This walkthrough was originally written for Tom and Jerry: War of the Whiskers on the GC, but the walkthrough is still applicable to the PS2 version of the game.

Tom & Jerry: War of the Whiskers FAQ
-----Secrets-----

I just made this because there isn't enough -correct- information about this game out there. Now this FAQ is GameCube specific, so I'm in the dark as to if these strategies and secrets will work on the XBoX and Playstation versions.

PLEASE NOTE: I don't cover cheat codes in this FAQ. I'm only covering the legitimate ways of unlocking these things!

War of the Whiskers is (c)NewKidCo.

Update 1.) March 07, 2005: FAQ Created

-----Index-----

- 1.) Secret Characters
- 2.) Secret Levels
- 3.) Secret Weapons
- 4.) Secret Costumes

--1.) Secret Characters-----

In the beginning of the game, only Tom and Jerry are available. By playing through the game, you can unlock Spike the Bulldog, Tyke the Bulldog,
Butch the Alleycat,
Nibbles the Mouse,
The Duckling,
The Lion,
The Hawk,
Robot Cat*,
Monster Jerry*.

indicates this character can only be used in multiplayer

To unlock characters, you need to play through one-player CHALLENGE mode. Here's the setup. With each character you win with, a new character will be unlocked. So here's the progression:
Jerry->Tyke->Butch->Lion->Monster Jerry
Tom->Spike->Nibbles->Duckling->Hawk->Robot Cat

So if you beat the game with Butch, Lion will be unlocked. Beat it with Duckling, and Hawk will be unlocked. And again, Robot Cat and Monster Jerry are not available in Challenge Mode, only in Multiplayer Mode.

--2.) Secrete Levels-----

There are several, standard levels in the game. You only begin with a few, but they're unlocked for multiplayer once you fight in them in CHALLENGE MODE. Here are the standard levels:

A Fridge Too Far
Ciao Meow
Unfurgiven
Frankenmouse
PAWS
Luncheons and Dragons
Snow Fight
Scrapeyard Scrap
Towering Infurno
That Sinking Feline
Haunted Mouse

These will ALL show up during the course of the game, as you play. They each get unlocked once you encounter them in the CHALLENGE MODE. However, there are also two secret arenas:

Some Like it Hotter
Raging Mouse

That only appear in Versus Mode. To access these, simply play a QUICK BATTLE between HUMANS ONLY. If you're playing with only humans, these two arenas will show up. They're simplistic, and made for all out brawls without environment interaction.

--3.) Secret Weapons-----

Along with the dozens upon dozens of items and weapons you can use in every level, there are also secret weapons that only show up in each level once that level has been completely destroyed. A good method for completely destroying a level is to use a hand-held weapon, and hit the walls, and any props that look breakable. Bookshelves, windows, planks of wood, barrels, walls, just go hog wild. Upon destroyed every single object in the level, a message saying, "MAP DESTROYED" will pop up, and that level's secret weapon will now be available. Each level, except for the two hidden arenas, has a secret weapon. What follows is a list of said secret weapons, and what they do, for each level.

1.) A Fridge Too Far

weapon: Rotten Eggs

special effect: Not only do you get three shots with these, they'll instantly poison anyone they hit.

2.) Ciao Meow

weapon: Bee Hive

special effect: Without having to charge, this item will automatically stick to the head of whoever you throw it at. When it breaks off, a swarm of bees will emerge and attack that player.

3.) Unfurgiven

weapon: Branding Iron

special effect: Just one uncharged jab from this will set your enemies ablaze and send them running and screaming, quite comically.

4.) Frankenmouse

weapon: Electric Bomb

special effect: Throw this at an enemy to zot them with a powerful jolt of electricity

5.) PAWS

weapon: Electric Eel

special effect: This also zaps your enemy with electricity, except it is a hand-to-hand weapon, so you can whap multiple foes with it.

6.) Luncheons and Dragons

weapon: The Sword in the Stone

special effect: Instantly 'dizzies/stuns' your enemy, with having to charge it.

7.) Snow Fight

weapon: Barrel of Ice Water

special effect: Instantly freezes your enemy in a solid brick of ice.

8.) Scrapeyard Scrap

weapon: Sledgehammer

special effect: Instantly flattens your enemy with one hit.

9.) Towering Infurno

weapon: Dynamite

special effect: Blow your enemy to pieces without charging it up!

10.) That Sinking Feline

weapon: Octopus

special effect: Sticks to your foe's head instantly, and clings for quite a long time.

11.) Haunted Mouse

weapon: Cutlass

special effect: Sends your foes flying with just one hit.

There they are, all the weapons. As I said before, Some Like it Hotter and Raging Mouse don't have unlockable secret weapons in them. These reset after each battle, so if you want to use them again, you've got to destroy the map again.

--4.) Secret Costumes-----

There are dozens of costumes you can unlock in the game. To unlock them, you need to smash certain things in certain levels, with certain characters. A simple way to do this, is to play a QUICK GAME with another human player, and simply take your time smashing things until the message, "Costume Unlocked" shows up. NOTE: The costume you get will only be for the character you're playing as. So a Tom costume will only appear when you play as Tom. Here are the costumes I've found so far, and the levels they appeared on. There may be more costumes for each character, because I'm not completely sure if it's random or not...

Tom the Cat:

Cowboy Kitty, found on Unforgiven

Muskateer, found on Luncheons and Dragons

Beach-Trunks, found on PAWS

Sailor Scout, found on That Sinking Feline

Jerry the Mouse:

Mousekateer, found on Luncheons and Dragons
Snow Parka, found on Snow Fight
Beach-Trunks, found on PAWS
Sailor Scout, found on That Skinking Feline

Spike the Bulldog:

DevilDog, found on ??? (I can't remember where I found this)
SherriffSpike, found on Unforgiven

Butch the Cat:

Beach-Trunks, found on PAWS
Auto Scrubs, found on Scrapyard Scrape

Nibbles the Mouse:

Mousekateer, found on Luncheons and Dragons
Indian-Chief, found on Unforgiven

Duckling:

Coon'Skin Cap, found on Unforgiven

As of yet, I haven't found alternate costumes for Tyke, Hawk, Lion, Monster Jerry, and Robot Cat. It's doubtful Monster Jerry and Robot Cat have alternate costumes, but I'll keep looking.
