$# Miles "Tails" Prower #

Tails, who got his nickname via the two tails he has, is an expert with anything and everything mechanical. When enough Chaos Emerald shards have been collected, he can fuse them back together to recreate the Emeralds as they were originally.

$# Rouge the Bat #

Rouge is a government spy, though more than that, she's a treasure hunter, of which she would like to believe she is the best in existence. She owns a club in Night Babylon called 'Club "Rouge"', and let's Shadow stay there after she finds him in the Gimme Shelter.

She gets Sonic to establish a Link between her and Emerl, and through that Link, she intends to make Emerl the "ultimate robot thief".

$# Knuckles the Echidna #

Knuckles is the guardian of the Master Emerald (though not too much emphasis is put on that in this game). He is quick to act, and easily tricked; the latter trait being something which Eggman exploits repeatedly, in this and many other 'Sonic the Hedgehog' games.

$# Amy Rose #

Amy's a hedgehog like Sonic, and speaking of Sonic, she's absolutely obsessed with him (it seems more obvious here than the other games, somehow). She is also on a new diet program that involves a routine called "boxercise"; which she makes Cream do with her. Once Emerl starts learning to talk better, Amy gets him to help her with measuring weight loss and such.

When Amy first met Emerl, she thought that Sonic got him as practice for their (Sonic & Amy's) eventual baby.

$# Cream the Rabbit #

Cream is friends with a Chao named Cheese, and lives with Amy in an apartment in Central City. Amy tends to force Creamr to workout with her during her "boxercising" sessions - something which Cream doesn't like at all.

Being a very anti-violence person (...animal), Cream refuses to fight, because she doesn't like it when people are sad or hurt. But when Emerl got nearly killed by not fighting (he was trying not to upset Cream), she decided she should fight also, so that he wouldn't come to harm.

$# Shadow the Hedgehog #

Shadow originally appeared in Sonic Adventure 2, and at the end, he fell from outer space due to wearing out his Super Form in the battle with BioLizard (the prototype of the Ultimate Life Form). It was assumed that he had died, but then he reappeared in Sonic Heroes.

There, he was sealed inside a capsule in one of Eggman's bases, and Rouge and Omega set him free (Omega doing his part in a roundabout way). At the end of the Dark Story, Rouge and Omega found a room full of Shadow clones on the Egg Fleet. Rouge was depressed, thinking that the Shadow she found was a fake, but then Omega said, "You know the thing about cloning... the original must exist somewhere."

As Eggman revealed in Shadow the Hedgehog, the Shadow in SA2, SH, ShTH, and SB were all the same one (the original). After Shadow fell from space, Eggman sent one of his robots to save him - he just lost his memories is all.

Also told in ShTH, is that Shadow was created by both Gerald Robotnik (who we knew about before), and Black Doom. Doom helped Gerald with Project Shadow by infusing him (Shadow) with his own blood, and in exchange, asked Gerald to one day have Shadow give him the Chaos Emeralds. He wanted them so that, when the Black Comet returned in fifty years, he could teleport it down to the surface of the Earth.

In Sonic Battle, Shadow says that, as a weapon of war, he should be ruthless; thus he wonders why it was that Gerald gave him a heart. Rouge found a document that Gerald has written, which described that he (Gerald) wasn't interested in making weapons, but rather mere living beings. He hoped that no matter how corrupt the users of weapons would become, the weapons themselves would remain pure and not yield to their nature. This is why he gave both Shadow and Gizoid pieces of Maria's soul.

$# Chaos Gamma #
#####

Chaos Gamma is an E-102 Gamma look-alike, but despite the resemblance and being created from related parts, he is not him. CG wants revenge on Emerl for taking his Chaos Emerald/shard away from him.

$# Gizoid / Emerl #

Emerl, as Sonic names him, is a robot that Gerald found in a ruin that was made made by an ancient civilization. He was constructed for war and was given the ability to absorb weaponry; or as Gizoid said it, "I represent all things."

While Emerl and Gizoid are simply different names for the same robot, they can also be used to compare his personalities. "Emerl" is the cocky, arrogant robot that Sonic has grown to know; "Gizoid" is the weapon of war that was made in the ancient past.

Gizoid is capable of establishing a "Link" with the first person who shows it their power; though that Link can be overridden should someone of greater strength show themselves to Gizoid. Also, whoever initiated the original Link has the aptitude to command the Gizoid to create other Links, granted that the new ones won't be to the same extent at the first.

When Gerald found Gizoid, he was unable to completely erase its destructive side, so to keep it from harming the world he put into place an alternate method of removing it; if Gizoid were to ever acquire the seven Chaos Emeralds and expose the violent side of its being, the weapon aspect could be expunged by ordering Gizoid to, "Bring hope to humanity". Those were the last words that Maria said when she died aboard the ARK, so that's what Gerald decided to use for the password.

Also, according to Gerald's diary, Gizoid was the cause of the destruction of the "Fourth Great Civilization".

$# Doctor Eggman Robotnik #

At the very beginning of the game, Eggman threw the Gizoid out onto the beach in frustration, as he couldn't get him to respond to his commands. However, he took some of Gizoid's data and used it to create "Phi"; numerous silver copies of Gizoid. Later he realized that he shouldn't have been so brash with him, but by then Sonic had already established a Link, so there was nothing he could do.

Eggman's goal this time around is to activate the Final Egg Blaster, which is an immensely powerful cannon inside the Death Egg.

$# Gerald Robotnik #

Gerald was a scientist, and was both Eggman and Maria's grandfather. He lived aboard the first Bernoulli space-colony named "ARK"; which, at the time of its creation, was the most advanced research center of its kind. Not very many people were aware, but Gerald and the others on the Colony were secretly developing powerful weapons - among them, a laser with the capability to decimate an entire planet; codenamed as, "The Eclipse Cannon".

