

not Shady, is back for yet another FAQ! As many of you may know, I am not the greatest fan of the GameCube console but there has been a few games; this one is by far the best so far! Enjoy the FAQ peeps..

Hope this helps,

~Brakker-Z Ryan Rider

2. Game Review

If you know me then you will obviously know how much I love wrestling. I've got almost every wrestling game of all time and always try to get news one on the first day. I am also not the greatest fan of the GameCube, but this game actually is pretty good! When the last WWF game came out (WWF Raw), it fell short of expectations. All the gimmick matches and 1P modes that people had grown to love were just not there. Is WWF Wrestlemania X8 the savior? Kinda.

It's not perfect; but it's a darn good improvement. The gimmick matches in this game are all amazing. You can jump off ladders in a Ladder Match, put people threw tables in a Table Match, or combine them both (including a 20-Foot ladder) and have a Tables, Ladders, and Chairs Match! There is also the famous Steel Cage and Hell In A Cell matches inside large cages. And don't forget the 60-Minute Iron Man Match which the winner is the one with the most pinfalls, submissions, and disqualifications. The one player mode is just a slight improvement over Raw, with more titles to win.

There are many wrestlers to choose from ranging from top wrestlers like Stone Cold, The Rock, and Hulk Hogan all the way to the likes of Hurricane and Lance Storm! There could still be many more gimmick matches, but then there'd be no point for a sequel! An example of this would be to allow people to throw others off the Hell In A Cell (which cannot be done obviously).

There's the Path of a Champion mode, in which you battle your way threw the top superstars in that division to win the WWF, Intercontinental, European, Hardcore, Light Heavyweight, and Tag Team title belts. Another good thing is that you can save in the middle, so if your brother or sister wants to go on you don't have to restart unlike in Raw. There is also a Multiplayer Belt mode called the Battle for the Belts. You and as many friends as possible can fight over 40 title belts, or even more if you make your own!

The gameplay is not too easy nor too hard depending on what level of difficulty you choose in the options menu. It is a brand new grapple system. It's way different than those of WWF No Mercy and WWF Raw, and more similar to the Smackdown series. It's actually quite simple after some practice. The A Button for grappling, B Button for striking, X and A Buttons to pick up weapons and stuff, the Y Button to run, and the Control Stick to run. It may be a bit unusual at first, but after awhile you get used to the new controls.

Now for the graphics and sound. I don't know why so many people think the graphics stink in this game?! I think they are completely fine in my view, and a game shouldn't be judged on it's graphics; especially when they are pretty good! The entrances and design of the ring are simply amazing. As for the wrestlers though, some of them look very wierd and hilarious. I mean, since when did RVD have such a small head! As for the sound, it's just as good as any other GameCube game except if you have a very old TV like I do. A thing that pissed me off a bit was how some of the wrestlers(*COUGH*nWo*COUGH*) had fake theme music since THQ was their lazy selfs and didn't feel like putting their real theme music like on Television.

The CAW(Create-A-Wrestler) feature is also quite good but could have been better. Maybe a few more additions and features here and there. There is also not too many different t-shirts and pants to choose from. Major points off here, THQ and Jakked Pacific. Not terrible though, just not as good as some of the past games.

As for replayability, I think that there's a lot just like in any wrestling game. There is just too much to do in this game. You can have big Royal Rumbles or belt tournaments with your buddies and friends, you can try to get every single hidden wrestler, win all titles, play all sorts of kinds of gimmick matches against the computer or a human player/players, etc. You'll never get bored of this game. And when the time comes that you do, put it away and after a few weeks or months you'll end up loving it again!

As for to buy or rent, I suggest that you rent this game first as I say that some people love this game, and some people don't. You either love it or hate it! I bought it knowing that, and I loved it. So I guess it's all about personal preference, just like WWF Raw for X-Box. Rent it at your local Blockbuster or other video game retailer, and if you like it then definitely buy it! If you're a big wrestling fan like me, I guarantee you'll love this game.

