[1] Introduction

[1.1] Game Overview/Intro

Hello all! Welcome to my walkthrough of the GC version of Bratz: Rock Angelz, made by Blitz Games, AWE Games, and THQ, and based off of the popular fashion doll line and TV show. This walkthrough will cover the game's basics and will address the game from beginning to end. Good luck and enjoy the walkthrough!

Bratz: Rock Angelz is an open world sandbox-style adventure game that revolves around the Bratz girls, in their attempts to launch their own fashion magazine. Along the way, they will interact with their friends, complete tasks to publish as magazine articles, and compete with the antagonistic "Your Thing Magazine" head, Burdine Maxwell.

There are four versions of the game, the Playstation 2 version, the GameCube version, the Game Boy Advance version, and the Microsoft Windows version for the PC. This guide applies to the GameCube version specifically, but can likely apply to the PC and PS2 versions.

[2] Bratz: Rock Angelz Brief Information

[2.1] Plot

Jade of the Bratz Girls is so psyched to be working for her favorite magazine, "Your Thing Magazine"! Cool, right? Wrong. The founder and editor of "Your Thing Magazine", Burdine Maxwell, is not interested in Jade's ideas and instead, treats her as lowly intern that is just her errand girl. To make matters worse, Burdine's other two interns, are Kirstee and Kaycee, also known as the "Tweevils" (Twins that are seriously evil). The Tweevils manage to get Jade fired through sabotage. Completely disheartened, Jade is miserable, as her dreams of being part of a fashion magazine are over. However, the other Bratz Girls come to her rescue and suggest they start up a magazine of their own that will outsell "Your Thing"!

[2.2] Gameplay/Screen

Hopefully, those with a GameCube should already be familiar with the controls, but below are the basics.

Control Stick/Control Pad - moves Bratz Girl in any direction, toggles through options (menu screens).

C Stick - rotates the camera view.

"A" button - Talk when approaching another character/NPC, swaps to a different Bratz Girl when approached, performs an action, takes a picture (in Camera Mode).

"L" button - rotates the view to third-person perspective from behind the Bratz Girl.

"R" button - put on/remove roller skates (when purchased).

"X" button - enters Camera Mode, or brakes (for roller skates, when purchased).

"Y" button - Zoom (in Camera Mode), or speed boosts (for roller skates, when purchased).

"B" button - Access cell phone, exit a menu screen, exit Camera Mode.

Start/Pause button - pauses game.

The gameplay screen is fairly simple! The screen follows the Bratz Girl you play as currently. In the top left corner, a Cell Phone symbol appears if you have received a message. In the bottom left corner, your amount of Blingz earned is shown. In the bottom right, your amount of Bratz tokens earned is shown.

[2.3] Menu Screens

The Main Menu of the title screen appears when you start the game. It is also accessed if you hit Pause during gameplay and select go to the Main Menu. The Main Menu has three options:

New Game - starts a new game file.

Load Game - loads a previously saved game file.

Options - allows you to adjust the music, SFX, and speech volumes. It also allows you to enable Rumble effects and game subtitles.

[2.4] Pause Menu

Pressing the Start/Pause button pauses the game. You can either select Continue or press the same button again to proceed to the game. You can also edit settings in Options, such as SFX, Speech and Music volume, Rumble effects, and Subtitles. Lastly, you can go back to the Main Menu by pressing Exit Game. Remember, you'll have to save before you exit the game! There is no autosave feature!

[2.5] The Bratz Office

The Bratz Office is the headquarters for the Bratz Girls and their magazine. From here, you can access magazine article tasks, access the girls' shared wardrobe, save the game on the computer, and more.

The girls' tasks are accessed by their personal computers. Cloe's is blue, Jade's is dark pink, Sasha's is orange pink, and Yasmin's is light pink. A speech bubble above one of the girl's computers means a task is available for the girl.

*Each girl has a different task. What is a task for one girl will not be a task for the others. If no tasks appear, try switching girls.*

Want to see how the magazine is coming along? You can access the magazine's progress by going over to the board with the open book icon. You can see completed articles and articles that are left to be completed.

The stereo allows you to check out the game's playlist and change to various songs you have unlocked or bought in-game.

The wardrobe is shared by all the Bratz Girls and contains all the clothing that is default, unlocked, and bought in-game.

Additionally, a small orange laptop is available for inputting special game codes to get Blingz, special clothes, and other cool stuff.

The small red laptop allows you to save the current game file. Although accessed from the office, these save laptops are available at hotels as well!

[2.6] Icons

Throughout the Bratz's world are plenty of icons with specific functions appointed to each.

*Above information booths, there is a circle with an 'I' in it. These booths are meant to give you a map of whatever area you're in.*

*An exclamation point (!) over a character/NPC's head means they have a task for you. It does not matter which girl completes the task, as it will be published in the magazine regardless. You can also text various characters to see if they need help!*

*Scissors* - allows you to change the hairstyle of a Bratz girl. Hairstyles are accessed at the various salons you stop by.

*Clothes* - allows you to buy clothing from the racks and bargain bins at the various boutiques and shops.

*Shoes* - allows you to buy shoes from various stores.

*Necklace* - allows you to buy accessories from various stores.

*Glasses* - allows you to buy glasses and sunglasses from various stores.

*Hats* - allows you to buy hats from various stores.

*Lipstick* - allows you to change the makeup of a Bratz Girl.

Blingz are the currency of the Bratz Girls. Blingz are literally everywhere. They can be found when you're out and about exploring the Bratz World, Stylesville, or they can be earned by performing tasks and other challenges. Blingz can be used to buy clothes, make-up, shoes, accessories, music, ringtones, phone skins, and decals.