He was developing that Cannon because of his meeting with Black Doom some time prior. Back then, he was working on "Project Shadow" (a.k.a. the Ultimate Life Form), which was intended to be an immortal being who could possibly be a cure for Maria, but he needed help. So he asked Black Doom for his assistance, and Doom agreed under a condition - that in the future, Shadow would give the seven Chaos Emeralds to him. Gerald said he would, and so Doom used his blood to bring Shadow the Hedgehog to life. What Gerald didn't know, was that Doom wanted the Emeralds so that he could teleport the "Black Comet" down to Earth, and eradicate the humans. So, in an attempt to lessen the effects of the arrangement, Gerald began construction of the Eclipse Cannon. (He intended for it to be used to obliterate the Comet).

But when GUN shut down the laboratory, and Maria died, Gerald went insane; she was the only thing he had left to live for, and with her gone, his life was meaningless. He made modifications to the Eclipse Cannon's programming, so that if its power were ever boosted by all the Chaos Emeralds, it would begin a descent towards Earth, and destroy the planet. He also installed a safeguard; should anyone try to deactivate the program, the BioLizard - the prototype of the Ultimate Life Form - would attach itself to the ARK, and override its controls, thus making it impossible to alter its course.

As was detailed in this game, Gerald never wanted to make weapons for war. So when the government forced him to use his abilities to create weapons, he took his own initiative and infused them with hearts; both Shadow and the Gizoid were given fragments of Maria's soul.

$# Maria Robotnik #

Fifty years ago, Maria lived on the ARK with her grandfather, and befriended one of his research projects; the Ultimate Life Form, "Shadow". At that time, Maria was suffering from a terminal illness called NIDS, and would eventually die from it; Shadow was created in Gerald's study on immortality, and was intended to, if successful, be the finding of a cure for Maria.

When GUN invaded the space colony and killed everyone who knew about Project Shadow, she was brought near-death. She managed to get Shadow inside an escape pod, and launch him out of the colony, despite him wanting to stay with her.

Before she died, she said the following as her last words...

"Shadow... I beg of you... please, do it for me... for a better future... for all the people who live on that planet... give them a chance to be happy. Let them live for their dreams. Shadow, I know you can do it. That's the reason that you were brought into this world. Sayonara, Shadow, the Hedgehog."

$# Phi #
#####

The Phi are the copies of Emerl/Gizoid that Eggman made. They are silver in color, and their vocabulary is limited to "Destroy!" and similar words.

$# Chaos #

Chaos originally appeared in Sonic Adventure 1 as the guardian of the Chao and the Master/Chaos Emerald/s. When the Echidnas came to the shrine to take the Emeralds, they hurt the Chao there as well; at which point Chaos went berserk. Tikal sealed it inside the Master Emerald so that it wouldn't harm the world.

Later on, Chaos somehow escaped the ME and Eggman took control of him. After it acquired all the Chaos Emeralds and became "Perfect Chaos", as well as rebuking Eggman's grasp on him, he was defeated by Sonic in his Super form. Tikal then descended from the sky and took Chaos with her into the afterlife.

Somehow, he has returned again in SB for a fairly brief cameo/fight. And apparently, he can come back whenever a "great crisis" presents itself.

At certain points, I've used the description "crackles" for robots. That way of describing it is, I'm sure, far from the best way of saying it, but it was the only thing that came to mind.

What it's supposed to mean, is... "The robot trembles as electricity crackles up its body." This primarily (if not entirely) happens when one of the robots in the game becomes critically injured (i.e., Chaos Gamma after being beaten in a fight, Emerl when he's about to die, etc).

So, hopefully, that description makes a tad bit more sense now.

- 3: Canon refers to official continuity within a story. For example, the Sonic the Hedgehog comics are not canon, as some of them cannot coexist with the videogames (which came first), and also that Sonic Team didn't make them.
- 4. Everything in this section is simply a few educated guesses of mine; it's not as if Sonic Team included a note with the game saying, "Yes, this is an official part of the timeline." With that in mind, I might be totally wrong and Battle actually is canon... but I may also be right.

$# 02: Timeline #

It's important to know where Battle fits in with the rest of the games that Shadow has appeared in (IF it were canon), as I will refer to it later on.

- Sonic Adventure 2 > Sonic Heroes > Shadow the Hedgehog > Sonic Battle -

Some people have said that Battle happens before ShTH, however that is almost impossible. The only way that could work is if after Sonic Heroes (in which Shadow had amnesia), he suddenly remembered everything, then forgot it again after Battle, and THEN remembered his past AGAIN in ShTH.

(And no, Battle can't come before Heroes as that game was confirmed to come directly after SA2, and SA2 was Shadow's original debut.)

$# 03: Primary reasons why Battle isn't canon #

- 1. Shadow put his past behind him in ShTH ("Goodbye ___forever___, Shadow the Hedgehog"), so he wouldn't be as incredibly hyped up about Gizoid as he was (he could have taken some interest in the moment, sure, but not go as far as he did).
- 2. Throughout Battle, Shadow's recovering from an injury. What injury? I would assume it was from falling from the ARK in SA2 (there wasn't really anything else it could've been), but since Battle happens after ShTH (IF it occurs at all), he wouldn't have anything to recover _from_ (because by the time ShTH happened, he didn't seem to still be injured from falling).
- 3. (Note: This reason is debatable since it makes an assumption)

Battle and ShTH give different circumstances leading up to Maria's death. In ShTH, Maria died after the level Lost Impact; the Artificial Chaos were running rampant and destroying sections of the ARK. After the mission was completed, we saw Maria falling in the research facility (after being shot and putting Shadow in the escape capsule).

In Battle, Gerald's Journal #6 says... "My worst fears have come true. The Gizoid has absorbed enough weaponry and technology that it has started to go out of control. The resulting rampage resulted in the destruction of most of the "Ark."

Then in Journal #7... "I have heard there was an accident at the research facility. Everything... Everything is gone. My own Maria's name was among the list of casualties."

