already present in the guide. If it is not present in the guide and is not for a week after your contribution please contact me (refer to Contacting Me section).

2. This guide is not the correct guide for this game.

Answer: This has happened before, I had submitted a guide I wrote for the previous version of the game (e.g. a guide I wrote for Dragon Slayer 1 or 2 was submitted for Dragon Slayer Gaiden). If you find this to be the case for this guide then please contact me (refer to Contacting Me section).

3. I submitted some information and you have used it as your OWN information without saying I was the one that submitted it.

Answer: There are two possibilities here. Either I had already added it to the guide before I found your submission, or I had added your submission but forgotten to mark it as yours and credit it for you. Either way I am very sorry, as I should credit you for any submissions you provide and I will do so if you contact me (refer to Contacting Me section).

4. You have stolen my work. This is theft damnit!

Answer: I highly doubt I have stolen your work, but if I have please feel free to e-mail me saying so and send a copy of your work as proof that I have stolen off you. And if I reject your claim then you should request for my contribution to be removed to CJayC through the Support Ticket (I think).

5. I submitted some information before but now I want to remove it.

Answer: My answer to this varies, if the information you submitted was a small peice of information like a item location then I will most likely not remove your contribution. But if it is larger (e.g. a analysis of the game mechanics or RNG system) then I will most likely remove it due to your request.