[4.2] Bratz Tokens

Bratz Tokens are coins that can be found throughout the Bratz world. There are 25 of these for each girl to find, each with the girls' appointed symbols. These tokens can be used to buy movie clips, concept art, and other in-game extras.

[5] The Bratz's Cell Phones

---

[5.1] The Bratz's Cell Phones

The Bratz Girls just have to stay in touch! Each girl has their own cell phone which can be used to send messages to friends, take pictures, keep track of tasks, and more!

[5.2] Messages

Through Messages, a text can be sent to any of the Bratz Girls and their friends. You just simply choose a pre-set message to send. By sending messages to NPCs, you can find out if they have a task they need help with. Sometimes, one of the four Bratz Girls may not be available to text and the message will fail.

[5.3] Contacts

Contacts are just the list of friends you are able to contact via the cell phone. Talking to various friends unlocks them as a contact. You can also call your friends (only the Bratz Girls) all to one location to shop together!

[5.4] Planner

Sometimes, you get a task and once you set out to go do it, you forget what you were supposed to do. Luckily, the cell phone comes with a Planner feature! This feature gives you the rundown of whatever task you currently have to do.

[5.5] Photos

Want to capture a particular moment, or you need a picture for the magazine?

The cell phone has a camera, which you can use to snap convenient photos at any time. If there's a photo you especially want to keep, make sure you lock it! However, you can only lock up to three photos. Choose wisely!

---

[5.6] Settings

The Settings allows you to change the ringtone of the cell phone, and change the cell phone's current skin.

[5.7] Info

The Info feature keeps track of the total of Bratz tokens earned.

[6] How-To

[6.1] How to Buy Clothes/Shoes/Accessories

Buying clothes are a must in Stylesville! The various shops have plenty of options to choose from! You can go to try on clothes by approaching a rack or bargain bin with the "Clothes" icon. When you're brought to the dressing room, you can select from the Tops categories to look at shirts, jackets, and other tops, while the Bottoms has shorts, pants, skirts, etc. Shoes has a footwear category, while Accessories have earrings, necklace, left bracelet, and right bracelet categories. Glasses have an eyewear category, and hats have a hats category. The object is highlighted if you are on a particular object.

"A" button - try on clothing article.

"L" button - rotate Bratz Girl to the left.

"R" button - rotate Bratz Girl to the right.

"Y" button - zoom in or out on Bratz Girl.

Outfits you have bought or already have are marked by a "B" in the bottom left corner of the highlighted item. When you're ready to buy the item, select "Yes" on "Buy this item?" Make sure you have enough Blingz though!

*Some tasks require you to purchase a certain outfit, but it is not necessary to own all outfits in the game!

[6.2] How to Apply Make-Up

Make-Up really ties together an outfit! By going to a salon and heading to the make-up counter in the back, you can apply make-up. The Bratz Girl's head will be shown so you can apply the make-up.

At the top right is what the current make-up compact, the color wheel, is. You can change what compact you're using by select Choose Compact and scrolling to select an option. Selecting a color on the compact designates what color you want to use, and the selected color will appear in the center circle of the compact. Below that are the application tools. The thin brush allows you to apply eye shadow. The thick brush allows you to apply blush. The lipstick allows you to apply lipstick. The tissues are for when you want to wipe off a portion of the make-up. For eye shadow and lipstick, the "Y" button allows you to fully apply the current color to the designated area. At the bottom is the Start Again button, which completely clears the girl's face of make-up. The very bottom button accesses Begin Face Painting.

For Face Painting, you are brought to a brush that allows you to apply face paint at varying thicknesses. There is a thin brush for a thin line, a thick brush for a thick line, and an airbrush for a light line. Also available in this section are decals and patterns that can be applied to the face. Decals are like stickers that apply to the face, while patterns are like instant face paint.

The "A" button at the left allows you to accept the current make-up you have. The "B" button allows you to undo the last thing you applied. When you're finished, select the Done button at the bottom right.

[6.3] How to Design a T-Shirt

Designing a T-shirt is easy! The shirt at the left is your blank canvas. There are three tabs at the right side of the screen. The first tab is Colors. You can select one of the suggested colors or choose your own from the color circle to add a pop of color to your shirt. The second tab is Pictures, which are images you can add to the shirt. The third tab is Bases, which are large images you can add to the shirt for a dramatic backdrop. You don't have to use a base however! The hand allows you to move whatever images are currently on the shirt. The trash can is where you can drag images you don't want on the shirt anymore.

You can change the cut of the shirt to a fitted cut, a straight cut, or a tank top cut.

[6.4] How to Design a Poster

Designing a poster works exactly like designing a T-shirt. See above for an explanation on design!

[6.5] How to Skate

Sometimes it's tiresome to just walk around all the time. Rollerskates can remedy that! When you have 200 Blingz, you can head to Struttin' Styles in the Mall and buy the rollerskates in the front of the store. The skates can be put on or taken off using the R button. Use the Control Stick to guide where you want to go. The Y button gives a speed boost, while the X button acts as a brake. Skates are great for getting around faster, but remember, they cannot be worn indoors!

[6.6] How to Pose

A favorite activity of the Bratz Girls' is to play posing mini-games! They're fun and act as another way to get some extra Blingz! To strike a pose, you can press the A, B, X, or Y buttons to try different poses. When playing a pose mini-game, you are given a set of poses to perform within a time limit. You gain Blingz for every pose done correctly in the time limit.

[7] Jade's Dream Job ... (Or Not!)

---

[7.1] Smoothie Bar Escape!