While it doesn't say exactly that the 'accident at the research facility' was Gizoid's doing, it's relatively safe to assume that, since they were only one Journal apart, it took that long for word of Maria's death (via the events of entry #6) to reach Gerald.

Also, if the accident Battle spoke of was the Artificial Chaos' doing, I'd have expected a mention of the AC somewhere in the Journal.

$# 04: Possible counterargument to "2." (1) #

Since Shadow was using the Chaos Emeralds for the entirety of ShTH, you could say that it was thanks to them that he wasn't all injured and everything until Battle, where he fought with just one Emerald and against stronger individual opponents.

However, think about this... In SA2's ending, he was weak from fighting BioLizard, thus he fell from space due to wearing out his Super form. I'd assume that, if falling was what made him so weak in Battle, that he'd be even weaker in ShTH (since it precedes Battle); but yet he managed to beat Devil Doom effortlessly - something he couldn't do in SA2 (that is, keep his Super form active).

Further, even with Sonic's help, Shadow wasn't strong enough in SA2 to maintain his Super Form when he and Sonic teleported the ARK away - yet in ShTH, he successfully warps the Black Comet without ANY help at all.

My point? Shadow utilized his Super form better in ShTH than SA2 - it was fatigue that held him back in SA2; I take his improved performance in ShTH as a sign that he wasn't weak at all from anything, or at the very least that he was less weak. Thus, it makes no sense why he would go on to Battle, in which he was weaker than in either SA2 or ShTH - even to the point of being told that he knew he wasn't well enough yet to be fighting.

It has been suggested that Shadow fell from space in SA2 because it was his first time using his Super form, so then he used it properly in ShTH due to experience with it. I doubt that that's why he fell, though, because several times during the fight, other characters would comment about how he and Sonic were running out of energy/Rings; thus, THAT appears more likely, as it's what the characters themselves were saying.

Of course, there is the chance that he WAS running out of energy/Rings, but actually fell because of lack of familiarity... it just seems more probable that it was energy loss.

Some people have said that the reason Shadow performed so well in ShTH's end was because he had been building up his strength throughout the game, and then he wore out that power by fighting Devil Doom and using Chaos Control on the Black Comet, thus why he was so weak in Battle.

However... Shadow seemed totally unfazed after fighting Devil Doom; I find it unlikely that he built up his strength before facing DD, exhausted said strength by fighting him, showed no signs of using up all his energy, but then DID make it glaringly obvious by the time Battle rolled around.

It seems like, if this argument is true, that Shadow should have been a tad bit more tired immediately after both fighting Devil Doom and CC'ing the Comet.

$# 07: Sonic Advance 3  #

One of the more common reasons used in arguments to (try to) prove that Battle is canon is the fact that in Sonic Advance 3 (Sa3), there is a robot that Eggman constructed which looks like Emerl (similar to the Phi, but it's got a bit more color); so then people think that if Battle isn't canon, Sa3 can't be either, and Sega just wouldn't do that or something.

That is not a very good reasoning, though, as if Sa3 weren't canon, it really wouldn't affect anything in a major way - nothing noteworthy happened in Sa3, thus it's all too easy to remove it from the official timeline.

However, there is a retort to that: Sonic Advance 2 WAS, indisputably, canon, because it introduced Cream, and she reappeared multiple times in other canon games - thus, some people have said that if Sa2 was canon, Sa3 must also be, therefore Battle is as well.

The problem with that logic is that there is no reason that just because one part of a series is canon, another related part has to be. Take Shadow the Hedgehog's ten endings that have to be acquired before gaining access to Last Story, for instance: in three of them, Shadow fights and defeats Black Doom. That cannot be a canon ending, as in Last Story, Black Doom acts as if it never happened and still seems to think Shadow wants to help him.

So... just because Sonic Advance 2 is canon doesn't mean that Sonic Advance 3 had to be; likewise, just because another game wouldn't be canon if Battle wasn't, doesn't mean it is.

$# 08: "But couldn't ShTH be the non-canon game instead of Battle?"  #

No, not really.

First of all, ShTH was made AFTER Battle was, and it's the newest game in a series that's most likely to be canon (not that it HAS to be, though).

Second, ShTH was declared by Sonic Team as the be-all-end-all to Shadow and his past; because of that, it is definitely, indisputably canon - if there are ANY discrepancies between it and another game, it gets top priority.

Finally, which seems more likely to have the most accurate information on Shadow: the 2D fighting game partially produced by a third party whose primary focus was on Gizoid, not Shadow... or the 3D game entirely produced by Sonic Team that totally revolved around Shadow?

EMERL: "Show... .. power... OR I sh...all ob...ey... Sha...ll conqu...r a...ll..."

SONIC: Huh? What did it say? Show it my power? Like this? Heh heh...

* - He raises his fist in the air, and a burst of light flashes. Everything goes dark to show emphasis on Sonic and Emerl.

EMERL:!!

SONIC: -(!)- {What?!} What! Whoa!

EMERL: "I sha...ll not ...represent ...and become... of all..."

SONIC: What? What's it saying? I wonder if this thing can even be fixed. I better take it to Tails before it blows up. Tails' House is north of town. Follow me! {Yeah!}

* - He and Emerl leave; Rouge appears on the beach.

ROUGE: {giggle} Looks like I arrived a little too late. It must have established a "Link" already... But with Sonic? What a strange choice... Oh, well. That won't stop the world's greatest thief, "Rouge" {I'll overcome everything!} from getting what she wants!

ROUGE: The robot's a special case. And it's already established a "Link" with you. This isn't an ordinary robot you know. So, about my little wager, if I win, you have to team up with me, OK?

SONIC: Don't you think it's a little too early to be getting romantic? And if I win, you'll leave me alone, right?

ROUGE: Better watch yourself. Don't ever underestimate an agent. You might get hurt.

SONIC: We just encountered that "fake," I think. I wonder if there are even more of them out there. Hmm, this is all starting to get a little more interesting now.

TAILS {Sonic...!} Sonic...

