Naruto: Clash of Ninja

Sasuke Uchiha

Pronounced Sauce-kay You-chee-ha

Finally, a decent fighting game from an anime! I try to watch the Naruto anime every Saturday night with my little brother. We've always loved it, and wanted a game to come out. When my friend tells me there is a game, I'm overjoyed. So, I buy it, and this is what's become of it: a guide to one of my favorite fighters, Sasuke Uchiha.

Version 1.0 - June 2, 2006 Wrote down the information needed on paper, then brought it to my room where I copied it down onto my computer. Afterwards I spellchecked the guide.

Final version - Version 1.0

In the anime television series, I hate Sasuke a lot. It's because he has absolutely no feeling! He needs to care more. So anyways, when I bought Naruto: Clash of Ninja, I planned on going into practice mode to beat up Sasuke over and over. But when I tried him out, I was hooked to him. He's too good. Now, my most frequently used characters are Sasuke and Haku.

B+B+B+B+B+B

This is a pretty decent combo. It is a large series of punches and kicks. It can take near half of your opponent's health if all attacks hit, which they won't usually, because your opponent will probably use substitution jutsu somewhere in the combo. Although, the last move usually doesn't hit anyway.

B+B+A

Sasuke punches twice, and then throws a kunai with each hand at the enemy. This is a pretty quick attack, but the damage isn't so good.

B+B+B+A

Sasuke punches twice, kicks once, then disappears in a puff of smoke in front of the enemy in the air, and kicks them while coming to the ground. This is one of my favorite moves. It does a good amount of damage, is quick, and the last move can catch your opponent off guard.

B+B+B+A

This is another awesome move. Sasuke punches twice then kicks twice, the last kick sending the enemy into the air. Then, Sasuke does fire-style jutsu and the opponent lands on the fire and gets hurt more, also blowing them backward. This'll do a 10-13 hit combo. You can hold A and Sasuke will hold out the fire jutsu as long as you hold the A button. (Be careful, holding the fire drains your chakra.) This move is strong and quick.

-->B+B+B

Sasuke punches the enemy in the gut, kicks at the enemy, then punches again, sending the enemy flying. Only three hits, but it's a pretty quick combo.

<--B+B+B

Pretty cool move. Sasuke spin-kicks, punches, spins in the air, and kicks the opponent's head. It's a good move. Sometimes if someone attacks him while he's doing the first strike, it won't interrupt the combo. Although, at the end of the combo it faces him away from the enemy, which might get you in a bit of trouble.

Down B+B+B

Sasuke trips the enemy, does a back-flip (which kicks them), then slams down diagonally at opponent from the air. I use this move frequently, because it catches your opponent off guard.

Down B+B+A

This is almost the same thing as the last move. Sasuke does the same first two moves, except he doesn't slam down on the opponent. Instead he throws to kunai at the opponent diagonally. This one does less damage and misses more than the one above, though.

Down A+B+B+B+B

Sasuke slashes with a kunai then kicks multiple times. Max hit you can get is 6. This move is pretty good, but the first hit is a tad slow, and the last hit doesn't always hit. I use this one a lot.

Down A+B+A

Sasuke slashes with a kunai, kicks the enemy, then disappears and appears in front of the opponent, and kicks them in the air. Not too strong, but an o.k. move.

Down A+B+B+A

This move is great! Sasuke slashes with a kunai (again), kicks twice, and then does the fire jutsu. I think everything with the fire jutsu is good. Don't forget you can hold A!

Special move- (X)

Sasuke kicks enemy into the air. He jumps up under them and in air kicks the enemy, and punches twice, the second punch sending the foe downwards where Sasuke falls down too. He brings the heel of his foot onto the stomach of the enemy with full force. This move doesn't do much damage as I'd like, but you don't have to be that close when you press X (as opposed to Naruto's.)

(Don't forget you need a full bar of chakra to use this move!)

Pros:

- + Pretty strong
- + Quick
- + Good balance of Ninjutsu and Taijutsu

Cons:

- Not too accurate
- No Genjutsu

A- Throws two kunai

A (hold) - Throws four kunai

Up A- Throws kunai diagonally up and forwards <-- A- Disappears, appear in front of enemy, and kick

Down A- Slashes with kunai

--> A- Fire-style jutsu. Hold A to hold jutsu.

(Drains chakra.)