Intro:

*Jade has just informed the Bratz Girls of her student internship! She is the new assistant to founder and editor-in-chief Burdine Maxwell of the notorious "Your Thing" magazine. However, Jade soon comes to find that Burdine is not open to any ideas except her own and instead only sees Jade as a lowly errand girl. To make matters worse, she works alongside the Tweevils, Kirstee and Kaycee. As such, the Tweevils manage to get Jade fired by setting her up to upset Burdine with an incorrect lunch order. As expected, Burdine is outraged and immediately fires Jade, as well as any of her possible descendants. Jade feels her life is officially over.*

The game starts with Jade shortly after being fired by Burdine. She is in a state of depression, and desperately needs to talk to the other Bratz Girls. Shortly, Jade's phone starts to go off. Press the B button to pull up the phone and press the A button to read the message from Cloe. Cloe and the others are at the Smoothie Bar and ask Jade if she wants to hang out. You can either reply with the A button or just press the B button to exit. This area is known as the Mall and is the main hangout of the Bratz Girls! Be sure to pick up the Jade token by the entrance to the Office Plaza behind Jade. Follow the purple arrow in the direction of the Smoothie Bar, picking up any Blingz that appear on the ground along the way. Grab the Jade token by The City Cinema at the left. Head down to the Smoothie Bar at the other end of the Mall and approach the Bratz Girls.

Jade will relay her horrible experience at "Your Thing" to the other girls, and how she wound up fired. Burdine was a total dragon, and she was stuck working with the Tweevils! Jade is in no mood to hang out and opts to go home. Cloe, Sasha, and Jade decide a surprise party should cheer Jade up! Cloe must retrieve the make-up and Yasmin is in charge of finding outfits for the party. She suggests the Treasures range at Thrills with Frills, and sets off to find it.

[7.2] Shop 'N Style!

You are now in control of Yasmin. Grab the Yasmin token from the chairs at the far left of the Smoothie Bar. The purple arrow points you towards the other end of the Mall to Thrills with Frills at the right side. Grab the Yasmin token and enter Thrills with Frills. Grab the Yasmin token behind the counter at the right and proceed up the stairs to the Treasures line at the right. To shop, you can browse through the various tops and bottoms. The A button allows you to try on a specific item. The Y button allows you to change the zoom on the Bratz Girl. The L and R buttons allow you to rotate the Bratz Girl clockwise or counterclockwise. When you try on a clothing article, you are given the option to buy the item or not. Items you already have are marked with a "B".

You may purchase as many things from the Treasures line as you want, but make sure you get at least one top and one bottom. When you're done, press the B button to go back to the store. Pull out Yasmin's phone and select Contacts to get in touch with Cloe for verification. Select Cloe's name and send her a message asking her to meet Yasmin at the store.

[7.3] Make-Up Madness

Now that Cloe has approved the outfits, swap to her with A button. She has to go to City Looks at the west end of the Mall to get the Treasures compact. Grab the Cloe token on the bridge in the center of the Mall. Head to City Looks at the right across the way. Enter and grab the Cloe token by the couch at the right. Head to the back right of the store and access the make-up display. Scroll down the list and select the Treasures compact. Once you've bought it, go to the make-up table at the back. To put on make-up, you must first choose a compact. Select Choose Compact and select the Treasures compact from the list. Choose whatever colors you like and apply the make-up however you want. When you're done, select the Done button.

Open the phone and text Sasha to check in on her. Ask her where she is and close the phone to wait for her reply. Her message says she's at Glamorous Gemz n' Jewelz and she wants you to come meet her. Exit City Looks and follow the arrow to head over to Glamorous Gemz n' Jewelz across from the bridge.

[7.4] Contact Jade!

Enter and swap to Sasha so she can text Jade. Select Jade in Contacts and ask her where she is. Jade is at home, pretty bummed.

[7.5] Jade's Party

In Jade's room, the girls have prepped for her party. As Jade, go to the wardrobe and change into a Treasures outfit of your choosing. You can also change the stereo's current song by going up to it, pressing the A button and selecting a song from the playlist. Afterward, talk to Sasha to initiate a posing mini-game. All four of the main buttons activate a pose of some kind. But in most cases, you'll have to press a given set of buttons within the time limit. The time limit is shown by a bar on the right. Complete the moves within the time limit to earn Blingz! For every pose done, you earn Blingz for it!

Afterward, Jade is feeling much better and chooses to look past "Your Thing" and says that they could make their own magazine if they wanted. The other girls adjourn to this. From then on, Bratz Magazine is born!

*Video: The Bratz come to their new loft and find it in a desperate need of renovation. But with their effort, the girls transform it into the perfect office for Bratz Magazine!*

*Save as soon as possible when you get to the Bratz Office! Go to the small laptop by the exit and save!

[8] Bratz Magazine - First Issue: London Calling!

[8.1] Cloe's Article: Make-Up Makeover!

Swap to Cloe. Go over to her computer and initiate the Make-Up Makeover task. Cloe must work on an article about the creative use of cosmetics. Time for another trip to City Looks! Before you head out to City Looks, grab the Cloe token in the lounge room of the Bratz Office. Exit from the Office and exit through the elevator at the left in the hallway. From the Office Plaza head through the entrance at the right to get to the Mall. Enter City Looks and go to the make-up counter. Select Begin Face Painting. You can use the thin brush to create a thin line. The thick brush creates a thick line. The airbrush gives a light brush effect. Simply use the compact colors as your paint colors. Or, you can use patterns or decals. Patterns are more like instant face paint, while decals are like stickers. You can earn Blingz for a design, patterns and decals. Create your own design or use one of the patterns or decals, then exit to finish the task.

[8.2] Jade's Article: Design Time!

