1. What's the point of this FAQ?

Figured, if you want to know what you're missing in the Gallery Mode or what songs you have left ot unlock, other miscellaneous questions you may ask about the game. The rest of it is pretty much standard. If you own this game, you should pretty much understand how DDR works at this point.

2. Unlocking songs
-----

After about completing about 5 songs, you unlock a new song or a new mode. You can NOT fail the songs, and long version songs DO NOT count as 2 songs if "EVENT MODE" is on unfortunately (but it will if it's off).

You will get a RANDOM picture as you "beat" the game.

Each page is divided into genres.

You can make any of the pictures into your background for when you play by hitting select. Selecting multiple pictures will randomize the background per song.

Some pictures require save data from previous DDRs, these include:

4. Other unlockables and codes
-----

Well, DDR doesn't have much of "codes" but here are a few things.

-Clear a certain amount of songs, about 75 songs, you'll unlock Naoki (A side) and N.M.R. (B side) for playable characters.

-Clear a certain amount of songs, about 100 songs, you'll unlock U1 (A side) and 2MB (B side)

The original set up of the songlist is in order of DIFFICULTY, mainly how hard the BASIC difficulty is. Pressing start during the song selection screen will change the order of the songlist.

-First time alphabetizes them, press O over any letter, it will bring down a list of songs that start with that letter. Some letter have no songs that start with it.

-Second time will arrange them by the BPMs, Sana Mollete Ne Ente is the slowest, INSERTiON is the fastest (at one point, it hits 220 BPM).

-Third time will arrange the songs by "the players' best." In other words, the song played the best, I believe in terms of Perfect % ratio.

-Fourth time will arrange the songlist in the original arrangement.

Pressing select during the song selection screen will drop down a "sequence option" menu.

-Little removes all "offbeat" arrows.

-Flat changes all "offbeat" arrows to the same color.

-Left changes all arrow orientation so you'll be facing left.

-Right changes all arrow orientation so you'll be facing right.

-Mirror flips the arrows around so you'll be facing away from the screen.

-Shuffle changes the arrows around to different directions.

-Hidden makes the arrows disappear about halfway up the screen.

-Sudden makes the arrows appear about halfway up the screen.

-Stealth makes the arrows disappear altogether.

5. Frequently Asked Questions (Or questions you might ask...or maybe not)
-----

Q. What's this with no intro? Is there a way to turn it on?

A. No.

Q. CAN I PLAY ALL THE SONGS FROM THE OLD DDR IN THIS MIX? IS THERE A WAY TO UNLOCK THE OLD SONGS ON 5TH MIX PSX? HOW DO I PLAY *your song here* IN THIS VERSION? I REALLY WANNA PLAY IT SOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO BAD!!! HELP ME!

A. NO. NO. NO. AND TOO BAD. KONAMI HAS NEVER EVER MADE AN "ARCADE PERFECT" PSX TRANSLATION SINCE 1ST MIX. IT'S NOT THERE. THE OLD SONGS WILL NEVER BE THERE. GO BUY THE OLDER MIXES IF YOU WANT TO PLAY THEM. LIVE WITH IT.

Q. How come I can't choose a long version as my first song?

A. If you have a standard 3-5 song setup, the Long versions will not appear until after your first song, and before your last song.

Q. How come I got one less song after I played a long version song???
What a rip!

A. Long versions take up 2 SONG SLOTS. It acts as two songs in one.

Q. That sucks.

A. So then don't play them, or turn EVENT MODE on in the options.

Q. What are those little green/yellow icons next to some of the songs titles?

A. They mark out the easiest songs in case beginners can't figure out what those little foot things mean.

*Thanks again to Mog Knight for pointing this out*

Q. I noticed that the "dissipation" animation for when I hit the arrows sometimes change to a colorful star?

A. Usually then you hit an arrow, the arrows will "dissipate" into a different color arrow, depending on what your rating was for that step (i.e. Dissipates to yellow if you hit a Perfect!, Green for Great, and doesn't dissipate for any other rating lower than Great). But when you hit a 100 combo, the arrow dissipates into a different star shape color with every step you hit.

Q. The arrows and the animation is SO smooth!

A. Animations should be. But the arrows aren't. Unlike the arcade, the arrows are still at 30 fps.

Q. Can I use link data with my memory card on the arcade machine?

A. Yes. 4th/Extra Mix for PSX allow "Link data" to be saved on your PSX memory card, PROVIDED THE ARCADE CABINET HAS A MEMORY CARD SLOT MECH. You can find these above the coin door. If it's not there, then your arcade cabinet doesn't have one (it costs about $200 to get one installed). Also, the "NEW DDR LINK" option in LINK DATA allow you to use your memory card link data for 6th Mix.

Q. How do I use EDIT DATA from my memory card for a song that I have EDIT STEPS for?

A. In the song selection screen, go to the corresponding song that you have the edit steps for. Hit X twice, it will show you what EDIT DATA is available for the song. Hit up or down to select YOUR EDIT DATA, and hit O. If it's not there, then the memory card doesn't have the data.

*Thanks to MogKnight correcting me*

Q. Under "DATA BANK", who's edit data are these? Are these official?

A. When 5th Mix was released in the arcade, Konami decided to hold a little "SUBMIT YOUR BEST EDIT DATA TO KONAMI TO BE PUBLISHED IN 5th MIX PSX!" And that's roughly how many people submitted them. AND about 1000 of them were "great" steps.

Q. What's "The SubS Mix" mean?

A. The "SubStream" Mix.

Q. What's the deal with BabyLon?

A. Who knows? Cuteness factor I guess.

Q. Is there a SOLO mode/option for 5th Mix?

A. No SOLO steps or game was made for 5th Mix.

Q. Do I have to have my feet on the arrow when a STOP occurs?

A. No. They are not "Freeze Arrows" (a la 6th Mix).

Q. Why do some songs have a stupid difficulty?

A. Because they're "Trial" songs or "preview" songs taken from songs in 6th Mix. Yes, that means Nori Nori Nori and The Centre of the Heart will both be there on 6th Mix.

Q. How come some songs on 5th Mix PSX aren't in the arcade?

A. Because Konami wanted to make some "original" songs for PSX exclusive, and the result was 5 preview songs. Just like in 4th/Extra Mix PSX.

Q. Who is Naoki/N.M.R./U-1/2MB?

A. The sound producers for Konami.

Q. Why have I never seen U-1 and 2MB in the arcades?

A. They're new in the PSX version only.

Q. What's the point of the characters?

A. None really. Supposedly they affect the way the arrows are "shuffled" in Shuffle mode, and the order of songs sometimes. Aside from that, I don't know.

Q. WTF is Britney Spears doing in DDR?

A. It's only a remix. Just like 70% of the Dancemania songs in DDR. It's not even Britney singing, and it's already been licensed to Toshiba Emi.

Q. Are the long versions the FULL version of the songs?

A. No. They're shortened a bit in fact (i.e. Hot Limit has 30 seconds chopped off from the full version).

Q. Where's Endless?

A. Not there. Kaput. Gone.

Q. Your FAQ sucks. I can make a better one.

A. Great. Then go make a better one.
