Jenova/Sephiroth FAQ 1.75 (!!)

Author: Rairi Fujin aka Riley McCoy

My Fav. Quote: "That woman dersevres her revenge." Budd from KillBill

OR : "For Brutus, as you know, was Caesar's angel. Judge, O gods, how dearly Caesar loved him! This was the most unkindest cut of all; for when the noble Caesar saw him stab, Ingratitude, which was more strong than that of the traitor's arms, quite vanquished him." Mark Antony

One More : "Kid Cloud: Tifa always used to be with this three-some.

Tifa: ...That's right.

Kid Cloud: I used to think... they were all stupid.

Tifa: What!?

Kid Cloud: You were all childish, laughing at every little stupid thing.

Tifa: But we were children, back then.

Kid Cloud: ...I know. I'm the one that was stupid. I really wanted to play with everyone, but I was never allowed into the group. Then later... I began to think I was different... That I was different from those immature kids. That then... maybe..."

--Version history--

.001: 9/6/05: Began writing 1st draft of guide.

.750: 9/11/05: Patriot day. Began adding Time and date to the end of each section. I don't know why. I have to write it for each of the previous sections I have already completed. It looks weird having the later date on the earlier section. I have almost completed the white meat of the guide.

1.00: 9/11/05: Later that night...at exactly 3:10 AM...I finished. I'm done. First draft complete. I still need help in the FACTS section, and the Sephiroth=Jenova theory, though I'm ready to turn this baby in. WOW....

1.50: 9/15/2005 3:23:26 PM: Have changed things around a little, removed that weird looking date thing. Cannot have that anymore. Changed lay-out a little. Hope this makes the Guide a little more easier. Also re-named it "Jenova/Sephiroth Faq" to make the overall theme of the guide more clear. Also added quotation marks for all dialouge I use in the game. Added a in-depth look at FAQ #1, as my explanation was a little weak. Also added another fact to the FACTS section. I hope to add more sephiroth info at a latter update. Added an ASCii to the guide. Kinda big though.... Pretty big update eh?

1.61: 9/15/2005 9:33:56 PM: I added "Boss Strategies", Though it is just the Jenova battles. The Sephiroth battles will take a little more time. Added a FAV. quote section to the top of the guide, to give it a more polished look. I didn't think it looked right with just my name. Also, changed my name to Mime's Cup, as that is now my internet name. I still use Geostigma7@hotmail for emails and getting a-hold of.

1.75:9/18/2005 12:58:12 AM: Added a timeline section. This should help cut down on the overall confusion, or out-of-place-ness of the guide. Still not a very good one, but it gets the job done. Also added ten more trivia questions, and made my "How'd you do?" Section less harsh on newbies. Also added another Question...for the FAQ section.

--Introduction--

Hello, my name's Rairi-Fujin aka Riley McCoy. Rairi is japanese for Riley, and I just like Fujin. I have decided to compose this guide as a source to help frustrated gamers who have played FF7, and have gotten confused in the process. This is not meant to reflect my theories on FF7, Jenova or Sephiroth. This is just meant to help a confused gamer, and thus I present every piece of evidence, and I will try to bring an un-biased view. Though, you might be able to tell which theories I strongly believe in, and those I disagree with. This is not meant to reflect what is right and wrong. I simply present the evidence and you make the decision. Don't be fooled into thinking this is just a convoluted theorem for discussion. NEGATIVE! This is also a fun FAQ or guide meant to inform you on all things Jenova. When reading this, have an open mind, will to learn, and of course, FUN.

+Chapter 1: Origin++

Part 1: Overview--

Hello, Let us begin this course in Jenova. I will attempt to educate you in the many theories of Jenova. This is of course a learning process for me, as this is my first FAQ. I will attempt to "Organize" my knowledge, and help you in the process.

To begin, Jenova quite simply is an alien. No doubt in my mind, nor anybody else's. The fact is, She (as "IT" will be called from here on out, even though it has multiple genders) arrived on a meteor from outer space. Another galaxy perhaps? Or maybe from a neighboring planet. The fact of where she comes from is irrelevant. All that matters is she landed on 'Earth' (as that is what FF7's world is going to be called, I don't prefer to call it "Gaia" as some FF vets do).

Iflana: ...I can't explain it very well, but it's like having a conversation with the Planet....It said something fell from the sky making a large wound. Thousands of Cetra pulled together, trying to heal the Planet...But, due to severity of the wound, it was only able to heal itself, over many years.