Swap to Jade. Go over to her computer and accept the Design Time task. Jade must make an article teaching readers how to make their own custom T-shirt. Head to Dynamic Designs in the Mall. Exit the Office Plaza and enter Dynamic Designs at the right of the Mall entrance. Head upstairs and initiate the T-shirt design at the front most counter. You can choose a color, a base backdrop, and a couple of images to add to your shirt from the tabs at the right. When you're done, select the Done button. You can save up to four shirt designs in the slots available. Once you're done, you can choose to wear it or not. You can earn Blingz from the design, images, and base you added to the shirt.

*Back at the office, Jade informs the girls of the invitations that Burdine trashed and one invitation for Pinz, an exclusive punk rock club in London. The trip is all expenses paid with a five-star hotel suite included! However, the girls must finish the magazine before they jet off to London.

[8.3] Sasha's Article: Tunez Trackdown!

Swap to Sasha. Go to her computer and accept the Tunez Trackdown task. Sasha has to write an article about the hottest music out right now, but she has loaned out all of her CDs to her friends. You'll have to ask around to get the three CDs back. Exit the office and make your rounds asking friends for the CDs. You CAN talk to everybody, but most of it is a lot of loaning it around to the others. The CDs are in the possession of Cameron, Roxxi, and Fianna. Cameron is in the Mall. Fianna is in the Dance Heaven Plaza. Roxxi is in the Park, but you will have to ask her twice before she gives you the CD. You earn Blingz for the CDs found.

[8.4] Yasmin's Article: Wild Style

Swap to Yasmin. Go to her computer and accept the Wild Style task. Yasmin has to create a photo story article on the wildlife at the local park. She will go over the camera basics before you can head out. After that, exit the building and head over to the Park at the left. At the Park, Yasmin must take a picture of three different animals. She has an easy ability of befriending animals, so make sure you use this skill to make the animal more comfortable around you. If it's uncomfortable, it will run away. It may take a few tries, but be patient! Pull out the camera and take a picture of two squirrels and one rabbit. When the photo's interface turns pink, it's a good photo! You will earn Blingz for each photo taken.

*It turns out the Tweevils have stolen the girls' tickets to London and refuse to give them up. The Bratz will need an elaborate plan to retrieve the tickets from Burdine's office. The consensus is to create a phoney "Pink Sale" flyer to draw them away from Burdine's office. The next step would be to dress as a Tweevil and sneak into Burdine's office to retrieve the tickets.

[8.5] Red Hot Rockin'! Article

After all the other magazine articles are completed, you'll be able to head out to London to complete this article!

Because the band Crash has split up due to creative differences, there's no one to save the show at Pinz. However, the Bratz come to the rescue with their own suddenly-made band! Buy the Rock Angelz line outfit from Strut It in Stylesville, or buy it right from Punkadelic in London. In the Pinz dressing room, dress all the girls in Rock Angelz outfits and even do their make-up. Once they're all set, go to the door across from the vanity and get ready to blow the audience away! Luckily, you don't have to play instruments, you just have to complete a posing mini-game! You can choose the difficulty of the posing sets from Easy to Medium to Hard before heading out. Good luck! After the show, snap a groupshot of the girls on stage to use for the magazine article! With that, the first issue of Bratz Magazine is complete!

*Sasha announces to the group that she just saw the sales figures for the magazine. And it outsold Your Thing! They'd better make the next issue even better! You also get a message from the Stylesville Mall, announcing the opening of the Fashion Promenade!*

[8.6] Blown Away! Article

Talk to Dylan at the Park. Dylan has dropped the copies of his article for the magazine and needs help picking them up. Pick up the 8 pages nearby. The wind will push and blow them around, but they shouldn't go too far. Once you've got all 8, go back to Dylan. You'll earn Blingz for all the pages and another magazine article.

[8.7] Work It Out! Article

Talk to Meygan in Dance Heaven Plaza. Meygan is having a hard time staying interested in working out, but she notices how much fun the Bratz Girls have with their workouts. She asks for some pointers. Head to The Limelight and complete as many pose sets as possible as you try to get all four Bratz Girls into the posing. You'll earn Blingz for each of the participating Bratz Girls' workouts, plus a magazine article. Afterward, you can play posing games at the Limelight and earn easy Blingz.

[8.8] Rockin' Racerz! Article

Talk to Cameron in the Mall. He challenges you to a race on his roller skates. The key is to hit the 8 flag checkpoints as quickly as possible when they appear. You will earn Blingz for your time and get another magazine article. Cameron adds that if you ever want to race again, check out the flag in the Park.

[8.9] Model Behaviour Article

Talk to Fianna in Dance Heaven Plaza. She recently read Fashionista Magazine and felt that the Bratz Girls could out-pose any of the models in that magazine. She suggests doing a photoshoot at Picture This! and the pictures from the photoshoot can be used in the magazine. Head to the upstairs photo suite in Picture This! The other three girls are going to be the models. If you want, call all the girls to Picture This!, and they can coordinate outfits in the photos. You can change their outfits using the wardrobe, in case you want a specific look. Begin the photoshoot by the camera. Fianna will direct you on the shots needed, 2 full-body shots for each girl and 2 upper-body shots for each girl. You'll earn Blingz for the photos and another magazine article.

[8.10] Thriftshoppin'! Article

Talk to Phoebe in the Mall. She is excited about the bargain bin deals, but can't decide on an outfit. She wonders if you could pick out an outfit you'd think she'd like. Head to Thrills with Frills or Strut It! and look through their bargain bins. Phoebe will need at least a top and a bottom, but accessories would be nice too. Once you've bought an outfit, model it for Phoebe and go back to show her. Afterward, you'll earn Blingz for the outfit and accessories you bought, plus an article on bargain shopping for the magazine.

[8.11] Scorchin' Snapshotz Article

know that they'll send the photos to the office for a new article and that a new photo task will be available soon.