SONIC: So whaddya find out?

TAILS: What did I find out? This robot has some amazing technology inside it!

SONIC: There it was again! What's going on?

TAILS: I was right! Sonic, this robot is very special!

SONIC: OK, so I know this is an amazing robot. But what does it all mean? And why is everyone after him?

TAILS: Well, I know two things. 1: It is powered by Chaos Emeralds. Once we give it more "Chaos Emeralds," it will regain its energy and even be able to speak properly.

SONIC: Maybe that's why Eggman...

TAILS: My next discovery about this robot is even more stunning. This robot is capable of adopting attack techniques either by observation, or by being attacked by attack techniques.

SONIC: So what you mean is, if I kick him, he will learn my move, and kick just like I did. Am I following you right, Tails?

TAILS: That's right, Sonic! And on top of that, it can develop new moves based on the captured data!

SONIC: Well, that's cool, I guess. I should teach it to run in case it ever needs to run away.

TAILS: It can learn new attacks by pressing the "R Button"!

SONIC: So, it's able to even combine moves, such as using my jumping skill with your attack techniques...

TAILS: That's correct! But this robot's system seems to have some sort of limitations on the attack abilities it can learn. I believe it's somehow related to "Skill Points." But my computer broke down before I was able to confirm this. I guess my computer crashed because of the massive overload of data from the robot... .. This isn't just an ordinary robot, that's for sure...!

SONIC: Hmph... It all sounds so complicated, but basically this robot has the ability to learn our moves, right? If that's the case, then let's start training it! Let's do a "KO Battle"! The one who gets "10 KOs" first wins, OK? Are you ready, Tails?

SONIC: That Rouge!

KNUCKLES: {growl} I wonder what that woman is up to now. Hey, Emerl, did she pull any kind of tricks on you?

EMERL:

KNUCKLES: {Gwa!} Hey, why won't you listen to me?!?

SONIC: {Yeah!} Ha ha ha! Just as Rouge said! Hey, Emerl! Ignore Knuckles! Just ignore him!

EMERL: Ignore! Ignore! Ignore! Ignore!

KNUCKLES: {Ugh...} Hmph, so you wanna put an end to this, eh?

SONIC: {Yes!} Bring it on!

GAME: 3 days ago...

PRESIDENT: An ancient weapon, "Gizoid", which was sealed and misplaced 50 years ago, has been recovered by Eggman... You can get all the necessary information at the "Central Lab". You may have free access to the Central Lab with this pass. We're counting on you, Rouge. The safety of the Nation is in your hands.

ROUGE: {Well, now!} Yes, sir, Mr. President! By the way, don't forget about my reward!

ROUGE: OK, now that I have official approval from my boss... {giggle} I can access the government computer system and gather all kinds of information on various treasures!

* - She goes into Central Lab.

ROUGE: Let's see... Information on unlocking the security system on that art gallery... Or maybe I should look up the National Museum first...? Hee hee! This is so exciting! I'm going to have all the information that'll allow me to gain access to all the treasures by the time I'm done here! Now Mr. Computer, tell me everything! {giggle}

COMPUTER: beep Login error... This data is currently being accessed by another user...

ROUGE: What? How can that be? Come on! This is a government computer system. No one else should have access to it! What? Who could it be? How dare you!

I'll find you! Confirm login username...

COMPUTER: Login username: Dr. Eggman

ROUGE: -(!)- Dr.? {Hmm, all right!} Aha! I guess I've got my work cut out for me! Let's see where he's accessing the computer from.

COMPUTER: Accessing route: "Highway"

ROUGE: Hey, that's just right around the corner. {Let's see whatcha got!} I guess I better go pay him a little visit.

EGGMAN: Hmph! I was right! I needed 7 "Chaos Emeralds" and the key word in order to "Link" with the "Gizoid" to resurrect it!! Dang it! I should've never tossed that thing away!

ROUGE: {Hi, sugar!} Hey, doctor! Long time no see!

EGGMAN: {Ugh.} Rouge? Sorry, but I'm quite busy right now.

ROUGE: {giggle} Heh... I'm sure you are, doctor...

EGGMAN: What're you babbling about?

ROUGE: You know, you're wanted by the government for questioning about a certain item.

EGGMAN: Hmph! I tossed that piece of junk at the beach already!

ROUGE: What? You threw it away?

EGGMAN: The world's deadliest weapon? What a joke! That worthless thing can't even listen to basic instructions! It's probably making friends with the crabs right about now!

ROUGE: With crabs?

EGGMAN: I used the raw data from that robot to build a much better robot. Its name is E121 "Phi"!

PHI:

ROUGE: {Hmph!} What an ugly contraption.

EGGMAN: These guys are powered by pieces of the "Chaos Emerald." I created "Phi" by using Emerald shards from the Chaos Emerald I crushed!

ROUGE: You created this...

EGGMAN: And I programmed them to collect all 7 "Chaos Emeralds"! In no time, I should have all 7 "Chaos Emeralds..." Oh, I forgot you're also looking for "Chaos Emeralds." So I must insist that you stay out of the way for a while.

ROUGE: Seriously, you don't think you can stop me, do you doctor?

EGGMAN: Hah! You haven't seen the power of my new creation! {Prepare to die!}
Go Phii #1!

* - The Phi crackles, and disappears.

EGGMAN: {It can't be!} Nooo!

* - A Chaos Emerald shard floats down to Rouge.

ROUGE: I guess it wasn't as tough as you thought it was I'll take this "Emerald Shard"!

EGGMAN: Dang... It looks like I need the original... I'll let you go this time, but I won't take it so easy on you the next time you get in my way!
{So long, losers!} leaves

ROUGE: Get in your way? Hmmm... It could get awfully complicated if the doctor has already linked himself with the Gizoid first... I know he said that he tossed it on the beach, but... Oh, well, I better find out more about "Gizoid" using this pass! I can't let doctor take all the fun for himself.

