bed still
- E. A Bookshelf still
- F. A chest for your tools still
- G. A Bigger table

You can buy a Shelf to store your items in, a Refrigerator to store food in, a Kitchen to cook, and Cooking Materials such as an Oven to Cook as well from the TV Shopping Network.

When you extend your house again, your house will have the same things only you can buy from the TV Shopping Network a:

- A. Double-Persons Bed
- B. A Big Rug to put under your table and chairs.

You will also get a fireplace where you can place lumber in for a roaring fire during the winter and you can build a bathroom too! It is also required for you to have a Double-Persons Bed in order to be able to get married.

Your Barn where your Sheep and Cows stay can be extended too. Before you extend it, you have 8 stalls for your cows or sheep, including one stall where a pregnant cow or sheep will stay, and one shipment chest. If you extend your barn, you will have 16 Stalls for your Cows and Sheep, two shipment chests, and including two stalls where your pregnant Cows or Sheep will stay! When your Barn is extended too you can get a Cheese Maker and a Yarn Maker.

Your Chicken Coop is the last thing that can be extended. Before you extend your Chicken Coop, you have one Egg Incubator, one Shipment Chest, and you are able to have 4 chickens. When you extend your Chicken Coop, you have two Egg incubators and you are able to have 8 chickens. You also can get a Mayonaise Maker once your Chicken Coop is extended.

You can make fences with Rocks and Lumber. Rocks are recommended though because they don't need any maintenance. The wood fencing breaks easily. When you have wood fencing, when you are unable to pick-up the wood for the fence, you need to use your hammer and destroy that piece and put a new one. If you don't and your animals are in the fence, Wild Dogs will come out and scare your animals just like when your animals are outside and you don't have any fencing! If you use rocks as your fencing, Wild Dogs won't come out and scare your animals when they're inside the fencing. Your Dog when it is full-grown will be able to scare the animals, but even when it scares the Wild Dogs, your animals will still be unhappy and won't give milk or lay eggs when they are unhappy.

3. ~~ANIMALS~~

You are able to have Chickens, Cows, Sheep, and a Horse. You also automatically get a puppy.

A. Your Dog

You start out with one animal you can't get rid of whether you like it or not, a puppy. Your puppy will gain affection when you pick it up and when you bring it to bed with you. Your puppy though can easily lose affection when you hit it with a hammer, scythe, or a hoe, and when you leave it outside in bad weather or don't ever pick it up. Basically, if you hurt it or ignore it. Your dog will eventually grow-up into a full-grown dog (it should be sometime in year one I think), where it will scare Wild Dogs outside, play catch with you with a ball, and play frisbee with you during the spring, summer, and fall. Your dog can also be entered into a frisbee tournament with you on the 1st day of summer when it is full-grown. Your dog enjoys going to bed with you, as well as being in the barn with your cows and sheep. You don't even have to feed it!

B. Your Horse

Having a horse is optional. When you become friends with Barley, he will come to your house and bring a colt for you to take care of as since he has too many horses. You can accept or decline his offer. You are unable to ride or enter it in the horse races when it is a colt. But it should grow-up into a full-grown horse in about a year. You can talk to it when it is a colt, but you can't when it is full grown. When it is a Colt and when it is a full-grown horse, you can brush it to gain affection. Talking and brushing it will have it gain affection. Most animals like to be outside in good weather too, so when the waether is nice it can gain affection by being outside. When it is full-grown, you will be able to ride it ONLY around your farm and you will be able to enter it in Horse races. When the weather is bad, you should bring it inside the stable, which is next to the Lumber Bin. You don't have to feed it. But if you don't take good care of your horse, Barley will come ovre and take your horse away. I've never gotten my horse taken away from me, but from what I have heard he will come back to your house the next year and give your horse back to you.

C. Chickens

You can buy chickens from the Poultry Farm, where Lillia, your rival Rick, and your bachelorette Popuri live. You can also get chickens buy putting one of your chicken's eggs in an egg incubator in the Chicken Coop and wait for 3 days for the egg to hatch. You only get female chickens. The eggs are always fertilized too. You can gain affection similar to your dog. You can pick-up your chickens and drop them. Your chickens love to be outside on good weather, but from what I have heard, your chickens can run away. So if they are going to be outside, you want to make sure they are inside fencing. They also will pick-up worms outside so you won't have to feed them outside. But during bad weather you want to make sure they're inside the Chicken Coop. If they're not inside the Chicken Coop during bad weather, they can become sick, unhappy, or even die! When they are sick or unhappy, they won't lay eggs. When they are sick you need to buy Animal Medicine from either Barley at the Yodel Farm or Lillia at the Poultry Farm. Then make sure it is equipped (it will be in the tools section) and press (B) on the chicken. Something should come-up saying "The sickness is gone!" If it says "Nothing happened," then you didn't give it to the chicken correctly. You can also lose affection when you hurt your chicken. When your chickens are inside the Chicken Coop, you should feed each chicken once a day. If you don't want your chickens anymore, you can get money off of them by selling them to Lillia at the Poultry Farm. Depending on how well of eggs they lay will depend on the money you get in return. The more affection you give your chickens, the better the eggs they lay. The better the affection also, the better they'll do in the Chicken Festival and when they win the Chicken Festival, they also lay better eggs!