[8.12] Optional Task: Smoothie A Go-Go

If you're low on Blingz and are out of articles, Eitan is always available with a task for you. Since he can't leave the Smoothie Bar, he really appreciates delivery services. He'll pay you some extra Blingz if you can deliver smoothies to the Bratz Boys and Girls around Stylesville. In addition, you will receive tips for quick service. The faster you get the smoothie to the customer, the better the tip! The smoothie will have the name of the friend on the label as well as their location. Make sure you get the smoothie to them in the time limit! Come back to Eitan if you want to make more deliveries.

*Tip: This goes a lot better wearing the rollerskates!

[8.13] Phoney Flyer Fun

There's no way to get into Burdine's Office, since the Tweevils are always outside! But, perhaps their pink obsession could be their weakness. Head to Dynamic Designs and make a fake poster for a "Pink Sale", in order to lure the Tweevils away from the office. Head back to the office building and give the fake flyer to Kaycee. Kaycee, being the more gullible one, will fall for the flyer and leave.

[8.14] Fashion Faux Pas!

With Kaycee gone, you can sneak into the office. But not without a disguise! Head to Thrills with Frills and buy the signature pink dress and pink wedges of the Tweevils, located down the stairs. Then go to City Looks and buy the Tweevils wig. With this disguise, you look exactly like a Tweevil! Go to the office wearing the disguise and sneak right past Kirstee into Burdine's Office!

[8.15] Ticket Finder!

Burdine is asleep at her desk, and the invitations/tickets to Pinz are sitting right on her desk for the taking! But, you have to get them without waking Burdine up! Scattered around her office are papers on the floor, which crinkle when you walk on them. Try to maneuver around the papers and grab the tickets. Once you have them, maneuver your way back out of the office!

*With the tickets back, the Bratz Girls can now travel to London!*

[8.16] Livin' Large in London!

When you're ready, head over to World Tourz in the Office Plaza across from the Bratz Office. At the rightmost area is where you can access traveling to London! Upon arrival, you will receive a message from the Palace Hotel, welcoming you to London and letting you know that your room is prepared! Over at the opposite end of the street is the Palace Hotel. Head over there to get to your hotel room.

*Cloe asks Sasha about their interview with the band Crash at Pinz. Sasha informs the group of the bad news that she's just been to Pinz and the owner informed her that Crash split up. The band apparently had creative differences. The owner of Pinz is devastated as he has no replacement band to save the show. Cloe begins to panic in only the way Cloe does. The girls suggest they make their own band in order to save the show at Pinz. Jade says they should look into the Rock Angel line back at Strut It or at Punkadelic in London.

[8.17] Rock Star Style!

Head over to Strut It back in Stylesville, or go to Punkadelic in London and buy the girls sets of outfits from the Rock Angel clothing line. Dress all four girls in complete outfits from the Rock Angel line!

[8.18] Rockin' Art!

Return to the hotel room and access the easel to work on a poster advertising for the show! After you've finished your design, you'll be able to post them up all around London. You'll have to hit the five poster points within the 2 minute 30 second time limit. One point is to the right outside of the Palace Hotel. Another point is just outside of Pinz. Another point is outside of Curlz. The last two points are near Punkadelic. You'll get Blingz for finishing the job!

[8.19] Ready to Rock?!

When you're ready, head down to Pinz at the end the street to the right of the Palace Hotel. Once you enter, you'll be in the girls' dressing room. If you've already dressed them in the Rock Angelz line, and even already did their make-up, you're good to go!

[9] Bratz Magazine - Second Issue: Paris Fashion!

-----
[9.1] Cloe's Article: Scorchin' City Tour

As Cloe, head over to her computer and accept the Scorchin' City Tour task. Cloe must take a tour around Stylesville and write about all the hot places to visit! Head outside of the office and Cameron will ask Cloe about her article. She mentions needing to tour the city for hotspots. He suggests you use his skates to get around better to see those hotspots, and he'll even time you! Just as before, hit all the 15 checkpoint flags within the time limit of 4 minutes. Once you're done, you'll be able to write an article on all the spots you visited!

[9.2] Jade's Article: Bling Fling!

Swap to Jade and access her computer. Accept the Bling Fling! Task. Jade says that there's a new gem-studded necklace that at least three girls in town are wearing. She must write an article on it before everyone has one. All Jade must do is find the three girls wearing the necklace and take pictures of them! Take a picture of Meygan, who's in the Park. Next take a picture of Roxxi, who's in the Fashion Promenade. Lastly, take a picture of Phoebe, who's in the Mall. You'll get Blingz for each photo taken!

*Back at the office, Burdine hears about the Bratz Magazine's success over the radio and is upset by the fact that she "taught Jade everything she knows" and that she went on to outsell Your Thing. Not only that, but the Bratz Magazine was asked to cover the Paris show. Burdine decides she must take revenge. But who knows what just yet?*

[9.3] Sasha's Article: Move n' Groove

Swap to Sasha and accept the Move n' Groove task at her computer. The Limelight in Dance Heaven Plaza would like more publicity. Sasha and the girls could go and pose a bit on the dance floor and make it a photo opportunity for a magazine article. Go to the Limelight and start posing! Complete the pose sets for each of the four girls to get Blingz!

*You'll get two messages, one from Rock Out! and one from Picture This! Rock Out! lets you know that they have a posing mini-game in their store in the Fashion Promenade. Picture This! Mentions a list of new photo opportunities for a bonus article in the magazine.

[9.4] Yasmin's Article: Pet Detective!

