NOTE 1: Please know that this guide contains massive spoilers for this game in potentially every section. If you don't want to run the risk of being spoiled, you should stop reading now.

NOTE 2: This guide allows you to use the 'Find' function. To do so, press Ctrl + F, then type in the code for the section you wish to skip to. Go to "Table of Contents" for the search codes.

NOTE 3: This was written for the GCN version of SR, but since the majority of it (should) apply to the PS2 and Xbox versions as well, it's posted for all three.

 $# "Heroes" #

Sonic the Hedgehog - A supersonic hedgehog with a carefree attitude, Sonic always stops whatever schemes Eggman's planning.

Miles "Tails" Prower - A two-tailed fox and mechanical whiz, Tails is Sonic's best friend.

Knuckles the Echidna - The guardian of the Master Emerald, Knuckles prefers to "Shoot now; ask questions later," and is also easily fooled.

 $# "Babylon Rogues" #

Jet the Hawk - The leader of the Babylon Rogues, Jet is green in color and plans to use his "control box" to resurrect the ruins of Babylon Garden.

Storm the Albatross - The grey-colored, large and clumsy member of the Babylon Rogues, Storm is like Knuckles in that he acts before he thinks... but his actions tend to do more harm than good.

Wave the Swallow - An amazing Extreme Gear mechanic whose skills surpass Tails and Eggman, Wave never hesitates to tell someone off if she wants to.

 $# Others #

Amy Rose - A hedgehog like Sonic, Amy is obsessed with trying to get Sonic to admit his love for her, which she's positive he has.

Eggman Robotnik - An evil scientist with an IQ of 300, Eggman is throwing an Extreme Gear competition called the EX World Grand Prix, whose prize is the seven Chaos Emeralds (one paid by each contestant as an entry fee). He persuades the Babylon Rogues to join the EX-WGP in the hopes that when (if) they win and Jet uses his control box (powered up by the Emeralds) to unbury Babylon Garden, he (Eggman) will be able to step in and take the Babylonian treasure.

- Cream the Rabbit - A six-year-old rabbit with a Chao friend named Cheese.
- Shadow the Hedgehog - A research experiment called the Ultimate Life Form, created by Gerald Robotnik fifty years ago.
- Rouge the Bat - A government spy who loves jewels.

- Omochoa - A small Chao-like robot who debuted in Sonic Adventure 2, Omochoa is the EX World Grand Prix's announcer.

- NiGHTS - A character who debuted in the game "NiGHTS Into Dreams".
- AiAi - A character who debuted in the game "Super Monkey Ball".
- Ulala - A character who debuted in the game "Space Channel 5".

A place where thieves used to live, its inhabitants' crimes invoked the wrath of the Gods, resulting in the punishment of the island being buried in the depths of the Earth. Those who lived on the island were genies or descendants of genies, as seen in two places: their insignia (a lamp) and their treasure, a magic carpet (which was a prototype Extreme Gear).

* - At night, on top of a building...

TAILS: I think the signal's coming from around here.

* - Tails is holding a circular scanning device, with the words "Jamming Wave" displayed on its screen.

TAILS: Hmm... that's really weird. It looks like something's jamming the radar signal.

* - The sound of shattering glass resounds nearby. Sonic turns to the direction of the noise.

SONIC: Hmm?

* - Higher up on another building, three figures cloaked within the night's shadows break through a couple of windows; all three figures are riding on Airboards. Knuckles points to them.

KNUCKLES: There! What's that?

* - An icon on Tails' handheld device focuses around its digital representation of the three airborne figures.

TAILS: Sonic!! The Emerald's over there!

* - The three land on the ground and, using their Airboards, rush off down the close-by street.

SONIC: All right! Now we're talkin'!

* - Sonic jumps off the building he's on, spinning rapidly in the air during his descent. Six police units are giving chase to the three figures. As Sonic lands on the ground, he braces himself to stop the Airboarders, but the one closest to him - green in color - merely swerves passed Sonic. While Sonic looks in surprise at the fleeing green rider, Knuckles drops down behind Sonic and punches one of the other two riders - this one grey - off his board and spiraling through the air. Tails looks at the insignia on the Airboard, which depicts a lamp. The last of the three riders - who's purple - picks her grey companion out of the air and continues moving on without so much as pausing or breaking sequence.

KNUCKLES: Shoot!

* - Sonic picks up the board dropped by the grey rider, then flinging it into the air, runs towards and flips himself onto it. Quickly making it into the tunnel where the action's taking place, Sonic weaves in and out of the cars, until catching up with the green member of the trio. They exchange a few blows; seeing that it isn't working, Sonic swerves around the green rider, getting ahead of him.

[G-RIDER]: Oh, not bad.

* - Clearing the tunnel, Sonic looks back, but his rival's disappeared.

SONIC: What the--?!

* - Sonic looks up to see the competitor throttle down from the sky, his speed generating an incredible amount of wind behind him. The pseudo-shockwave from his opponent's landing sends Sonic spiraling through the air, just like the grey rider who Knuckles punched before.

[G-RIDER]: Hmph. So, you're supposed to be the fastest thing alive?

* - He rides out of view, as the grey rider - still hanging on to the purple rider's board - grabs his board out of the air. Tails and Knuckles catch up to Sonic as he lifts himself off the ground.