D. Cows

You can buy cows from the Yodel Farm, where Barley and his granddaughter May live. You can also get cows when you buy a Pregnant Miracle Potion for cows at Yodel Farm from Barley and give it to your cow to pregnate it. You wait for about 20 days and you should have a calf born! You only get female cows. The cows will give you better milk if you give them more affection. They will also do better in the Cow Festival if you give them more affection. When they win the Cow Festivals, they give better milk too! You can sell cows based on their milk quality like chickens at the Yodel Farm with Barley. Cows like to be outside during good weather if they are in a well-fenced area with grass. Cows will graze and you won't have to feed them. But during bad weather you need to bring them inside the Barn or they will become unhappy, sick, or even die! When they are sick or unhappy, they won't give milk. You will also need to feed them when they are inside the Barn. You can give them affection by milking them, brushing them, and talking to them. But you can lose affection by hurting them. If they become sick, you need to buy Animal Medicine just like the chickens.

E. Sheep

You can buy sheep from Yodel Farm from Barley. You can also get sheep when you buy Pregnant Miracle Potion for sheep from Barley at Yodel Farm. You give it to them (Which I forget to mention it will go in the Tools section) and like the cows you should wait for about 20 days and then the lamb is born! Likewise also, you can only have female sheep. You can shear the wool on your sheep a couple times a season. Wool quality will depend on the affection you give the sheep and if it has won in the Sheep Festival. They also enjoy to be outside in good weather in a well-fenced area and with grass. If you don't want your sheep, you can sell them to Barley at Yodel Farm and depending the quality of the wool your sheep give will depend on how much money you get from them. You can give them affection by talking to them, brushing them, and shearing their wool. They will graze outside so you won't have to feed them. But if there's bad weather, you want to make sure they're inside the barn or they will become unhappy, sick, or even die! When they're sick,

you need to buy Animal Medicine and give it to them like with the cows and chickens.

D. WINTER

Nothing grows in the winter. So this is basically a break for you.

5. ~~FISHING~~

In order of course for you to go fishing, you need a fishing rod! Fishing can be a lot of fun!! If you don't know how to get a fishing rod, it's simple:

1. You need to make sure you have an empty slot in your tools section in your rucksack. This empty slot will be where your fishing rod goes when you receive it.

2. You need to go inside Zack and Won's beach shack around 3:00pm-4:00pm.

3. Once you go inside, Zack will give you a fishing rod g, which is basically a simple fishing rod. You can only fish though for small fish and trash with this

rod. But you can get it upgraded to fish for bigger and better fish! I don't know the difference between a Copper Rod and a Rod g, but the Copper Rod is better than the Fishing Rod g. Then Silver Rod will catch you medium fish, small fish, and trash.

Next is the Golden Rod and that will catch you large, medium, small fish, and trash.

Then Mythic rod will catch you legendary Kingfish, large, medium, small fish, and trash.

Lastly, you have the Cursed and Blessed Rods. Those will catch you Treasure Chests,

6. ~~MINING~~

There are two different caves you can mine in: The Spring Mine and the Winter Mine. The Spring Mine you can go mining in any season any day, and it is located next to the Harvest Goddess' Spring. The Winter Mine, however, you can go mining in only during the winter when Kappa Lake freezes. When Kappa lake is frozen solid, you can walk across it and get to the Winter Mine.

Here are the best things you should have equipped with you when you go mining:

1. Hoe
2. Hammer
3. Basket
4. Bodigizer (Bodigizer XL is best)
5. Turbojolt (Turbojolt XL is best)
6. And Elli Grass

In order to go down levels, you need to dig to find a golden staircase. The staircase can be located anywhere on the level, including under rocks. You want to use the hammer to break the rocks and the hoe to dig. Mining can take a long time, but it can also be fun and a great way to make lots of money!

A. SPRING MINE

The items in the Spring Mine are best for upgrading tools and making Cheese, Yarn, and Mayonaise Makers, including making jewlery for the ladies. Items used to upgrade tools are called, "Ores." There are Copper Ores, Silver Ores, Golden Ores, and Mystrile Ores. But don't get confused with Junk Ores. Those You can sell for 1, and they won't help you upgrade anything. It's like in its name, they are "junk."

The item you use to make jewlery for the ladies is Orichalcum. These help make Necklaces, Earings, Bracelets, and Broaches.

The Cheese, Yarn, and Mayonaise Makers require an Adamantite. These are quite rare.

While mining, you can find these ores and also money and black grass, which black grass will help your fatigue and stamina.

If you wish to sell any of them, here's what you get:

15. ~~LINKING~~

Many people wonder how you link Harvest Moon: Friends of Mineral Town and Harvest Moon: A Wonderful Life. Well, here's how it goes:

1. Turn the Gamecube and the Gameboy Advance on. The Gameboy Player DOES NOT work for linking the games.
2. In Harvest Moon: A Wonderful Life, go to the Mountain by Vesta's farm where Nic, Nac, and Flak will stop you. They will talk to you and just say yes both times. But when they say to turn the Gameboy Advance off and then on, DO NOT turn the Gambeboy Advance off!!
3. In Harvest Moon: Friends of Mineral Town, go to the Harvest Goddess' Spring by the Spring Mine and give her an offering. She will ask you if you want to connect to the Gamecube game. The first time say yes, when she asks you if you want to stop linking, say yes because yes and no are switched around the second time.
4. When the linking is complete it will automatically say "linking terminated." You will get a certain ammount of linking stars with how far both games on the Gamecube and Gameboy Advance are. When all 42 starts are filled up, you will get a Beach Vacation House!! Different events and items will occur when a certain ammount of stars are filled-up. Linking has nothing to do with the Mountain Cottage!! To get the Mountain Cottage, you need to be married for 50 years on the game and your wife will get that for you. You DO NOT play multiplayer when linking. Linking is just exchanging information from the games.