Swap to Yasmin and accept the Pet Detective! task at her computer. Yasmin has heard there are lost animals in the city that need to be returned to the Park. Return them all for a heartwarming article! There are three animals missing from the Park. Right in the Office Plaza is a bunny. Make sure you walk slowly so you don't scare the animals. Befriend them, and stay still for a moment, then they will follow you back to the Park. They won't be able to go out of town, or into any of the shops, so take the animals directly back to the Park. Another bunny is inside the Fashion Promenade by Foot Locker. Befriend it and lead it back to the Park. The last bunny is in the Mall by City Looks. Lead him back to the Park and you'll earn Blingz for each of the three bunnies.

*You'll receive a message from the Bratz Office saying to head back there, as you've got a Paris show to cover!*

[9.5] Paris Posin'! Article

*After heading to Paris, you will be able to complete this article.*

For the Paris show, you'll need outfits from the Ooh La La range, which can be bought at Runway Ready in the Fashion Promenade or at Belle Beauté in Paris. Once the girls are dressed, head onstage through the door and prepare for another posing game. This works like the London show, except there's a catwalk. You'll have to strike the poses from the pose set, but when there's time, you can strike other poses to really get the crowd going. Each girl will get their turn on the catwalk. When you're all done, snap a groupshot of the girls for the last magazine article!

*Cloe tells the girls of a bad dream she had where they couldn't come up with ideas for the next issue and the magazine was subsequently canned, leaving the girls as laughingstocks. Sasha tells her to relax as she and Jade have already set up their next ideas on the computer. You'll also get another message from Picture This! mentioning one last photo opportunity for the third issue.*

[9.6] Poster Party! Article

Talk to Koby in the Park. Koby, being a guitarist, has a gig coming up, but he needs help advertising for it. He says he's not very good at drawing or anything, and asks if you can make a poster for him. Head over to Dynamic Design and work on a poster for Koby. When you're finished, Koby will text you and ask that you bring the flyer back to the Park so he can see it. He should be thrilled with the flyers and you'll be rewarded with some Blingz, and a magazine article!

[9.7] Clothes Call! Article

Talk to Meygan in the Park. Meygan says her closet is half-empty, and it's because she loans out her clothes to so many of the other girls. She thinks it's cool that they ask her, but she'd like her clothes back. She's not sure who exactly has her stuff, but she'll text around to let everyone know. Talk to Fianna in Dance Heaven Plaza and she'll give you some of Meygan's clothing. Talk to Roxxi in the Fashion Promenade and she'll give you more of Meygan's clothing. Lastly, talk to Phoebe in the Mall and she'll give you the last of Meygan's clothing. With all the clothes, return to Meygan. You'll get Blingz and a magazine article.

[9.8] Crash Course Crammin'! Article

Talk to Cameron in the Office Plaza. Cameron hates math (who doesn't?), and tore up his algebra book during a freak out. He asks if you'll help pick up the pages. Using the skates, pick up all 10 pages within 1 minute for some Blingz, and an interesting article on cramming for courses without the stress, for the magazine.

[9.9] Sale Shoppin'! Article

Talk to Roxxi in the Fashion Promenade. She mentions what a keen eye you have for bargain shopping, and that some sales have just started. She's in need of a new outfit. She'll need at least a top, a bottom, shoes, and some accessories would be cool too. Head over to Foot Locker and check out their bargain bin. Come back to Roxxi wearing your purchases and you'll get some Blingz, as well as a new magazine article on bargain shopping.

[9.10] Strike a Pose! Article

Talk to Fianna in Dance Heaven Plaza. Fianna is tired of seeing plastic supermodels do posing! She'd rather see real girls like the Bratz. Plus, it'd be more photos for the magazine! Head over to Picture This! for another photoshoot. Dress however you want, and start Posing on the mat in the upstairs photo suite. After completing the requested pose sets, you'll get some Blingz and a new article.

*Picture This! will message you and let you know the photos will be sent to the office for the magazine article. They also mention they will have more opportunities for you later!*

---

[9.12] Oui-Oui Paris!

Head over to World Tourz and access travel to Paris at the desk at the left. Upon arrival, you'll get a message from Hotel de Marmot, welcoming you to Paris and letting you know your room is ready. Hotel de Marmot is directly across from the fountain. After checking in, you can find the fashion show venue. The Theatre of Masquerade is across from the hotel.

*The girls seem confused about the show venue. It now says Pink Industries. Sasha calls the show organizer, who tells them that Pink Industries bought the venue, and won't let them use it. And there's no other venues in Paris. The girls smell a rat. A pink rat.*

[9.13] Trailin' the Tweevils!

The Tweevils have arrived in Paris, and the girls know something is up relating to them. Follow behind Kirstee and Kaycee as they walk around Paris, and you'll be able to overhear what's going on. However, don't get too close, or they'll notice you. If you get too far away, you won't be able to hear anything. The meter at the top, indicates if you're too far or too close to the Tweevils. The safe zone is the green zone, which is where it's imperative to stay.

As the Tweevils walk, you'll eventually overhear them say that Burdine went to the trouble of setting up a fake company to buy out the venue in order to sabotage the show the Bratz were going to cover. The girls confront the Tweevils and ask for a way to get back at Burdine. The Tweevils, unable to resist an opportunity to blackmail their boss, let the girls know that while Burdine is in Paris, she is having her industrial-strength make-up applied. This process takes hours and it's not a pretty sight. They suggest sneaking in while she's having it done and taking a photo of her, threatening to put it in their magazine. This calls for desperate measures, no matter how unethical. Jade says to get some Dynamite outfits for the mission.

[3.14] Dynamite Dress-Up!

Head to Belle Beauté by the subway and head upstairs to buy the Dynamite range clothing. You'll need at least a top and a bottom. After buying the clothes, go to Chic salon at the other end of the street.