SONIC: Oh, new competition!

* - Eggman broadcasts himself onto a large television monitor, which previously read "Air Board Festival".

EGGMAN: Oh, hohohohoho!

SONIC, TAILS, KNUCKLES: Eggman!!

EGGMAN: Ladies and gentleman! Welcome everyone! I hope you're all ready for a show; we've got an exciting event, just for you. Hohohohoho! Since you all seem so bored, I put together a little something extra to spice things up! I call it the "EX World Grand Prix"; a tournament to see who's the best of the best with Extreme Gear. Not just a race, but a special race, to see who's the fastest. And... these races are no-holds-barred! All contestants pay a simple entry fee of one Chaos Emerald, and the winner takes it all! So, let's see who among you dares to meet this challenge!

* - The monitor goes back to its previous Air Board advertisement.

SONIC: Eggman again! Just what is he up to this time?!

* - Eggman reappears on the screen.

EGGMAN: And there's more! Before I forget, I'll present the current contestants. These players, they're hot; the best racers I could find!

* - The three individuals from the previous night appear on the monitor, along with the statistics for their Airboards; Storm the Albatross (grey), Wave the Swallow (purple), and Jet the Hawk (green). As Jet's information comes up on-screen--

SONIC: Hey, that's...! ...The EX World Grand Prix, huh? Let's do this!

KNUCKLES: Yeah, but what exactly is Eggman really after?

SONIC: Aw, it can't be anything too important.

AMY: Hey Sonic!!

SONIC: Huh? Amy...?

* - Sonic's eyes droop; Amy runs up to him, screeching to a halt.

SONIC: Don't tell me you've signed up too?

AMY: Of course. It really looks exciting and fun. Why wouldn't I join? And besides... this way, I'll be able to keep my eyes on you. *wink*

SONIC: Ugh.

* - Tails is looking at Sonic's board.

SONIC: Tails?

TAILS: Hmm... That mark... *flashback to the emblem on Storm's board*

SONIC: Mark?

TAILS: Uh-huh. I think it was on the boards of those guys we ran into in Future City. ...Babylon...

SONIC, KNUCKLES, AMY: Babylon?

TAILS: Yes; the mark of the Babylon Rogues. A long time ago, there was a floating island known as Babylon Garden. Supposedly, robbers lived there. According to rumors... this "legendary" band, the Babylon Rogues, were great thieves.

* - A series of hieroglyphics illustrate what Tails says.

TAILS: Legend also says that the Babylon Rogues incurred the wrath of the Gods because of their crimes, and that the island was cast into the depths of the Earth. After that, supposedly the Babylonians were then scattered for all time, never to be found. But they say that the Babylon Rogue's treasure still remains on that island, waiting to be discovered.

* - The hieroglyphics end.

TAILS: There are also rumors that the Babylon Rogues were Extreme Gear specialists.

KNUCKLES: Still, how can a plank like that just float?

TAILS: That's easy to explain. According to the Kutta-Joukowski Lift Theorem, the control surface flow is balanced by the inverse kinetics of the-- * - Knuckles eyes start spinning.

KNUCKLES: STOP!! I get it, okay?! It just floats and that's good enough for me!

WAVE: Ah-hahahaha!

* - Wave walks up to everyone.

KNUCKLES: Huh?

WAVE: Sorry, but it's just too funny! Huh? That Gear's unusual.

TAILS: Customized it myself.

WAVE: *picks it up* Hmm... *turns it around* Hmm! Hahahahahaha! Well, I never imagined anyone would enter the race with such a piece of junk. Hahaha! *hands it back to Tails* Thanks though. It was good for a laugh. See ya, shorty!

* - Wave walks away.

AMY: Oh that girl! Who does she think she is?!

SONIC: Yeah! How can she just walk in and diss Tails?

KNUCKLES: I know! And tinkering's all he's really good at, too.

* - Tails, looking in Wave's direction, appears infuriated.

OMOCHAO (speakers): The next race is about to begin. Please come to the gate, participants!

* - Sonic, Tails, Knuckles and Amy all start running to the gate.

* - Knuckles walks past a couple of robots. As he turns a corner, he and Storm bump into each other (literally), resulting in Knuckles lying on the floor. After a moment to take in what just happened, they point to each other--

KNUCKLES, STORM: Ah!

KNUCKLES: It's you!

STORM: I'll make sure to pay you back for this!

* - Knuckles stands up.

KNUCKLES: Hah! I let you get away last time, but definitely NOT today!

STORM: Why wait 'til later, you little punk? I'll pay you back tenfold, NOW!

* - Knuckles starts to wind up a punch, but hits the robot behind him instead.
As it falls down against Knuckles, he props it up.

KNUCKLES: Em, sorry.

STORM: Wa-hahahaha! What're you doin', you clumsy fool? Was that supposed to be some kind of punch?

* - Storm begins to wind up a punch of his own.

KNUCKLES: Nice try, buddy!

* - Knuckles dodges to the side, making Storm hit the robot by accident. Storm walks closer to the robot.

STORM: Sorry there! It wasn't my fault! If he hadn't jumped out of the way just now, I would've clobbered--

* - The robot's arm comes off in Storm's hand, right before it blows up.

