2. - Vehicle Settings

First off, you could go to Machine Select and select a different vehicle. All this option does is pretty much give your vehicle a different color scheme. If you go to the Setting option, you will be able to tune your car to your liking.

Steer            The three options here are Heavy, Middle, and Easy. I don't see a downside to the heavy so I suggest easy.

Wing            The options for the wing are angles of thirty, forty five, and sixty degrees. The higher the angle, the better steering you'll have but the lower speed you will have.

- Tire There are a couple of choices on this one. You have B Hard, C Soft, and Q. The soft tires give you the best grip but the Hard tires give you the best durability. Q tires are right in the middle. There's also a similar set for Rain. You have to change the tires for the rain or you'll just slide around uncontrollably.
- Suspension The three options here are Soft, Normal, and Hard. The harder suspension gives you better steering. I don't see a downside so I suggest getting the harder suspension.
- Brakes There are only two options, normal and powerful. Powerful may sound better but it could be overkill.
- Gear There are a few options here, Low, S Low, S High, and High. The higher the gear, the lower your acceleration will be, but the higher your top speed will be.
- Transmission There are three options here, automatic, manual 1, and manual 2. I'm not sure what the difference is between one and two but obviously you have to shift yourself in manual transmission.
- Pit Work There are only two options here and they are auto and self. If it is auto, you will go into a pit stop and the computer will figure out what to do. If it's self, you set up the pit stop yourself.

Track Name - Latin

Distance - 4.325km

Description - You will start on a decent size straightaway until you reach a light left. After a couple of seconds, it will straighten out and go straight up again. You will quickly reach a right followed immediately by a left. After a little bit, it will straighten up again. Now you will be on a pretty long straight until you reach a right. It'll get a littler sharper in the middle of the turn and then immediately cut to the left. It will straighten out for a little bit and then go left again. It will straighten out for a little bit and then quickly turn right until you reach another long straight. You will then reach a very sharp left turn. It slowly straightens out and then cuts right. You'll reach a short straight and then make a light left. You'll then reach a light left followed by an immediate right. There will be another short straight followed by a light right. There will be another very sharp right and it'll quickly cut to the left for a long light turn. Reach the next straight for another left turn. Just drive down the backstretch to the finish line from here.

Track Name - Riom

Description - Go straight for a bit and you will make a long light left turn. once you go straight again, you'll quickly reach another left. At the end of this left turn is an immediate right turn. After a longer straight, you will reach a very sharp left turn which quickly turns right. It's basically a ninety degree left turn and a hairpin turn to the right. You will quickly reach a right turn followed by a quick left until the next straight. You will make a slight right followed by another slight right that will immediately turn left. After another straight is a long left turn. Stick to

Track Name - Budapest

Distance - 3.968km

Description - Go straight on this long stretch and make a slight left. The road will immediately turn to the right. After it straightens out, you will make a very sharp right turn followed by a quick left. After that road straightens, you will reach another sharp right turn. It will quickly straighten out from here. There's a decent sized straight and you will reach a quick left. It will eventually shift to a slight right. After a quick straight, you will reach a very sharp right turn. It will quickly straighten out for another straightaway. At the end of this straight, you will reach a slight left turn. From here, it will alternate from a quick right to a quick left to another quick right. There will be another right followed by a long straight. At the end, you will reach a hard right turn followed immediately by a quick left. After it straightens out, it will shift to the left again. You will reach one more right turn and then race for the finish line.

Track Name - Texas

Distance - 3.710km

Description - Go straight for a while and you will reach a light right turn. After another rather short straight, you'll make a light left turn. After another straight, you'll make another light right. Again, another short straight and then a light left. Now you will finally reach a sharp left followed by a light left. There will then be a light right turn followed by a decent sized straight. You will make a light left and then reach a long straight. After a while, you'll reach a quick right followed immediately by a quick left. There will be some quick alternating turns, left, right, left, right, right, left, and another left until the end. They will all come pretty much right after each other so pay attention. After you clear the last light turn, just gas it to the finish line.

Track Name - Modena