*The girls try to decide who should go in and get the picture of Burdine. The girls vote Yasmin, as she's the most flexible. But they're in this together!*

[3.15] Yasmin's Mission

Dress Yasmin in the Dynamite range of clothing, and then go to Chic salon at the opposite end of the street. As Yasmin, take a picture of Burdine, making sure to get a good shot of her face.

*The girls confront Burdine, and demand her to reopen the venue, in exchange for giving her the photo evidence. Burdine says she will as long as she gets the photos back. The girls decide to hold the photos until the end of the show, as she can trust them to hold their end. Burdine says it's too late to save the show as the supermodels have already gone home. The girls opt to have their own show, modeling the Ooh La La range!*

[3.16] Paris Poster Party!

Design a poster for the new fashion show in the hotel room! When you're done, go ahead and put up the posters around Paris. Hit the 5 poster points in 2 minutes and 30 seconds. The first point is across from Belle Beauté. The next two points are near the Theatre de Masquerade. One point is in the park. And the last point is next to the flower stand.

*As you come out of the office, you'll get a message from the City Park announcing the grand opening of the Secret Garden located inside the tunnel.

Complete 4 pose sets for some Blingz and a magazine article!

[10.2] Jade's Article: Model Tee!

Swap to Jade and accept the Model Tee! task from her computer. All Jade has to do is model one of your custom T-shirts and head to Picture This! for a photo. Model the T-shirt on the mat upstairs. You'll get Blingz for each of the poses done correctly, a perfect score, and for the T-shirt.

*Back at the office, the girls have mail. Cloe's been offered an opportunity to work for a fashion magazine, Sasha's offered a position as a DJ, and Yasmin gets an opportunity to go to a fashion college in Paris. Jade encourages them to go on with their opportunities and make this issue of Bratz the best!*

[10.3] Sasha's Article: Blazin' Bladin'!

Switch to Sasha and accept the Blazin' Bladin'! task from her computer. Sasha wants to do a charity race and help local charities. She just has to collect sponsors while she races. Exit the office, and you'll begin the race. You have 5 minutes to get 8 sponsors along the race. It works just as all the other races have. Basically, hit all the Bratz Boys and Girls to be your sponsors. Once you hit all the sponsors, you'll get some Blingz!

[10.4] Yasmin's Article: Secret Date

Switch to Yasmin and accept the Secret Date task from the computer. Yasmin says that Fianna has been acting suspiciously and she should get to the park to see what Fianna is up to. Go to the Park and find her. Just as you did with the Tweevils, you must follow Fianna from a safe distance. You want to be close enough to hear, but not close enough for her to notice you. Follow her to the Secret Garden and you'll find she's got a secret date with Koby. Snap 3 pictures of the couple to add to the magazine.

*You'll get a message from the office informing you that a special feature is still needed in the magazine. Meet back up at the office when you're ready. At the office, one last invitation comes in the mail. There's a fashion show at an old mansion and the girls get to model in it for their last show. Jade suggests the Midnight Dance range for the occasion.*

[10.5] Midnight Style Show! Article

*After the show, the girls have a heartfelt farewell, reassuring that they're best friends no matter what. Jade talks to Eitan, telling him about her feelings about the other girls. [10.6] Forever Rockin'! Article

This is it! The last article for the issue! Once you've completed all other side tasks, you will finally get ready for the last show. Once you're in the dressing room at the mansion, pick whatever outfits you want for the 4 girls to wear, and then head out on stage. Go out with a bang! The third issue of Bratz Magazine will be completed!

*The girls finally get to take a break after finishing their third issue. They are glad to have gotten out of their troubles with Your Thing, and don't have to worry about it as long as the Tweevils are around. Speaking of, they seem to be working as waitresses at the Smoothie Bar on the side. The girls laugh and talk about how sales are through the roof, and Your Thing is a thing of the past. Onto more adventures with Bratz Magazine!

[10.7] Sight Seein' Snapshotz! Article

Talk to Roxxi in the Office Plaza. She mentions how the others don't really get to see all the cool places the Bratz girls get to travel to. She wants you to take some pictures of at least 5 or 6 landmarks in London and in Paris. All the landmarks are in the distance. The landmarks are:

Nelson's Column (London) - stand by the Big Picture.

Big Ben (London) - stand on the corner of the Park, by Pinz.

Eiffel Tower (Paris) - stand by the park entrance and face the Cinema Lumiere.

Talk to Phoebe in the Mall. Phoebe is looking for Roxxi who was supposed to help her write an article for the magazine. Roxxi is no longer in the Office Plaza, so you'll have to ask around if anybody's seen her. She seems to be in the Fashion Promenade in search of a new outfit. Check Runway Ready and you'll find Roxxi downstairs. She says she'll see Phoebe about it in a bit. Phoebe will text you asking if you've seen Roxxi and to report back to her in the Mall if you do. Head back to the Mall. You'll earn Blingz and another magazine article!

---

[10.10] Hair Flair! Article

She wants a new hairstyle and possibly some make-up to coordinate with it. Head over to City Looks in the Mall or Cool Cutz in the Fashion Promenade and pick a hairstyle. Then change up your make-up a bit. Return to Fianna and you'll get some Blingz, plus a cool magazine article!

Aquarius - on the fountain in the Fashion Promenade.

Pisces - on the fountain in the Mall.

You'll get Blingz for each zodiac found, plus a magazine article on horoscopes!

*Picture This! will send you one last message thanking you for all your photos and they hope you won't forget them when you make it big!*

-----
[10.13] Midnight Dance Makeover!

Head over to Runway Ready in the Fashion Promenade and buy some outfits from the Midnight Dance range.

[10.14] Midnight Dance Mansion!