KNUCKLES: --WHAT?!

OMOCHAO: The race is about to start! All participants, please get to your positions now.

KNUCKLES: Gah! The track then; we'll settle this there!

STORM: Looking forward to it!

* - Sonic launches off a ramp, doing three right-spin tricks, as Tails and Knuckles watch.

OMOCHAO (speakers): The semifinal race will begin in ten minutes! Please convene at the gate prior to that time.

SONIC: Hah!

* - He flips off his board, catches it, then lands on the ground.

TAILS: That's cool, Sonic! When did you learn those techniques?

SONIC: He-heh!

JET: Not very impressive for someone of your reputation.

* - Jet's standing on a tree branch.

SONIC: You...

JET: You know, I've checked you out actually. Not bad; I admit you're pretty fast on your feet. But here, it's a whole different story when riding with Extreme Gear! You see, to be the fastest on a Gear, you have to become one with the wind! Without wings, well, you might as well kiss the ground and go home!

* - Jet leaps into the trees above him.

JET: Ah-hahahahahaha!

KNUCKLES: Who does he think he is?!

SONIC: Hmm... Well I don't think he's all talk, you know; I better be on my toes during this competition.

WAVE (Tails' memory): "I never imagined anyone would enter the race with such a piece of junk."

TAILS: Sorry, Sonic; I just need to fine tune some things, then your Extreme Gear will be at a hundred percent.

SONIC: Hey Tails, you always do your best, so don't worry.

TAILS: Yeah, but she has a point; she's a really brilliant mecha mechanic. Sonic! Don't worry; I'll unlock the secret of the Extreme Gear for us!

* - Sonic nods.

OMOCHAO (speakers): Now, our race has reached its final stage. The remaining competitors are pacing, anxious for the race to begin. Only a few minutes left. Who will win this big event?

* - Confetti is being thrown in the coliseum.

AMY: Sonic! Congratulations! I'll be over here, cheering you on!

* - Sonic nods; Amy smiles. Sonic, Knuckles, Tails and Jet all start walking up the coliseum's large staircase.

EGGMAN (television): And now, it's time for the final event! And it's set here... in Sand Ruins! The rules are still the same; anything goes in this extreme race! Although it needs no further explanation, the first one to reach the goal will win this race!

* - Five of the seven Chaos Emeralds are set on an "altar" at the stair's top.

EGGMAN (television): But remember, the prize will be won by the racer who's performed the best throughout this competition!

* - Sonic takes out his Emerald; Jet does the same.

JET: Hah, you're lucky you got this far. It obviously wasn't due to your, "skills."

SONIC: Heh, I won't lose now.

* - They both set their Emeralds down.

EGGMAN (television): Hohoho! Get ready; it's time for the final race to begin!

* - Sonic and Jet have made it to the clear area behind the coliseum; without any obstacles, and Sonic in the lead, the outcome seems assured.

JET: No!!

* - Wave's standing behind a stone slab in the middle of the area. As Sonic passes her by, she presses a remote control, detonating an explosive on the underside of Sonic's board just as he enters the coliseum. Jet riders passed both him and the goal, taking First Place; with confetti falling, the crowd gathered in the entire coliseum cheers. Jet goes over to Sonic.

JET: Ah, the dirt suits you so well.

* - Jet gets back on his board; Sonic hits the ground in frustration. Jet rides to the Chaos Emeralds, where he raises his control box. The Emeralds rise into the air and encircle Jet.

$# Sand Ruins - Full Motion Video (FMV) #

* - Each of the Chaos Emeralds shoots a small beam of light into the control box, which ignite a glowing sphere inside it. Said sphere fires a beam of light like the Emeralds, but aiming it out at the desert. In the distance, mountains of dirt are thrown out as a loud rumbling starts. A floating ruin - Babylon Garden - raises out of the sand and into the sky.

JET: This... this is... Babylon Garden...

* - A crane outreaches and grabs the control box out of Jet's hand, with an added (comedic) 'popping' sound. Jet, dazed by the sight of Babylon Garden, doesn't notice the crane, but only flexes his hand slightly with the feel of the box missing; by the time Eggman speaks, Jet notices the box is gone.

EGGMAN: Hohohohoho! Now I'll get the Treasure of Babylon!

AMY: Oh no!

* - Amy runs up to Eggman, and grabs onto the machine he's using to fly.
Ignoring Amy, Eggman takes off for Babylon Garden.

JET: Eggman!

SONIC: Tails! Knuckles! We gotta get Eggman!

* - Sonic, Tails and Knuckles are in the Tornado, next to Jet's airship. Eggman cruises by on his motorcycle-thingy down below, on Babylon Garden.

SONIC: I found you!

* - Sonic prepares to jump off the Tornado, but Tails stops him.

TAILS: Wait, Sonic; use this!

* - Tails tosses Sonic a new Airboard, the Blue Star II.

SONIC: What is it?

TAILS: It's a new Gear I prepped up, just in case something like this happened.

SONIC: Thinking ahead Tails? Thanks!

* - Sonic dives off the Tornado; Jet meets him in the air.

SONIC: Jet...

* - They both land on the Garden.

JET: You can't catch up with him! Get outta my way!

SONIC: Is that what you think? Take a look at this! I'll show you what true speed really is!