SECURITY: Hey, you!

ROUGE: Here's my pass. Now leave me alone.

SECURITY: My apologies, madam!

* - Rouge goes inside the Lab.

ROUGE: OK, now where shall I begin?

COMPUTER: Searching Gizoid... Searching... Searching... Searching... Warning!
Highly Confidential! Battle weapon discovered in ancient ruins...
Called "Gizoid"... Technique to acquire all forms of weaponry is based on super-science technology... This process has no apparent limitations and will continue to loop indefinitely.

ROUGE: {Whew!} Hmm... Very interesting.

COMPUTER: Endless cycle... Continuing cycle causes overload which can lead to... Experiment created by Professor Gerald... Sealed by the government... Disappearance...

ROUGE: Professor Gerald... He's Shadow's creator. I think I may have hit the jackpot! I'm not all that interested in anything besides jewelry, but... This is something else. If I can train the robot to become the ultimate robot thief... All the jewelry in the world will be mine! So, where can I find this thing?

COMPUTER: "Delivery of power"... The output of its power is initiated by external contact, and from that point on, it will only take orders from the one who initiated the contact... This act is called, establishing a "Link." {Hmm, all right!} Hmm... Since the doctor still doesn't seem to have created a "Link" with it, I better hurry to find it and make it mine. But if someone else finds it before me, it could get quite complicated...

COMPUTER: It will, however, take orders from others if permission is given by its original master...

ROUGE: I see... So I can make it mine as long as I get permission from its master. I better go find this Gizoid now. The doctor said that he tossed the Gizoid at the beach... I should head to "Emerald Beach."

KNUCKLES: I'VE been looking for YOU! Let's go!

ROUGE: {Hi, sugar!} I suppose you think echidnas are special and you don't have to pay for the entrance fee?

KNUCKLES: Rouge! What're you planning to do with Emerl?!

ROUGE: {Hmm!} How rude... Emerl came to me. He probably missed me. My, you've grown strong... Gives me goose bumps thinking about it.

KNUCKLES: {Ugh...} So much confidence...

KNUCKLES: This thing fell out of Phi...

ROUGE: Phi is powered by "Chaos Emerald" shards. I've actually got one, too.
Here, take it. gives to Emerl

EMERL: Thank you very much! Looks like you've got a use after all!

ROUGE: {Hmm!} Well, I never...! How exactly are you raising him, anyway?

KNUCKLES: S-sorry...

ROUGE: I've got no use for a measly shard. I'll collect on this debt some other day by taking your Master Emerald.

KNUCKLES: You wish!

ROUGE: {giggle} Hah! Are you forgetting that I'm the world's greatest thief? But perhaps you should first ask your little fox friend what he knows about the shards. I've already seen him absorb a Chaos Emerald...

KNUCKLES: Good point. We should go back and talk to Tails about this.

SONIC: {Hey!} Hey, Emerl! You're back!

AMY: -(!)- Sonic!

SONIC: -(!)- {What?!} Amy!

AMY: Look Sonic! I helped turn Emerl into a full gorwn robot! Now that I've proved that I can be a good mother, you have no more excuses not to marry me! {Ugh!} So what do you have to say now?

SONIC: A, Amy... Close your eyes for a second.

AMY: {Wha?!} W-what? In front of everyone, Sonic? W-well... Like this...?

* - Everything goes dark as Amy closes her eyes, and Sonic Spin Dashes away. She opens her eyes, and looks a bit confused.

AMY: -(?)- -(?)- Sonic? Sonic?

EMERL: Sonic has left at sonic speed already...

AMY: Oh Sonic! You're so shy!

* - A heart floats up over her.

EMERL: I don't think that's the case...

* - Amy, Emerl, and Cream are standing in a black screen.

AMY: pant pant Well, that's enough practice for today... You're getting stronger, Emerl!

EMERL: You betcha!

CREAM:

AMY: How much did I lose today?

EMERL: Let's see... .. You burned 1000 calories today, so if you keep going at this rate, then you will lose 2 pounds after three days! And make sure you drink at least a gallon of water each day, and keep the total amount of calories you take a maximum of 700 calories per day.

AMY: {Ye-ah!} All right! I'm almost at my target weight! You are making my life so easy as you get smarter, Emerl! I'm going to get the "Super Diet Machine" that I saw on that commercial! I'll be back soon! See you later, Cream. See you Emerl!

CREAM: {Hi!} Okay!

CHEESE: Cha-o!

EMERL: See you!

* - Over to the right, Sonic and Tails are talking.

SONIC:

TAILS: Amy's getting stronger, isn't she?

SONIC: Yeah... No kidding.

* - The camera shifts back and Cream and Emerl.

CREAM: Sonic! Tails!

EMERL: Sonic! You're back!

SONIC: {Hey!} Hey, Emerl! Hey, Cream! I heard on the news that there was a "Chaos Emerald" around here somewhere. We're gonna go look for the "Chaos Emerald".

TAILS: And we don't know what Eggman's going to try next, so we'll leave Emerl here a little longer, just in case.

CREAM: {Hi!} Okay!

CHEESE: Chao!

EMERL: No! Boring! Emerl wants to go too!

SONIC/TAILS (?): Well, maybe next time!

CREAM: {Hee-hee-hee!} You know, Amy's really getting into this diet thing, isn't she?

EMERL: Is getting thin good?

CREAM: Amy really likes Sonic, so she wants to lose weight so Sonic will like her back!

EMERL: I don't understand...

CREAM: {Yeah!} Sometimes you'll do anything for someone you love!

EMERL: Hmm...

CREAM: {Hee-hee-hee!} You'll understand in time!

CREAM: -(!)- Eggman!?

EGGMAN: I've finally found you, Gizoid! Sonic fell for that fake news story I made up, and now you're all mine! {Take that!} Phi #11! Capture them!

PHI #11: Capture! Capture!

CREAM: {Ohh!!} No!!

EMERL: Cream! Watch out! Hey, hey! I'll take you on!