Go to World Tourz and head to the mansion by going up the ramp to the desk in the back.

[10.15] Moonlit Prep!

Before heading into the dressing room at the left, head upstairs for three surprises! At the top of the stairs opposite the bedroom is a present. The presents contain masquerade masks! The other two presents are in the two rooms in the hall. You get to wear these for the show! When you're ready, head back down to the dressing room.

*Jade is saddened that this is their last show, but the other girls reassure her that they'll always be friends! Time to get ready for the show!*

[10.16] Meet the Tweevils!

The Tweevils send Jade a message asking her to meet them at Burdine's Office. Go to the office and Jade asks what they want. The Tweevils want to help Jade for some reason. Kirstee says she has something shocking to show Jade. Jade sees Cloe, who apparently is now working for Burdine. Cloe was so excited that she signed the contract without looking it over carefully. The Tweevils want Cloe gone before Burdine decides she doesn't need them anymore. Jade believes that Burdine may have tricked the other two girls as well!

[10.17] Find Yasmin!

Travel to Paris to find Yasmin. She's over by the flower stand. Jade to the rescue! Yasmin explains that she has to pay for the college course, and the only job she could get was working the flower stand. It would take her years to earn enough to be able to afford the course. Jade clarifies that Burdine tricked them into splitting up, and that Cloe has signed a contract with Your Thing. Yasmin is ready to help. She must go to London to find Sasha.

[10.18] Spot Sasha!

As Yasmin, travel to London to find Sasha. Sasha is at Pinz, which has a dress code of the Pretty n' Punk range. Buy an outfit from the range at Punkadelic and head over to Pinz. Yasmin explains to Sasha that Burdine tricked them into splitting up and that Cloe is stuck at Your Thing under a contract. Sasha is eager to help. Yasmin asks about her dream job, which Sasha explains that she isn't even spinning tunes most nights and instead, puts the discs back in the right sleeves.

[10.19] Meet Burdine!

As Sasha, head back to the Office Plaza and go confront Burdine at her office! The girls opt to save Cloe, who is in the midst of another breakdown. Burdine says it's too late to save Cloe and that her name is bound by the contract, before telling the other girls to get out. Kirstee says their perfume is making her queasy, before telling Kaycee to open the window. The breeze from outside blows the contract away, leaving it opportune for the girls to pick up. Jade decides she has a score to settle with Burdine and is willing to go pick them up.

[10.20] Catch the Contract!

As Jade, you must race Burdine to catch the 3 contract pages. Just as you did with racing, follow the purple arrow to reach the pages. As a warning, Burdine actually moves rather quickly. You can grab the 1st page pretty easily, but the next two, especially the last one, are troublesome. The 1st page is by City Cinema, the 2nd page is by the Smoothie Bar, and the 3rd page is by Style Eyes. In order to get to the 3rd page before Burdine, you have to let her get close enough to the 2nd page that she will be far from the 3rd. This part may take a few tries, but don't give up!

*After getting the pages, Cloe is officially free from Your Thing and its dragon Burdine. The girls decide to celebrate by planning a party, another show!

[10.21] Party Posterz!

To celebrate the girls getting back together, they decide to hold a party and another show at the mansion! But first, you'll need posters advertising the show. Head over to Dynamic Design and create a poster. Once the posters are done, you'll have to hang them up at the poster points all over the city within 2 minutes and 30 seconds. Go ahead and put on your skates! There are 8 poster points:

- 1 - To the left of City Cinema, by City Looks in the Mall.
- 2 - To the left of Glamorous Gemz n' Jewelz in the Mall.
- 3 - To the right of the Smoothie Bar in the Mall.
- 4 - By Rock Out! in the Fashion Promenade.
- 5 - By Claire's in the Fashion Promenade.
- 6 - In front of the fountain in Dance Heaven Plaza.
- 7 - By the entrance to the Mall in the Office Plaza.
- 8 - By the entrance to the Park in the Office Plaza.

You'll get Blingz for all the posters put up!

[10.22] Rehearse 'N' Ready!

*Make sure you do all the side tasks, and other things you may want to do! This is the last show, and once you start, it takes you all the way until the end of the game. Buy any outfits you want for the show with all the Blingz you've earned. You deserve it!*

When you're ready, head to the dressing room in the mansion and get the girls ready for the show, wearing whatever you want them to!

[11] Mini-Games

[11.1] Posing Games

Being the founders of a great fashion magazine means the Bratz girls will have to model all of the latest fashions! During each of the girl's fashion shows, and even some side tasks, the girls will have to pose. Posing is easy. You are given a set of poses to perform within a time limit. The time limit is represented by the meter at the right, which starts to move down towards the star when time is running out. You earn Blingz for each pose done correctly. Depending on the difficulty, you can have up to 3 sets of poses.

[11.2] Blown Away!

Sometimes, characters will lose papers, flyers, photos and other objects that they'll need help picking up, within a given time limit. Usually, there are winds that will carry the objects away from you as you come close. Wearing roller skates is encouraged as you'll be able to move much faster!

[11.3] Model Behavior!

After all that modeling, you'll want some photos to put into an article for the magazine. As the girls pose, you'll be able to snap some different shots, during photoshoots or even fashion shows.

[11.4] Rockin' Racerz!

With those roller skates, you're able to move pretty quickly. Why not race? You can work towards fast times by touching all the flag checkpoints within a time limit for a solid time, plus some extra Blingz on the side!

[14.1] Final Word

And with that, my Bratz: Rock Angelz walkthrough has come to a close. Though tedious, the game is pretty fun. It can be a little difficult to figure out what to do next, even with the phone hints going off every few minutes. Still, I hope this will be able to help anyone who could ever need the help! Until my next walkthrough!