Pros:

- Pretty Good Graphics
- Lots of Gimmick Matches
- 40 Titles
- More recent wrestlers

Cons:

- Still not perfect
- CAW System isn't too good
- Not enough storyline in 1P Mode
- Not enough wrestlers

Overall: 8.5/10 A great game that could have been a touch better if they had worked harder. More wrestlers, storylines, and a better CAW system in the sequel would make this game perfect. And don't forget the ability to throw people off the Steel Cage! Anyways, peace out.

3. Updates

06-11-02-Version 1.0: Just started the FAQ. Look for major updates in the coming days/weeks.

06-13-02-Version 1.2: Added several codes, F-A-Qs, and started the Move List.

06-14-02-Version 1.3: Boy do I have a lot of free time with school now over! Finished the Move List and added a few codes. Also started the Wrestlers' Moves Section.

07-29-02-Version 1.4: Added lots of Wrestler's Move Lists. Also fixed the ASCII art. Look for major updates in the near future.

4. Frequently Asked Questions

Q: This game sucks! Why do you plan to make a FAQ for it?

A: Something called freedom of opinion. If you are a non open-minded wrestling game hater and dislike the game, don't waste your time sending me e-mails flaming the game. Also, please keep your opinions to yourself.

Q: How can you have seven wrestlers on the screen at once?

A: 4 Wrestlers, the referee, and the announcers.

Q: How do u do the 3-d?

A: Make sure your wrestler has Flapjack as one of his moves. Stand in front of your partner while he is on the apron. Take a few steps, and irish whip your opponent to the ropes. While whipping, press Z Down and when he comes back press down and then your partner will be in the ring to do the 3D! It's pretty hard, but with some practice you can master it!

Q: When I put my partner to help me for 20 seconds, he only stays for 2 seconds! What can I do?

A: Complain to THQ, not me. It was then who had a bad counting timer, or maybe your partner was a slow wrestler like The Big Show.

Q: How do you make a CAW have an nWo shirt?

A: You DO NOT need to clone a wrestler to get the nWo t-shirt. You just need to go to logo t-shirts on the Upper Body section of the CAW.

Q: How do you climb out of the cage?

A: Wait until your opponent is all weak and groggy and then press X and Up on the side of the cage.

Q: How do you do a finisher?

A: Wait until your stamina meter is flashing. You then Press A + B at the same time when you want to do your finisher. Each wrestler has up to four finishers including front grapple, back grapple, front submission, and back submission.

Q: How do you make your own belts in Battle For The Belts Mode?

A: It's very easy to do; just click Unification Match instead of Title Shot.

Q: I tag in my partner, and when he's in there fighting, how in the HELL do I get him to tag me back into the match?

A: Try to go in the ring during submissions and he might remember that you are there. Otherwise, just have patience my friend.

Q: How do get weapons from underneath the ring?

A: A+X and control stick towards the ring apron.

Q: Can you steal your opponent's finisher like in WM2K and No Mercy?

A: Nope.

Q: How do you do the 3d through a table?

A: To do a 3D threw a table, make Bubba Ray and D-Von on both sides of the table and make them both press the A Button(grapple) at the same time.. Simple, eh? Not. It takes some practice.

Q: Can you use superstars faces and attires that are in the game (Undertaker, Triple H, Austin, etc.)?

A: The answer is simple: yes.

Q: How do you win a 30 man royal rumble it is impossible!?

A: Nothing is impossible!

Q: What's an effective way to break out of a pin?

A: Press L and R Buttons at the same time, or just all the buttons.

Q: Are there any secret wrestlers in this game?

A: Yes, there are several. Head down to the Secrets and Codes secret for more info.

Q: How do I get out of the cell?

A: You can. To break out of the Hell In A Cell, Irish Whip your opponent into the side of the cell three times in a row.

Q: Is it possible to make your CAW's hair the color orange?

A: Yes.

Q: Is it true that there are any secret arenas?

A: Yes, it is. The three secret arenas are Wrestlemania X7, Smackdown, and Royal Rumble 2001.

Q: Is there any blood in the game?

A: No, there isn't.

Q: Are you sure? I heard there is still some blood hidden in the game.

A: I said no! Those rumors are all fake.

Q: Should I buy this game?