* - Sonic crosses the finish line first, with Jet just a bit behind. Sonic stops and turns around, right as Jet loses balance and gets sent spiraling through the air.

SONIC: Even without wings, I can still fly! Right?

* - Jet hits the ground in frustration. Elsewhere in Babylon Garden, Eggman is in front of a huge door covered with markings.

SONIC: Where are you, Eggman?!

* - Sonic gets off his board; but as he walks closer to Eggman, the doctor reaches into a bush and pulls out Amy.

EGGMAN: Haha! Look before you move!

SONIC: Darn!

* - Jet comes into view.

EGGMAN: Hohohoho! Now then... just be a good hedgehog and stay still.

* - Eggman smirks. He starts to raise Jet's control box up to the door, but--

SONIC: Now!!

* - Sonic charges up the thrusters on his board, taking off into the air, leaving a whirlwind in his wake. Eggman shields his eyes.

SONIC: Can you catch the wind?

* - As Eggman opens his eyes, he sees that Sonic's gone.

EGGMAN: What?! Where are you?!

SONIC: I'm here!

* - Sonic crashes straight down from above, sending Eggman and Amy into another tornado. Sonic catches the control box as it flies from Eggman's grip.

SONIC: Hey, catch!

* - Sonic tosses it to Jet; he catches it.

JET: Wh-what?!

* - Sonic lands in front of Jet; Tails and Knuckles stand next to Sonic.

JET: Hmph! I lost. So don't play games with me. I don't want your pity, nor do I need it!

* - Jet hands the control box out to Sonic.

WAVE: Wha-? Are you crazy?

* - Wave and Storm walk in.

WAVE: If they don't want it, then let's take it. Treasure is treasure.

* - Jet looks down, but follows Wave and Storm.

SONIC: Ah, I think it's time to leave now. Tails?

TAILS: Yeah.

* - Sonic, Tails and Knuckles turn to leave.

AMY: So-NIIIC?!

* - Sonic looks more than a bit scared.

SONIC: Amy...?

* - Amy's looking at the ground.

AMY: How could you dive into Eggman knowing I was there!?

SONIC: Well, Amy... I thought... it'd be... okay... with you, and, uh...

* - Amy looks up, glaring at Sonic. She starts chasing him with her hammer.

AMY: Sonic!! Come back HERE! AHHH!! Sonic! I won't forgive you this time!

* - Amy chases Sonic back to Tails and Knuckles, who they then proceed to run around in circles.

* - The airship is flying near a couple of mountains at night as Eggman approaches from behind in a small machine. Inside Jet's room, Jet is holding his control box. As Storm runs to the door from outside, his feet thump loudly on the floor; reaching the door, he abruptly flings it open.

STORM: Hey, boss!

JET: Wha--?!

* - Jet falls out of his seat. Storm bangs on the desk.

STORM: We've got MAJOR trouble!!

* - Wave walks up to the side of the door.

WAVE: Storm! At least learn to knock before entering a room.

* - Storm, looking back, shrugs. He picks Jet's control box up off the table.

STORM: What's this? Oh, is this...?

* - Jet stands up.

JET: Yeah. That's when I took over things for my father.

WAVE: So is this the key to the fabled Babylon Garden?

STORM: I wonder... Could it be true? Could our ancestors have left behind hidden treasure that's just waiting to be discovered?

* - Jet nods.

WAVE: Hmm...

* - Wave reaches for the control box, but Storm pulls it away.

STORM: Uh-uh! If you get your greasy little hands on this, you'll probably use it in some crazy experiment of yours!

WAVE: Oh, come on; I only want to look at it.

STORM: You always say you ONLY want this or that!

* - Jet sits down. As Storm walks, Jet looks progressively more annoyed and impatient.

STORM: Remember the teachings of our ancestors, "Be careful what you ask for, ultimately you'll only get three true wishes."

JET: Oh, be quiet! Why'd you burst in here anyway?!

STORM: Well, uh, an egg head? Egg, salad? No...

* - Wave puts her arm in front of Storm.

WAVE: Someone called Eggman wants to speak to you.

* - Storm pushes Wave aside.

STORM: He told me that he has an interesting proposition for you.

* - Wave pushes back.

WAVE: Stop interrupting. Knock it off!

* - They turn their back to each other.

STORM: Hmph!

* - Eggman walks in.

EGGMAN: Ahem... am I interrupting anything?

JET: So then, I heard you wanted to see me?

EGGMAN: Are you Jet, the legendary Rogue? Your reputation precedes you. I've heard so much about your infamous group.

JET: Enough! What do you want?

EGGMAN: Well now, I heard a rumor... a rumor that you have the key to Babylon Garden. Now, could this be true?

* - Eggman looks at the control box in Storm's hand, light flashing across his glasses. Storm notices; hiding the box behind his back, he whistles innocently.

JET: Huh? What's this key?

EGGMAN: Hohohohohoho! Really now, you don't have to be so distrusting... Were you aware of this? I imagine not, yet. The key to Babylon Garden is...

* - Eggman moves over to Jet, finishing his sentence by whispering.

JET: Heh. So let me get this straight; we just need to collect all these Chaos Emeralds, right?

* - Eggman nods.

