I. Val Venis's Bio

He was young. He needed the money. Plus, he got to make out with really hot chicks all day and get paid for it. But Val Venis is not into that lifestyle anymore. The one-time adult film star has dropped his moonlighting gig and decided to concentrate on his more important career-the World Wrestling Federation.

Val ran into some tough times after going full time in the WWF, though. He thought he made a smart decision by enlisting the mental services of someone guaranteeing him a shot at gold under her leadership. The only problem with that setup was that he signed on with Trish Stratus, who, in case you are living in the boiler room, is the hottest piece since...well, probably ever! In addition, although Val may have given up "performing" for money, he did not give up his manhood. Therefore, in only a matter of weeks, Val and Trish had mixed business with pleasure, and we know that never works out in the end.

Divorcing himself from Trish and her T&A (get your mind out of the gutter, I am talking about Test and Albert), Val is set to attain success on his own. A skilled athlete who has one of the more impressive physiques in the industry, the biggest question concerning Venis may be when, not if, he will add World Wrestling Federation Champion to his already impressive resume.