A: If you are a wrestling fan, yes. Otherwise, rent the game first!

Q: Can I have a list of all your CAWs?

A: I still haven't made any except for fake wrestlers. I have been too busy working on the rest of the FAQ. I'll try to make a few later this week.

Q: WWF Raw or WWF Wrestlemania X8?

A: Tough one, but I'll have to go with X8.

Q: Is "The One and Only" in this game?

A: Well it's technical name is Cobra Clutch Slam, but it's in here.

Q: Is the Jackhammer in this game for a Goldberg CAW?

A: Yes, it's a front grapple finisher.

Q: How do you clone a wrestler?

A: It's easy. Just go to copy instead of edit.

Q: Is it true that there are Tag Team HIAC matches and fatal 4 way HIAC matches?

A: Yes.

Q: Is Scotty 2 Hotty in this game?

A: The answer is yes, and the worm is in the game too!

Q: Why isn't Shawn Micheals, Eddy Guerrero, etc. in this game?

A: Their returns happened too late to add them into the game at the last minute.

Q: I heard somewhere that they have the Fireman Carry to Falling Pancake Slam in this game to make a Brock Lesnar CAW. Is this true?

A: Sorry, but its not. They have the Fireman Carry and Falling Pancake Slam but seperately, not together.

Q: What's a good way to break out of a pin?

A: I just mash on A, B, and X since they're all lined up for my thumb to kick out of pins and submissions while pressing towards the ropes with the control stick.

Q: OK, how do you get off the friggin' mat. It'll be the beginning of the match, I'll get knocked down and just lie there. Ipress buttons and move the control stick and he just kind of twitches. I thought it might be my custom guy, because for starters I left his abilities at default. It's not just my custom guy, it seems like everyone takes forever to get up, but the computer always gets up faster than me. Even when I'm winning. Little help. I'm getting very frustrated.

A: Your copy must be pretty ****ed up! I suggest to go and return it as soon as possible.

Q: How many matches does it take to win each title?

A: 10 matches each.

Q: You rule Ryan Rider, you're the man, you're my best friend(swear i've gotten these!), etc.

A: Thanks people for your support!

5. Types of Matches

Exhibition:

-----

-Single Match: A normal one on one 3-Fall match. You can play against a human or computer player.

-Tag Team Match: Two versus Two(tag format).

-Tornado Match: Two against two again. In a Tornado match, both members of the Tag-team are in the ring at the same time; as there is no tagging.

-Triple Threat: Three human or computer players against each other.

-Fatal 4-Way: Same as Triple Threat but with four people.

-Battle Royal: A "last man standing" match. The last person not to be pinned out of four people wins.

-Handicap matches: Two or three against one! For very skilled players only.

-Royal Rumble: My personal favorite, you choose 30 Superstars with four in the ring at a time, with the best one winning this amazingly fun multi-player match.

-Hardcore Match: Anything goes; no weapons or holds are barred.

-Cage Match: The point of this match is to be the first person to escape the cage.

-Hell In A Cell: A normal match in a 16-Foot cell!

-Ladder/Table Matches: There names explains itself.

-TLC Match: Tables, A 20-Foot Ladder, and Chairs Match-up.

-Iron Man Match: The winner is the one with the most pinfalls, submissions, and disqualifications in your specified time limit.

13.Credits

-Thanks to you and all the rest of my fans(or enemies) for reading this FAQ!

-Thanks to DMorgan for being a great FAQ writer and mentor.

-Thanks to the WWF Wrestlemania X8 and WWF Games Social boards for your support throughout the FAQ.

-Thanks to my brother Sean "The Beast" Rider for letting me have extra time on the computer and GameCube to work on this FAQ. He rates the game a 9/10 by the way.

-Thanks to Jeff Veasly, Harlyn Jenkins, Steve Jenkins, and everybody else for making awesome sites!

-Thanks to thewwfman for giving me the 3D trick!

14.Conclusion

I hope this FAQ came in handy and you liked it! If you have any questions or comments or more information on WWF Raw(I will credit you), please feel free to e-mail me at kwfwrestling@hotmail.com.