JET: Sounds easy.

EGGMAN: You really think so, eh?

JET: What do you mean? Are you saying the Babylon Rogues aren't capable of stealing some puny emeralds?

EGGMAN: No, of course not. But... have you seen this character before?

* - Eggman presses a few buttons on his coat's left arm's wrist, producing a hologram of Sonic which displays statistics about him.

EGGMAN: He's called Sonic, and said to be the fastest creature on Earth. I've had many, many dreadful encounters with this pest.

JET: Hmph. He may be the fastest creature on the ground, but in the air, with me and my Extreme Gear, he's just a joke. AH-hahahahaha!

KNUCKLES: Huh?

WAVE: Sorry, but it's just too funny!

* - Wave looks over at Tails, who's holding Sonic's Airboard, the Blue Star.

WAVE: (Let's see...) Huh? That Gear's unusual.

TAILS: Customized it myself.

WAVE: *picks it up* Hmm... (This isn't half bad for an amateur. Still, you can never be too careful.)

* - Wave turns the board around and places a small bomb on it.

WAVE: Hmm! Hahahahahaha! Well, I never imagined anyone would enter the race with such a piece of junk. Hahaha! *hands it back to Tails* Thanks though. It was good for a laugh. See ya, shorty!

* - Wave walks away.

AMY: Oh that girl! Who does she think she is?!

STORM: S-Sorry!

JET: Wha--?!

* - Jet falls out of his seat. Storm bangs on the desk.

STORM: Boss? T-The red dude beat me, in the race...!

* - Jet pulls himself up, using the desk as a support, then growls at Storm. Wabe walks up to the side of the door.

WAVE: Man, you really ARE worthless.

* - Storm looks back at Wave, but then turns again to Jet.

STORM: Boss, it wasn't my fault! H-he must've cheated; that's it. He must've used some special type of Gear!

WAVE: What?! Are you implying that you lost because of MY Gear?! No one can tune a Gear the way I can! Accept it, buddy - it's not the board; your skills just suck.

STORM: W-wh... W-wha? S... S... S-Suck?

WAVE: Yes. S-U-C-K. Suck.

STORM: Su... su... su--

JET: --Stop it!! New, let's get down to business. I believe our colleague, Eggman... He's gotta be hiding something. And you know... I don't like secrets, so I've got a job for you, Storm.

STORM: Sure!

JET: I want you to sneak into Eggman's base, and find out what he's hiding there! Make sure you look carefully.

* - Storm salutes.

STORM: You got it, boss.

* - Storm turns to leave, but--

JET: Hey, before you go... Bring something back, or don't return at all.

STORM: Yes, SIR!!

* - Storm runs out of the room at blazing speed. He passes the door, turns back to Jet, salutes again, and slams the door shut, knocking a framed picture off the wall, which falls down on Jet.

JET: Huh?

WAVE: Hmph, what's taking Storm so long?

JET: Just sit down and relax. Chill, Wave.

WAVE: Really, Jet! How can you be so relaxed at a time like this?! Don't you see? As you leader, you've got responsibilities. Some you understand, but you--

* - Wave's voice changes into a high-pitched, squeaky, inanely fast tone as Jet tunes her out. After a while, Jet notices something.

JET: Huh?

* - Sonic launches off a ramp, doing three right-spin tricks, as Tails and Knuckles watch.

JET: Hmm, I think it's time for a little fun.

* - Jet tiptoes away, taking care not to make any noise (Wave, during her lecture, closed her eyes); he makes it into the clear. After a few moments, Wave sees that he's gone.

WAVE: Huh?

* - She sees Jet jumping up some trees.

WAVE: Hey, Jet! You come back here! Right now! ...Why do I even bother? Unless I take charge, nothing ever gets done here.

JET: How'd it go?

* - Storm stands up, panting. He extends a small microchip out to Jet.

STORM: Take a look at this, boss!

WAVE: Gimme! *takes it*

* - Waves takes it. It projects a fast-paced stream of data onto a holographic monitor.

WAVE: Uh-huh. Yes. Hmm? Is this...?

JET: What is it?

STORM: It's an entry in Eggman's diary. It's about the Babylon treasure from our ancient ancestors.

* - A few new screens appear.

JET: Hmm... "Hahahaha! I got those birdbrains to believe that Babylon treasure was just a gem."

* - Jet's and Eggman's voices start to meld, as Eggman begins to narrate.

JET/EGGMAN: "I can't believe that fell for it! What fools!"

* - Eggman switches over entirely.

EGGMAN: "Can you believe the REAL treasure is the ancient, but advanced technology of the Babylonians? What irony! I've found a story about a boy who received an Angel Wing from the Babylonians as a gift. The story says that with it, the boy was able to rule the world. And this was just a gift! I'm anxious to find this technology as soon as possible. Imagine the vast possibilities of the technology they must have kept for themselves. Hehehehehe!"

* - The diary entry ends.

STORM: Aw man, I guess it's not a gem after all...

JET: Hmm.

* - Jet picks up his board and starts walking.

JET: Oh well; guess this was just a wasted effort. Too bad, really; I haven't the slightest interest in world domination or advanced technology.

WAVE: Hey, wait a second, okay Jet?

* - Jet stops walking.