Another quote if you will. This providing us our first instance of Jenova directly.

Iflana: That's when the one who injured the Planet... or the 'crisis from the sky' as we call him, came. He first approached us as a friend, deceived them, and finally.... Gave them the virus. The Cetra were attacked by the virus and went mad...transforming into monsters. Then, just as he had at the Knowlespole. He approached other Cetra clans....infecting them...with the virus.

So This is the first evidence we have of Jenova being male. Notice the male pronoun in the quote? It says "he". Now Jenova, of course, has a set of breasts in the chamber at Shinra HQ. And during most battles during the game. In fact, Jenova is female during all of the game. Now one could very well say that it is another, of the many, of mis-translations. Need I remind you of "This guy are sick."? I think not...

Why Jenova came to earth is an impossible question to answer logically. We can of course guess, and this is not the document for guesses. The important question is, what did she do while she was on earth. That question is easier to answer logically. Jenova wanted to kill. We need not no more than that. She attempted to kill of the Cetra, who at that time, where the only race of Man alive. Probably the only semi-intelligent lifeform was the Cetra. Another important question is, what happened to Jenova. Did she fail? Did she succeed? No, she failed. She could not destroy the Cetra. The Cetra confined her. Infact, the planet felt Jenova such a threat that WEAPON was created for the sole purpose of killing Jenova:

Iflana: Yes, but...there is no record of Weapon ever being used. A small number of the surviving Cetra defeated Jenova, and confined it. The planet produced Weapon...But it was no longer necessary to use it.

So it was of course the Cetra who defeated Jenova. But...you cannot destroy Jenova. This would explain why you cannot kill Jenova, just contain her. Think of Jenova like CELL in Dragon Ball Z. When one of it's limbs are destroyed, or even a cell, it reproduces it. This would explain why the Cetra were unable to defeat Jenova, or vanquish her.

Hojo: "You see, even if Jenova's body is dismembered, it will eventually become one again. That's what is meant by Jenova's Reunion to start. Five years have passed, and now the Clones have began to return. I thought the Clones would begin to gather at Midgar where Jenova is stored. But my predictions were not entirely correct. Jenova itself began to move away from the Shinra Building. But being a genius that I am, I soon figured it out."

That was a tad bit premature, I'm sorry. But I cannot stress how important Jenova's cells are to this game. They are what make Cloud become a puppet, and allow her body to recollect itself.

Now, some Weapons manufacturer going by the name of 'Shinra' comes and produces Mako energy. As we all know, they gain money and power and eventually end up controlling most of Earth. In an effort to gain power against other nations, attempts to use the power of the Ancients. Thus they begin the JENOVA PROJECT, in an effort to create begins with the power of the Ancients(Cetra). Thousands of years have passed, and people have forgotten the way's of the Cetra. Abandoned, The Cetra died out. All but two..

Well, one. This one spawns another. So, in actuality, there is two. Now, Professor Gast, a head Shinra scientist, uncovers Jenova In a 2000 year old Geological stratum. He mistakes Jenova for an ancient. Gast, Begins collecting Data on Jenova. It is not known how long this goes on. The JENOVA project is started. The goal of this project is to create super soldiers. Using Jenova, who is mistaking for an Ancient, Shinra will create these SOLDIERS.

NOTE: IT IS not known whether or not Gast knew this. Until Hojo comes into the picture that is. Hojo most obviously knew of these plans to create super soldiers.

Gast(maybe unknowingly), Hojo, Lucercia and Vincent are sent to Nibelheim where Jenova is located. Shinra approves the Mt. Nibel Reactor for use in the experiments. Vincent falls in love with Lucercia, but she is in love with Hojo. Vincent eventually gives up, saying if she is happy, he is happy. Hojo, after failing to create the SOLDIERS with live humans, takes his unborn son and injects him with JENOVA cells directly. Lucercia, the mother of this child, dies during childbirth. Now begins an intense confrontation between Vincent, the turk sent as 'muscle', and Hojo.

Hojo kills Vincent after the confrontation, and begins experimenting on him. Sephiroth, the Unborn child's name, is taken to Midgar(the capitol city of Shinra) for further study. Gast at this point must know things are spiraling out of his control. He leaves for good, and Hojo takes up as head scientist. Gast travels the world, eventually meeting bugenhagen, and reaching the Northern Continent. This is were he will meet Iflana, and conceive a child named Aerith.....