* - A bright white flash comes on for a second.

EGGMAN: On the second thought, I changed my mind! Take this! I took some "Hedgehog Begone" and converted it into "Gizoid Begone"! {How's this?!}

EMERL: crackles I... can't... move!

EGGMAN: {Okay!}

CREAM: Emerl!

EGGMAN: {Mwahahaha!} Ho ho ho ho ho! How do you like that?

CREAM: {Ohh!!} Ah! What are you doing!?

EGGMAN: Hurry up and capture them, and take them to "Gimee Shelter"!

CREAM: {Ohh!!} Stop it! Don't! Ahh!

EGGMAN: {Mwahahaha!} Ho ho ho ho ho! You! "Chaos Gamma"! Keep a close eye on them! Whatever you do, don't let them escape!

CHAOS GAMMA: Yes, sir...

EGGMAN: You too, Phi #12, #13, and #14!

PHI #12: Yes, sir...

PHI #13: Yes, sir...

PHI #14: Yes, sir...

CREAM: {Ohh!!} -(!)- Ah! It moved!

EGGMAN: Ah, Phi! What took you so long to respond to my call? I may have to strengthen the Emerald condenser... Anyway, which number are you?

EMERL:

EGGMAN: {Gah!} Are you #11? {Ha!} Or #12? {How's this?} Maybe 13? {Take that!} Ah, #14! {It can't be!} {Shoot!} All right, listen up! I'm going to use the rabbit as a hostage, to capture Sonic! I'm looking for Sonic right now, so don't let them get away! Whatever you do, don't tell them that they can escape from the air "Duct"! You got that!? Oh, one more thing. The key to open the "Duct" is in the "workshop"! Make sure you hide it! Got that!? {So long, losers!}

SHADOW: {Hah!} I'm not here to steal him. I'm here to welcome him, as a fellow weapon of war.

SONIC: Welcome him?

SHADOW: Haven't you noticed? His awakening as the legendary weapon of war "Gizoid" is close at hand.

SONIC: Awakening?

SHADOW: He already has 6 "Chaos Emeralds," right?

SONIC: Yeah...

SHADOW: {Humph!} And with my "Chaos Emerald," that makes 7. The Gizoid will be awakened when it has collected 7 "Chaos Emerald." Right now, its true power lies dormant. However, I can feel it. I can feel the power... A power greater than you can imagine.

SONIC: I've heard that he who collects 7 "Chaos Emerald" will be granted unlimited energy. So, are you trying to tell me that awakening Emerl is dangerous?

SHADOW: {Ugh.} Dangerous? Ha! He's a weapon. One created with enough power to destroy the world. Awakening him is sheer madness!

SONIC: {Ah-ha!} I don't think he has it in him. The Emerl I know would never destroy the world. What about you?! You say he's the ultimate weapon, but weren't you supposed to be the military's ultimate secret weapon?! Maybe you've forgotten, but I seem to recall you saving humanity at some point.

SHADOW: {Ugh.} ...That was for Maria.

SONIC: {Yeah!} Exactly! If you have a heart, you would never use your power for the forces of evil! There's no way you could! Weapons aren't supposed to have "hearts." But, both you and Emerl do! You guys... You aren't just weapons!

SHADOW: {Huh.} Hmph! No, you are wrong. We were created as weapons. If the people of this world ever want peace, they must destroy us.

SONIC: -(!)- Shadow?! And one more thing! Rouge said that there's a keyword that can free Emerl! If we could find out what it is, Emerl could become just a normal robot!

SHADOW: {Ha.} ha! Such hopeless dreams... Weapons have no need for a conscience. Freedom? What use is a weapon that does not follow orders?! I have a different kind of "Link" with Gizoid. Like me, he's a weapon! No doubt about it! He's a weapon to be used by his "Master"!

SONIC: Shadow... {Ah-ha!} All right, all right! Just take Emerl, already! If you're not going to listen to me, then do whatever you want!

SHADOW: ...Yeah. {Ha.} Then you don't care if I exterminate Emerl?

SONIC: {Yeah!} I'd like to see you try!

SHADOW: You don't think I could?

SONIC: You have a heart. Emerl has a heart. I don't think either of you has it in you to kill! Maybe you guys should just play games together or something?

SHADOW: ...

EMERL: There is a "Chaos Emerald" here...

SONIC: Emerl? What're you doing here?!

SHADOW: {Ha.} He probably felt my "Chaos Emerald's" power. I can feel it resonating with him.

EMERL: You. You have a "Chaos Emerald." Give me... the Emerald. Power... Give me power!! trembles

SONIC: Emerl!

EMERL: ... -(?)- What's wrong, Sonic? Why are you looking at me like that?

SHADOW: Heh... Perhaps now you believe me. He was created as a weapon. You were lucky in that you met him before he awakened. But, you cannot deny the Gizoid's true identity!

EMERL: -(?)- Sonic?

SONIC: {Yeah!} Go with Shadow, Emerl! I want you to find out who you truly are!

EMERL: How?

SONIC: How else? Get Eggman to tell you!

EMERL: That chubby old guy? That sounds like fun! I'll be right back, then!

SONIC: Okay! And try to find out what that guy is up to! See if you can find out more about that "Final Something-or-Other" that Knuckles was talking about! You never can tell what that old man is planning!

SHADOW: {Ha.} Hmm. I, too, have things that I wish to speak to Dr. Eggman about. Let's go, Emerl. So begin your path to ruin. leaves

SHADOW: {Ha.} The doctor's Mother Computer... I never imagined that I'd be here again... Tell me... What am I? What is the Gizoid? We were created as weapons, so why is it that we have hearts? Why do we have souls?! What the heck are we?!

ROUGE: Professor Gerald...

SHADOW: -(!)- Rouge?!

ROUGE: You are his ultimate creation. The ultimate life form. And during the output experiment of a "Chaos Emerald," he discovered it, and reactivated the ancient battle weapon, "Gizoid." Yes, Emerl.

