INTRODUCTION

WG02

Dun dun dun....Western games eh? They are one of my favorites. Anyways, I'm your FAQer of the Day, and the name is Matt Ludwig or mslpanthers (man that line is getting old) This game currently only had an in depth FAQ and no complete FAQs, so I figured I would come in here and change that for the NES FAQ Completion's sake. Seriously though, we are on a mission to take down all the games that currently do not have FAQs/Guides. So anyways, here we go.

CONTROLS

This game uses the light gun, I repeat THIS GAME USES THE LIGHT GUN. So now that I got that out the way (btw, this game uses the light gun), we can do the controls. There is only one button that will work on a NES controller.

Start (On The NES Controller): This will of course pause the game so you can do whatever you need to do. Also this button sometimes tends to freeze up the game in a way.

Trigger (On the Light Gun): This one is pretty self explanatory. Just plug this one up into the controller slot and pull the trigger to fire onto the screen. Aim for whatever your shooting at, and the gun shoot hit it, but I really do not see how this works out.

HOW THIS GAME WORKS

The whole basis to this game is really simple. You choose what kind of fight you want:

Game A: This will be against one outlaw. So there will be one on the screen. This is the most normal and easiet game

Game B: This is getting a little bit tougher here. There will be two outlaws on the screen, ready to fire at you.

Game C: Oh man! A gang of outlaws, well, it's only three. This is the hardest difficulty in the game and you will need to practice to get this gang out.

Anyways, your mission is to shoot the outlaw or outlaws when they say fire. So heres how it will go, we are going to choose game A. Now the game will play some real original western music and then the outlaw will walk out and then turn toward you when he gets in the middle. He will stare at you and when he says fire, you have a few seconds to shoot him before he shoots you.

Now your mission is to conquer all the outlaws very quickly to gain a lot of points and get the best time. If you are to slow though, your going to get shot and put back to the main menu screen. Very simple concept huh? Anyways, there are no special bonuses or anything like that in this game and there is nothing more than what you see.

CHARACTERS

Brown Hatted and Bearded guy: This guy is the slowest shooter in the game. He is the biginning battler and very easy to beat.

Green Hatted: This guy is a little bit tougher but nothing you can't defeat.

Red Hatted: This guy will take you a couple trys to beat since his hands are very swift.

Fat Guy (Boss): The final guy. This guy, well you will have to get good at this game to defeat him since he is extremely fast at shooting the gun.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: I bought this game and I am trying to push A to shoot but nothing is happening on my NES controller that I am not supposed to use _-.

A: Read The FAQ, honestly. It even says this on the game box and in the manual, you must use a light gun that you buy somewhere, so you can shoot these people.

Q: I beat all the modes, why am I not unlocking anything or getting a finishing message?

A: Sadly, this game does not contain any bonuses or nothing cool like that. So don't be looking forward to it. Actually this game has no point to it really.

Q: Freaken I got like an awesome score, will you post it in your FAQ.

A: Send me a good quality picture of it to prove it, and of course I gladly will ^_^.

Q: Where can I buy a light gun?

A: Pawn Shop, Gamestop, EBGames, and Ebay(thats where I found mine)