WAVE: While Eggman may not look smart, he is; he has an IQ of three-hundred after all. If he's interested in this technology, it must have value.

JET: Are you saying there's profit in this?

WAVE: Think about it; it may be more valuable than finding silver or gold!

JET: Ah...

* - Jet imagines himself standing amid piles and piles of gold coins.

JET: HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHHA!!!

* - Wave's alarm sounds.

JET: Why'd you do that? I was just having this great daydream.

* - Wave turns the alarm off.

WAVE: Come on Jet, it's time to go back to the race.

TAILS: Look Sonic, the door's closing!

SONIC: Hurry up!

EGGMAN: Now hand over the treasure!

SONIC: Uh... Hehehe!

EGGMAN: Wh-what's so funny? Hand over the treasure right now!

JET: Okay, catch!

* - Jet tosses Eggman the treasure; a carpet.

EGGMAN: Hehehehehe! The Treasure of Babylon is finally mine! Huh? What IS this thing? A piece of cloth...?

* - Eggman unfolds the carpet, letting a letter fall to the ground.

EGGMAN: Let's see... Ah, this looks interesting. "At long last we've created our ultimate invention. With this, our lives will be easier, without the need to work so hard to keep ourselves flying. Stolen, the 13th leader of the Babylon Rogues."

* - Eggman picks up the carpet.

EGGMAN: It's amazing! The carpet's rich texture is a sight to behold! And the way it feels is extraordinary.

* - He brushes it against his face.

EGGMAN: Something such as this could only have been created in Babylon. Undoubtedly, this carpet will be in high demand from all around the world. But... But what's this? No way... I went to the trouble of holding the World Grand Prix for... f-f-for this? I-I can't believe I just wasted my time for THIS piece of junk!

* - Eggman collapses onto the floor from shock. Tails goes to the carpet.

TAILS: Hmm, what's this?

WAVE: Good eyes. Didn't think you'd spot it for a second, shorty. But you did.

SONIC: Hey, what're you talking about?

WAVE: This, isn't just a piece of fabric.

TAILS: Right. Take a look at the material; it's the same stuff we use for OUR Extreme Gear!

JET: You don't say.

* - Jet pulls out his control box; the light inside it resonates, causing the carpet to float off the ground.

SONIC: Oh, it's...

WAVE: Not sure, but maybe it's a prototype Gear.

SONIC: A magic carpet? I thought that those only existed in fiction.

JET: That's quite funny, actually. I never imagined that we Babylonians could be descendants of real genies.

* - Sonic, Tails, Knuckles, Amy, Jet, Wave and Storm all look out at Babylon Garden from down below.

SONIC: So, you're leaving this place?

JET: Yeah. The back of the carpet has more words of wisdom. It says, "This was invented to allow Babylonians to travel all over the world to gather treasure." Some things never change, huh? But enough of this friendly banter, Sonic; you better make sure you're ready when we meet face-to-face once again.

SONIC: You bet!

WAVE: Come on, Jet. It's time to split.

* - Storm hits Wave on the back.

STORM: Hey, I wanted to say that!

* - Jet sighs.

TAILS: We should split too, right?

* - "Catch Me if You Can" starts to play.

SONIC: Yeah.

* - Jet and Sonic toss their boards in the air; leaping onto them, they move directly opposite each other. Curving back around, they jump through the sky, passing each other; their boards' engines' exhaust creating an "X". They look back at each other one last time, smirking. Wave and Storm dash on ahead - Jet follows, but speaks to Sonic, even though he can't hear.

JET: You may be fastest, for now... but I'll be back, Sonic the Hedgehog!

BRONZE: As I expected, the kid was there. But the twerp's tricks weren't so hot. I wonder why...

SILVER: Argh! Again, that kid outperformed me! If things continue like this, I'll never be happy again!

GOLDEN: There's nothing I can do! That kid's tricks are... Perfect!

$# Mission 2 #
#####

Collect 8 or more pieces of junk before Wave gets one.

DIRECTIVE OF JET: Collect the junk scattered in the carnival.

BRONZE: I wonder what sort of work a girl like me should take? Should I work on jobs like this, or remain a mechanic?

SILVER: I found a few, but it's not enough. It seems like I'm always a few short.

GOLDEN: I can't find any at all. I'll be happy if I can find anything on the way home.

$# Mission 3 #
#####

Reach the goal in 75 seconds so Wave's work goes to waste.

DIRECTIVE OF JET: Block your route to slow down the competition.

BRONZE: Mission accomplished! But that guy's weak attempt irritated me. How can I not be angry when someone tries to ruin my work?!

SILVER: All my effort in blocking all the routes wasted... *sigh* It's smart to know when to quit though, you know.

GOLDEN: How annoying! How could I get interrupted now, of all times?!

$# Mission 4 #

Smash 9 or more objects to reduce Wave's morale.

DIRECTIVE OF JET: Destroy everything you can!

BRONZE: What, there's still some left? I wonder how many I destroyed? Still, it isn't very lady-like.

SILVER: Ah, that was easier than I thought it'd be! Only funny thing is that red guy...

GOLDEN: There's nothing left here at all! Now I'm even more frustrated.

$# Mission 5 #
#####

Fight with Wave ! Hit her with 1 or more attacks and reach the goal before she does.