SHADOW: Where did you learn that?!

ROUGE: I looked it up on the doctor's computer. I found one of Professor Gerald's old research files.

SHADOW: Why did Gerald give me a soul?!

ROUGE: He was not interested in researching weapons. He was researching a way to bring happiness and hope to all people. But, he was forced by the government and by the military to use his research for war. That's why he gave you and Gizoid a "soul." A soul identical to his beloved granddaughter, Maria.

SHADOW: Maria...

ROUGE: His hope was that no matter how crazed and obsessed with destruction mankind might become, the weapons themselves would never fight. Shadow, you are afraid of your own power. It troubles you. But, you've never used your power recklessly. You've never used it selfishly. Gerald's wishes have come true.

SHADOW: ...

ROUGE: You, too, Emerl.

EMERL: Me, too?

ROUGE: You were created as a weapon, yet you feel sympathy for living beings. However, Gerald did not create you and he was unable to completely erase the destructive powers within you. That part of you still exists. So, he programmed you with a special code. And if the keywords of that code were to be activated, Gerald's program would be complete. You'd become just like Shadow...

SHADOW: ...What're the keywords?

ROUGE: Bring hope to humanity.

SHADOW: "Bring hope to humanity," huh? Kinda touching. How do we input the code?

ROUGE: Now, about that... ...

SHADOW: Well?

ROUGE: You have to do it when he awakens.

SHADOW: So, basically when he absorbs this Chaos Emerald...

ROUGE: It would appear so.

SHADOW: Heh... Looks like I've got no other choice.

ROUGE: -(!)- Shadow! That's your...!

SHADOW: It's all right. I... I will always be with Maria.

ROUGE: Shadow...

SHADOW: Emerl! Take it! This is the last "Chaos Emerald"!

* - The Emerald floats down to Emerl.

GAME: "Skill Points" have increased by "10"!!

* - A rapid flash of light fills the Shelter, and then everything goes pitch black. Emerl was switched personalities with Gizoid.

GIZOID: "Show me your power. Or I shall not obey. I represent all things, and shall become Gizoid, the conquerer of all."

ROUGE: Well! Now that's a big difference!

SHADOW: Gizoid, ancient weapon of legend. I, as your new master, command you: "Bring hope to humanity"!

GIZOID: ...

* - The light flashes again, and the background returns. Emerl takes over his body again.

EMERL: Hey, now! Don't go and get all serious on me like that, Shadow!

SHADOW: {Ha.} Hmph. Look who's talking. You remind me a little too much of a certain spikey, smug little...

EMERL: Watch your mouth!

SHADOW: You're free now. Eggman no longer will no longer have any control over you.

EMERL: Thanks, Shadow! And you too, Rouge!

ROUGE: Oh... I appreciate that, but if you really want to thank me, give me some jewelry!

SHADOW: There's on last thing I'd like to ask of you...

EMERL: What is it this time?

SHADOW: Let us battle, one last time, to see who truly is the strongest! ... My body wasn't healed completely before, but now I'm ready! I am the ultimate life form, Shadow the hedgehog. I will crush anyone who stands in my way!

EMERL: You sure about that? I don't want you whining about how you didn't have your "Chaos Emerald" and stuff!

SHADOW: I no longer need it. I have Maria in my heart.

GAME: Emerl, who has come to realize that he has the same soul as Shadow does, has finally obtained 7 "Chaos Emerald"... However, Dr. Eggman has not given up on his plans for world domination yet...

EGGMAN: Um, The Phis were all destroyed. Chaos and Gamma are useless, too. All the "Chaos Emeralds" I had have been taken by Sonic and his disgusting friends... The Gizoid has been equipped with 7 "Chaos Emeralds." Now that he has been awakened, combined with the training that Sonic and his pals put him through, he should be extremely powerful. Most people would give up here, I suppose... But, not I. For am I a genius scientist, Eggman! If my grandfather's journal is correct... Heh heh heh... Haaah hah hah hah!!! This time you'll learn, Sonic! {Mwahaha!}

* - Sonic and Emerl come nearby.

SONIC: {Hey!} So, I said you are still far from being perfect!

EGGMAN: {Mwahahaha!} Hah hah hah hah hah!!! Well, well, well... How are you doing, my dirty little spiked rat, and my useless weapon?

SONIC: {Ah-ha!} Eggman! Did you come all the way here just to mess with Emerl again? You know, being over persistent won't win you any popularity contests!

EGGMAN: {Mwahahaha!} Hah hah hah!!! Enough with the small talk! I have no use for this pile of junk anyway! I have completed the perfect weapon! I have installed the "Final Egg Blaster" on the ultimate planet destroying battleship... "the Death Egg"!!! Haaah hah hah hah! Stupendous! It's wonderful, I tell you! It is my greatest creation ever! {Prepare to die!} With this, I will finally accomplish my goal of world domination! I can see it now! The world will bow before me! You can do naught but wait, cowering in fear! You poor weaklings! You shall learn to fear me! So long, my loud mouthed spikey rat friend! The next time we meet, I shall be the king of the world! Gaaah hah hah hah!!! {Mwahahaha!} disappears

SONIC: Hmph... The old guy sure seems excited! Well, it looks like that "Final Something-or-Other" that Knuckles was telling me about is finally finished. I guess we're not the only ones who've got a score to settle here.

TAILS: Sonic! Emerl! Have you seen it?! A giant battleship has appeared in "Holy Summit"!

SONIC: Hey, Tails! Yeah, we heard. I swear, that old guy just doesn't know when to give up! He couldn't get his hands on Emerl, so he goes and whips up another one of his weird inventions, and now he's shouting something about taking over the world!

EMERL: Well, he was the one that woke me up in the first place. I've got a few things to settle with him!

SONIC: You really have grown up, Emerl! Looks like we've gotta hike to "Holy Summit"! Emerl! Tails!

EMERL: All right!

