Hello Everybody, and welcome to another one of my FAQs. This FAQ will tell you everything you could possibly need to know about Poke Spots. It will tell you which Pokemon you can catch at each spot, what events occur, and how to catch Pokemon at Poke Spots for those of you new to them. I hope you enjoy this FAQ and if you have any questions please email me using the email address provided at the end of the FAQ. If there is a certain section of the FAQ you would like to look at, press Ctrl + F on the keyboard and search for the section you want provided in the Table Of Contents. Thank you for reading and enjoy!

B.                               About Poke Spots

Unlike Pokemon Collosuem, XD allows you to actually catch Pokemon! While there isn't very many Pokemon that can be caught, it is a nice change from Collosuem. The places where you can catch Pokemon are called Poke Spots. There is three Poke Spots. Rock Poke Spot, Oasis Poke Spot, and Cave Poke Spot. They were discovered by Duking. (Thank you Duking, for these wonderful little places!)

(Item Checklist: 10 Poke Snacks, Spot Monitor)

When you first arrive here at the Rock Poke Spot, you'll see Duking in an interview with a Reporter. Duking will ask you to join the interview and hand you 10 Poke Snacks to demonstrate how they work. Set a few of them on the stone circle behind you. Once you do that Duking will give you the PDA attachment Spot Monior. Before Duking leaves, he will mark the Oasis Poke Spot on your map.

To cath Pokemon at the Poke Spots, you will need to leave Poke Snacks on the tray in the center of a Poke Spot. The Spot Monitor allows you to keep tabs on each Poke Spot as you continue along your journey. The monitor will alert you when a Pokemon shows up at a Poke Spot. If the signal is slow, it means a common Pokemon has shown up. If it's faster, it means a rare Pokemon has shown up. How many Snacks you left for the Pokemon will determine how long it will wait for you, so you'd best hurry!

The list below shows each Pokemon that can be caught at the Rock Poke Spot. Including their Type, (Normal, Ground etc.) and their Rarity, evolved forms which they change into after gaining levels, by using stones on them, (Water Stone, Fire Stone etc.) or by leveling up when friendly to the trainer or holding certain held items when leveling up:

If you run out of Poke Snacks, don't worry about it. You can always buy more of them at any Poke Mart in the Orre Region.

			JUMPLUFF
PHANPY	RARE	GROUND	Lvl 25:	PICKUP
			DONPHAN
SURSKIT	RARE	BUG/WATER	Lvl 22:	SWIFT SWIM
			MASQUETAIN

when you first arrive, you will see Duking, yet again. He'll mention that he needs your help in catching three Pokemon; Trapinch, Surskit, and Wooper. If you catch one of them, you can trade them for one of the Pokemon listed below:

TRADING WITH DUKING
Traded Poke mon:	Pokemon Traded for:	Recieved Pokemon's Type:	Recieved Pokemon's Evolutions:	Recieved Pokemon's Ability:
TRAPINCH	MEDITITE	FIGHTING/PSY-CHIC	Lvl 37: MEDICHAM	PURE POWER
SURSKIT	SHUCKLE	BUG/ROCK	NONE	STURDY
WOOPER	LARVITAR	ROCK/GROUND	Lvl 30: PUPITAR Lvl 55: TYRANITAR	GUTS

Once you accept his offer, he is so grateful that he reveals the third and final Poke Spot, the Cave Poke Spot!

E. Cave Poke Spot

(Item Checklist: Miror Radar)

POKEMON CAUGHT AT THE CAVE POKE SPOT
Pokemon's	Rarity:	Type:	Evolutions:	Pokemon's

Name:				Ability:
ZUBAT	COMMON	POISON/FLYING	Lvl 22:	INNER FOCUS
			GOLBAT
			Lvl UP WHEN FRIENDLY:
			CROBAT
ARON	RARE	STEEL/ROCK	Lvl 32:	STURDY/ROCK
			LAIRON	HEAD
			Lvl 42:
			AGGRON
WOOPER	RARE	WATER/GROUND	Lvl 20:	DAMP/WATER
			QUAGSIRE	ABSORB

When you first enter the Cave Poke Spot, you'll see Trudly and Folly. Shortly afterwards, Miror B will show up, and it's time to fight!

| BOSS BATTLE: WANDERER MIRROR B/Pokemon: Three Lombres at Lvl 17, Shadow|
| Pokemon: Voltorb, Lvl 20.                                             |
| One notable thing about Miror B is that he has 3 Lombres, which are |
| Grass-and-Water-type. They have Rain Dance, a Water-type move to power |
| their Water-type moves, and Mega Drain, a Grass-type move to absorb |
| their opponents HP and heal themselves. You can use a Grass-type Poke- |
| yourself to absorb their Grass-and-Water-type moves. Or you can use a |
| or a Flying type Pokemon and they're both strong Defensively and Of- |
| fensesively against Grass Pokemon. Don't forget to snag his Shadow |
| Pokemon Voltorb, which will be a very nice addition to your team! |

After you beat Miror B, Folly and Trudly will run away and drop their Miror Radar. This device works pretty much like the Shadow Monitor, except it alerts you when Miror B has been spotted in a certain area! When the Miror B symbol appears, go to Key Items in your inventory and see where Miror B's locaton is!

He normally visits places or battles. So when you enter the location it says he's at, head for the Collosuem. If Fudly and Trolly are there, you are at the right place.

F.                               The Munchlax Encounter!
(Item Checklist: Herbal-type Medicine, 10 Poke Snacks)

Sometimes when your Spot Monitor goes off, you'll head to the Poke Spot and Encounter Munchlax. (whom my girlfriend says is adorably cute) You can't catch Munchlax, but keep it busy until it's owner appears. Once the owner appears, you'll find out it's the Herbal Shop Owner's Pokemon. She'll apologize for Munchlax eating up your Poke Snacks and give you 10 Poke Snacks and a free sample of Herbal medicine. Her shop is now-open in Gateon Port! And yes, you guessed it, Munchlax is the pre-evolved form of Snorlax. (Snorlax has gotta be the most boring damn Pokemon ever)

G. The Bonsly Encounter

(Item Checklist: Leftovers, Bonsly Card)

When on the S.S. Libra, you'll encounter Bonsly, the pre-evolved form of Sudowoodo. You'll want to approach it slowly by applying little pressure to the control stick very slowly and sneak up behind it. But just when you are about to catch it your PDA will sound and scare it off, but it will leave behind Leftovers.

After you encounter it at S.S. Libra there is a chance you'll encounter it again at a Poke Spot like you did with Munchlax. Once you've encountered it again, you'll have to approach it slowly like you did on the S.S. Libra. Once you've caught it, it's owner will appear and reward you with the Bonsly Card which can be used for Battle Bingo in Realgam Tower!

First off I would like to thank the following:

You - for reading this FAQ.

One of the readers - for pointing out that I had said Bonsly was the pre-evolved form of Snorlax, instead of Bonsly is the pre-evolved form of Sudowoodo.

Everyone at Neoseeker, Supercheats, and GameFAQs.

My friends.

My Girlfriend Miley.

My best friend Samantha.

Nintendo - For making it possible!
