VII. Money-making Tips

-----From the 5 Help center quest: If you buy a Sleepy Sheep in Rogueport and sell it in Petalburg, you can make a 2 coin profit.
It may not seem like alot, but if you stock up with them in your storage also, you can make around 100 coin profit per trip. Not too shabby.

-----After beating the Glitz Pit for the first time, you can return and fight your way back up to the top again. (Jolene conveniently loses your file, so you have to battle to the top again) Once you're champ, you can re-fight Rawk Hawk over and over again for 20 coins a pop.

-----After you obtain all the cards for the games in the Pianta Parlor, the prize list will expand. On the list will be the Money Money badge, which is really expensive: 234 piantas or 702 coins. It may seem pricey, but in the long term it is worth it. If you fight higher class monsters, they will drop WAY more coins than normal. I made more coins in one day with the badge on than I did the whole time without the badge! They stack, so the more Money Money badges you have, the faster you'll make money!

-----Later on in the game, you'll see a green mouse at the dock in Rogueport. He will ask you for money. If you give him 300 coins, when he returns some time later on in the game, he will pay you back 999 coins!

-----Selling Whackabumps fetches a pretty penny, if you go to the right place to sell them. The shop on the train will pay you 100 coins per bump, so if you're not intending on using the bumps, you can make some quick dough.

-----What you need
Completion of Chapter 4
Some money
Finish Bub-ulber's Side Quest from the Trouble Cente

-Step One

Go to Glitzville and stock up on Hot Dogs(10 coins each)

-Step Two

Go to Petalburg and trade the Hot Dogs for Dried Bouquets with Bub-ulber

-Step Three

Go to Twilight Town and sell Dried Bouquets(14 coins each) at Twilight Shop

-Reward

You will make a profit of 4 coins for every Dried Bouquet

Thats twice as much at the Sleepy Sheep transaction
But it takes more money and time.

-----Fight Rawk Hawk in the Glitzville pit. He gives experience, is easy to beat, has his own song to listen to, you can have fun using different moves, and he gives a nice 20 coins every time you beat him. And then you can sleep in his champion bed and restore everything.