TAILS: But, something's not right. Why would he be so out and out honest about his plans? Even the government keeps some things a secret... It feels too deliberate... Like he's trying to lure us into following him. I've got a bad feeling about this. Anyway, I'll go fetch a warp transporter so we can reach the battleship, so go to "Holy Summit" and I'll meet you there!

KNUCKLES: {Ha.} You came, as expected...

SONIC: Knuckles... What on earth is this...?

KNUCKLES: When that battleship appeared, the "Estuary" instantly froze over, and "Chaos" appeared. He's just sitting there, guarding the "Death Egg." Chaos is the guardian god of the Chao. He only shows himself in times of great crisis. Looks like we're in deep trouble this time!

SONIC: Haha! Things are finally getting exciting! Hmm... So that's the "Death Egg," huh? I can see why the old guy was so excited... That thing's huge!

TAILS: Sonic!

SONIC: Tails!

TAILS: I've brought the transporter! But... It takes a while to charge up, and it only has one charge left.

SONIC: {Ah-ha!} Really... Well, Emerl! You should be the one to go, shouldn't you?

EMERL: You bet!

SONIC: {Yeah!} Why don't you go pay the old man a visit, and "thank" him!

EMERL: Yeah!

SONIC: Don't leave until you're ready.

EMERL: All right!

SONIC: We'll be waiting at our usual spots if you want to practice some techniques beforehand.

EGGMAN: Gizoid... Looks like you've changed... From your new looks, I can tell you're not a war machine any longer.

EMERL: Yeah, that's right! My friends helped me!

EGGMAN: That is very good. Very good indeed! {Mwahahaha!} Hoo, ho, ho, ho!!

EMERL: You can laugh all you want. I'm here to defeat you and bring this to an end!

GAME: "Prof. Gerald's Journal [number]" ... [entry]

I have uncovered a most interesting specimen from the warehouse. I believe it to be some sort of puppet or robot made by an ancient people. At first, I didn't think anything of it, but when I was experimenting on "Chaos Emeralds," it began to move. This suggests the possibility that even the ancient civilizations could harness the power of the "Chaos Emeralds." When I was researching various papers related to the "Chaos Emeralds" and this robot, I discovered that there was a possibility that this robot was something incredible. I don't want to get ahead of myself, but this robot may be the cause of the destruction of the Fourth Great Civilization. I'm not sure I believe it just yet, though.

I am no longer able to ignore the possibility that this robot did in fact destroy the Fourth Great Civilization. I have discovered a stone tablet that explains as much. According to the tablet, "When the figure falls from the heavens, and the Stone of the Gods is joined, all that exists will become one again." Though it is difficult to believe, this robot has been watching my movements, and mimicking all that I do. I was amazed by my scans of this being. Surprisingly, reams and reams of data scrolled and caused my most powerful computer to crash. More intriguing was that the data was all about melee combat and weapons of that age. Eventually, if this being is ever restored to its former state, it will put all that data to use, and recreate all the weaponry and combat abilities that it once had... And that's not all. If my guesses are correct, it will also have the ability to absorb modern weaponry as well. What have I done? I have uncovered a horrible weapon...

I now understand why this being was named "Gizoid". In the ancient tongue, it means "everything." According to the stone tablet, if the Gizoid establishes a "Link" with someone, the Gizoid will swear loyalty to that person. Perhaps it still lacks "Chaos Emerald" energy, but it has been saying the word "Link" to me in broken tones. It went on to explain: "Show me your true strength, and I shall obey. I am all things, and all shall belong to me." So, as it suggested, I brought before it my collection of model guns, and fired them all. Then, suddenly, it said, "I shall follow your every command, and never leave your side." And since then, it refuses to listen to anyone but me. While it still is a fearsome weapon of destruction, while it remains under my control, at least it won't be used for evil. However, if someone with evil intention ever forms a "Link" with the Gizoid... I don't even want to think about what will happen. I must research how one can re-establish a "Link" with the Gizoid...

The upper echelon is going crazy. Perhaps, they aim to freeze Project "Shadow". Soon, the ultimate life form, "Shadow" will be completed... The application to my granddaughter is also imminent. I cannot just let them stop my study at this point. Because I am the only one who can save my granddaughter's life.

The higher ups are threatening to shut down this research facility. I had no choice but to hand them the Gizoid to buy more time for my research. I tried to be careful and commanded it to never absorb any dangerous technologies. However, I have heard that other researchers have been making the Gizoid absorb weapons. Apparently, the way to cause the Gizoid to form a new "Link" is to show it power that surpasses that of its former master. While this poses immense danger, I cannot risk losing Maria.

My worst fears have come true. The Gizoid has absorbed enough weaponry and technology that it has started to go out of control. The resulting rampage resulted in the destruction of most of the "Ark." ... I have deciphered the rest of the stone tablet. It says, "When the Gizoid had learned all that it could, it became a god of wrath, and all was destroyed." The researchers somehow managed to subdue the Gizoid and sealed it away. Luckily, it only had one "Chaos Emerald" installed. If it were to have all 7 Emeralds installed, it might destroy the whole planet. The Gizoid is too much of a liability. I tried destroying its core, but nothing I did worked. I understand too little of the technology that built him. My best hope is to try and reprogram its AI into a free-willed, emotions-based AI...

I have heard there was an accident at the research facility.
Everything... Everything is gone. My own Maria's name was among the list of casualties. My beloved granddaughter... They tell me her parting words were,
"Bring hope to humanity." I have decided that the keyword to activate the Gizoid's free-willed emotions-based AI program will be those very words.
"Bring hope to humanity." My poor, poor Maria...

A heritage of the past I dug out, "Gizoid"... And the ultimate life form I created by my own hands, Shadow... I equipped both weapons with "heart." If all powers are not what is to be obtained for oneself, but what is to be born from hearts that yearn for someone, I believe all conflicts should cease to exist.
Please... If there is anyone listening to my prayers... Bring hope to humanity.
