Biography of Stone Cold Steve Austin

Steve Austin was born in 1990 when a 25 year old Steve Williams decided to pursue a life long interest and enrolled in a wrestling school run by Chris Adams. In 1991 'Stunning' Steve Austin debuted in World Championship Wrestling. Steve Austin spent five years in WCW. He held the TV Title twice, the US Title twice, and the Tag Titles once with the late Brian Pillman. But it was the WWE which would finally bring out Austin's Superstar Status. Before the beer-swigging, glass breaking Austin ever entered the ring, there was The Ringmaster. Austin knew that The Ringmaster was not a character that played off his true self, and he recommended a change. This brought out Stone Cold Steve Austin.

One of the defining moments of Stone Cold's career was after winning King of the Ring 1996, when Austin mad a speech mocking the religious Ted Dibiase. Included in the speech was the birth of Austin 3:16, "I just whipped your ass." Austin went on to feud with the other top stars in the WWF, but at this point, the feud he will be forever known for is Austin vs. McMahon. With Vincent McMahon symbolizing the evil boss of the everyman, and Stone Cold representing the everyman himself, these two men singlehandedly wiped away the ratings dominance of the WWF's competitor, WCW.