DIRECTIVE OF JET: Eliminate the guy tailing you!

GOLDEN: How did I get beaten by that brat? I'll have a hard time falling asleep tonight.

$# Mission 3 #
#####

A bunch of Rings have just appeared. Collect 50 or more Rings, then reach the goal.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'll grab all the Rings by using all my Gear skills!

BRONZE: First come, first serve! When I'm ahead, everything else is easy!
SILVER: Hmph! This wasn't a foot race! Unless you collect Rings, being ahead does nothing for you.
GOLDEN: Dang! My adversary gave me a hard time! I'm not used to not being number one!

$# Mission 4 #
#####

Fight with Jet ! Hit him with 1 or more attacks and reach the goal before he does.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'm going to beat him up and retake that treasure!

BRONZE: Sheesh, that was so close. Maybe I let my guard down too much, focusing on that stupid red echidna.
SILVER: I won't be fooled by the same old trick! I'll pay that red echidna back twice next time!
GOLDEN: I was defeated by that red knucklehead... I never thought I could...

$# Mission 5 #
#####

Fight with Jet ! Collect the scattered junk and reach the goal before he does.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'll give it all I've got this time!

BRONZE: Ha ha ha! You make me laugh! If you think that's all it takes, you're in for a big surprise! This was just practice.
SILVER: Looks like we both have some energy left... Now comes the real fight! Watch and learn!
GOLDEN: Hrrr... I guess I should be impressed! I have no chance of success unless I become stronger!

A bunch of Rings have just appeared. Collect 50 or more Rings, then reach the goal.

CONTENT OF OPERAITON: I'll grab all the Rings by using all my Gear skills!

BRONZE: Getting Rings is no problem. But mess with me, and you're looking for some trouble.

SILVER: Never take a professional thief lightly. Thieves are difficult to steal from.

GOLDEN: That punk! My adversary is causing trouble on all the routes I've tried to take!

$# Mission 2 #

#####

Jet is following you ! Maintain a speed of at least 140 to break away from him.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'll take back the treasure by doing a dash!

BRONZE: Sheesh! There's some much garbage here! I was one step away from winning, but I lost due to some trash!

SILVER: I won't allow such a poor approach to affect me next time. I'll bring this to an end in our next encounter!

GOLDEN: Could this mean my skills are inferior? No... No way!

$# Mission 3 #

Reach the goal with over half of your Air left.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'll get you through my tricks, even if I have to sacrifice more Air!

BRONZE: This match was invalid! I refuse to believe that I lost! I'll make it clear who's the fastest!

SILVER: How did I run out of Air? That's when my adversary blew right past me. I really messed up!

GOLDEN: I just realized something. Could this guy be going by instinct? Funny, when I plan everything out...

$# Mission 4 #

#####

Fight with Jet @ Hit him with 1 or more attacks and reach the goal before he does,

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'm going to beat him up and retake that treasure!

BRONZE: I don't really care much about attacks, really... I'll let you keep the treasure, for now.

SILVER: Argh! I was caught off guard! But since this is a set of three matches, I just need to win the next two races.

GOLDEN: How... How could I be defeated by a little brat? I... I am the leader of the Babylon Rogues. I cannot lose!

$# Mission 5 #
#####

A match with Jet to prove who is the fastest ! Prove that you are by reaching the goal before Jet !

CONTENT OF OPERATION: It's a matter of honor to win!

BRONZE: My adversary is just a big windbag. But since I lost, I don't feel like commenting.

SILVER: I don't believe it. I prepared myself and threw down the challenge, yet I still couldn't win.

GOLDEN: Forget about honor. Any way I can win, I'll take it.

Catch up to a police car and take the treasure before Jet appears.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'm going to find that police car and take the treasure!

BRONZE: That red echidna, does he intentionally slow down to pick a fight? He must focus on the police car!

SILVER: How could I get beaten just as the Treasure was right in front of me? What a bitter defeat I have suffered...

GOLDEN: No! I couldn't reach the treasure! How could I have been so misinformed? This won't happen again!

$# Mission 2 #
#####

Grind 8 or more ties to get the treasure before Jet appears.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'm going to search under the waterfall! The treasure's mine!

BRONZE: Huh! My adversary showed up again when I was just a step away! I must stay focused!

SILVER: I won't give up. I'll find *my* treasure someday, and do so at any cost!

GOLDEN: What does this say about my skills? Man, collecting treasure isn't easy.

$# Mission 3 #
#####

Catch up to a robot before Jet appears and grab the treasure.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'm going to track that robot down and take the treasure.

BRONZE: That red echidna and I were tricked by that robot! What a horrible outcome.

SILVER: I lost sight of the red echidna and robot! If I find that red echidna again, I'll smash him good!

GOLDEN: What's that red echidna doing? He's mimicking that robot!

$# Mission 4 #
#####

Use Air Ride 30 or more times to get the treasure before Jet appears.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'll look in the centipede's nests. That treasure's mine!

BRONZE: What's this? Seems like I have natural instincts with Gears I haven't even used yet. Ha ha ha.

SILVER: Hmmm, I did pretty well using that new Gear without practicing!

GOLDEN: Man, I'm sick of having to use Flight type Gear!

$# Mission 5 #

Fight with Jet ! Collect the scattered junk and reach the goal before Jet does.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'll give it all I've got this time!

BRONZE: Is that the best you can do? You won't be talking like that for long! Prepare yourself, Sonic!

SILVER: It looks like I have no choice but to have the three of us work together. But that shames me. Argh!

GOLDEN: I was totally focused this time! But... I lost. Should I admit defeat... No, not yet.

Destroy 7 stone statues in a row to uncover the hidden treasure before Jet appears.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'm going to search the stone statues! That treasure's mine!

BRONZE: He must have found it by sheer luck. It happens, you know!
SILVER: It's stupid. I should've found the treasure first! I had my plans!
GOLDEN: That annoying red echidna found the treasure! What luck!

$# Mission 2 #

Grind 8 or more times to get the treasure before Jet appears.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'm going to search the palace roof! The treasure's mine!

BRONZE: Yeah, I saw the treasure around the corner, then I was blindsided.
Argh!
SILVER: What speed! And he taunts me! Well, the party's over, and I'll teach him a lesson!
GOLDEN: What awesome skills! I didn't have a chance... Can we really win?

#####

BRONZE: I was really intent on getting that treasure. But if I'd known this,
I'd have taken a nap instead!
SILVER: That red echidna must have information that I didn't have. Otherwise, how'd he get the treasure?
GOLDEN: Wow! When I see skills like that, well, it astounds me!

$# Mission 4 #
#####

Use Air Ride 26 or more times to get the treasure before Jet appears.

CONTENT OF OPERATION: I'll check out the Seize Tower. The treasure's mine!

BRONZE: I did okay, I guess. My results were similar to the kid's. I guess Flight type Gear isn't so bad.
SILVER: Man, I had a horrible showing. But if I had my usual Gear, I'd show that kid a thing or two.

(Not while...) Running out of sun.
(It might...) Coming out to stun.
(Not while...) Your chance is none.
(It might...) Nothing can be done.

Catch me, if you can!

(Not while...) There's no turning back.
(It might...) Reached but never kept.
(Not while...) You can't fathom that.
(It might...) Want things you can't have.

(Change the world...) There's no turning back.
(Change the world...) Reached but never kept.
(Break the world...) You can't fathom that.
(Make the world...) Want things you can't have.

Catch me if you can!!

Jet the Bird! ...Jet the Bird! There's no turning back.
Sky time! ...Sky time! Reached but never kept.
Jet the Bird! ...Jet the Bird! You can't fathom that.

Sky time! ...Sky time! Want things you can't have.

There's no turning back...
Reached but never kept...
You can't fathom that...
Want things you can't have!

So catch me if you can.
When you're born in a dream,
And a wolf from a scene,
But we never could reach...

Airtime max on the random V,
Like life flies by from a bloody scene.
One by two, I stuck in the [vanity];
Hawk tail, wing, caw, a heaven's center; Jessie is speed.
Rush sweet to a melancholy victory; your chance to understand.

Catch me if you can!
Catch me if you can!
Catch me if you can!
Catch me if you can!

Only if you can.

Jet the Bird! Running out of sun...
Sky time! Coming out to stun...
Jet the Bird! Your chance is none...
Sky time! Nothing can be done.

No one near in my class of heat;
The ruler of the winds could never be beat.
Don't hence, don't mob, you're put to the test,
Like Jet as hawk, I'll rather your nest.

I never come down; high, low;
A breath from a chimney with wings enthroned.
Jet fly hawk, the sky is me;
All for the speed, I was born to be.

(Change the world...) There's no turning back!
(Change the world...) Reached but never kept!
(Break the world...) You can't fathom that!
(Make the world...) Want things you can't have!!

(Not while...) Running out of sun!
(It might...) Coming out to stun!
(Not while...) Your chance is none!
(It might...) Nothing can be done!!

Chaos and the emeralds; life as a criminal;
Whatcha gonna do, with nothing as perpetual?
World domination; the best technology;
Haven't got the interest; I'm there for my glory.

Put me in the air and my speed will lead;
All in the shine like a miracle weed.
I just won't stop wit' them treasures with me;
Said it before, I was born to be.

Kabob - For telling me what E-1000R says when it's selected.

knuckles_sonic8 - For corrections to the start quotes for Storm (forgot the 'I'), Ulala ('race' was 'play') and Rouge ('yourselves' was 'yourself'); the line in Sonic Speed Riders "Riding on the waves of Super Sonic..." (which I had as 'Riding on their way with supersonic...'); and giving me permission to reference his Song Lyrics FAQ for some of the parts of Catch Me if You Can that I couldn't understand. The lines that were changed were ("[]"s denote altered text):

1. And a [wolf] from a scene,
2. [Airtime max] on the random [V],
3. One by two, I [stuck in the] {vanity};

Just a few notes...

Assuming what information you send in does make it into this guide, then your name will be added to the Credits section. In the event that you would either like to keep your name private ("anonymous"), or if you don't want any credit at all, please make a note of it in the email, and I'll act accordingly.

Now, if you do want your name added, please give a name to which I can attribute credit. If you don't have any particular alias in mind, then I'll use the first part of your email (i.e. SomeDude@SomeEmail would be "SomeDude").

Thank you in advance for any contributions.