Sephiroth Continues to Exceed in SOLDIER program, becoming a Legendary hero at a young age. Outclassing his peers, he is becoming more or less a robot. Hojo continues to monitor things in Nibelhiem and in Midgar. Sephiroth is never told of his real heritage, and believes his mother to be JENOVA.

Now Im going to use very basic info here, just of what we see in the game. This does not mean this is correct, just the basic over-view of the plot.

Sephiroth, now a Legendary Soldier, is on a mission to fix and/or kill the monsters it is producing. He is accompanied by a first-class Soldier named Zack, and two Shinra MP's(one being Cloud).

The reactor is in the mountains of Nibel, and they will be staying in Cloud's hometown of Nibelhiem. Tifa, an old friend of Cloud's, is their guide into the mountains. Cloud, ashamed he is not a full fledged Soldier, hides in his mask. Sephiroth, while inside of the reactor, learns of Jenova being stored there. He begins to question his existance as a human being. He begins going mad. Later that night, he hides himself in the Shinra Mansion, where ironically, that is where the Jenova Experiments took place. He reads all the reports, and learns(Falsly) his mother, Jenova, was a Cetra. Now hating human kind, for their abandonment of the Cetra(who he believes he is due to his heritage of Jenova) Sephiroth decides to take Earth back for the Cetra. He burns down Cloud's hometow, and proceeds into the reactor to free his 'mother'.

Zack, the other Soldier, is unable to subdue Sephiroth. Cloud, in a state of adrenenline, is able to successfully kill Sephiroth. Sephiroth attempted to stab Cloud(And did), but Cloud, with the masamune inside of hime, uses Sephy's own sword to fling Sephiroth over the edge, into a mako pit. Thus ends the backstory.

Part 2: Timeline--

I decided to put this timeline up to give people a more indepth version of Jenova's origins. Or if you will, a more organized method of telling facts. I have used common logic in putting this together. Though, thanks go to steele for helping me. Go to "www.ff7-universe.com" for more info.

-Anytime over 2000 years ago: The Cetra begin settling the planet. They are searching for the promised land. They migrate, settle, and move on untill they find the promised land of supreme happiness.

->2000 years ago: A meteor strikes earth. There is a beign on this meteor, who deceives the Cetra by pretending to be one of their brothers. He then proceeds to inflict them with a Virus that turns the Cetra into monsters. Some Cetra begin to hide, and thus starts the human race. Earth devolpes WEAPON to defeat This being, now known as Jenova. Though, it is not needed, as a small remaining group of Cetra manage to confine Jenova. Though, not defeat it.

-2000 years till Start of Game (SoG): The Cetra slowly die out. Not know as to why, perhaps lack of faith...as humans use technology more and more, or Jenova whiped out most of them. The fact is, when the game starts...only one true Cetra remains...Aerith.

-29 through 23 years ago: Proffesor Gast Finds Jenova inside of a geological stratum. In quistive, he begins experimenting on Jenova, Falsly believing her to be a surviving Ancient (Cetra). The Jenova Project begins, as an aim to devolpe Soldiers with the power of the Ancients. Hojo, Gast, Vincent and Lucrecia are sent to experiment on the project. Gast of course leaves after learning Jenova is not an ancient, or after Hojo is preforming experiments on live humans, or possibly after Lucrecia is injected with J-cells. Hojo, then takes full charge of the experiment (which Is why I assume Gast leaves after learning that Jenova is not an ancient...He wouldn't let Hojo preform such atrocities...but the game script screws me over...He doesn't know Jenova isn't an ancient till after Iflana tells him. This is of course, after he leaves Shinra).

-Sometime After this: Sephiroth is born, and taken to Midgar for futher study. He then exhibits incredible qualities as a Soldier...

-27 through 22 years ago: Soldier is started, possibly to cover up the Jenova project. This is when, Of course, Sephiroth begins to show incredible strength, becoming a Legend before the war is even over.

-5 years ago: Cloud, Zack and Sephiroth go to nibelheim to fix a faulty reactor. Cloud is ashamed of his failure to make Soldier, as he is just a shinra MP. Zack and Sephiroth are Soldiers however. Tifa, an old friend of Cloud's is the guide into the mountains, where the reactor is located. Sephiroth learns of the secrets that lie inside of the reactor, as this is where Jenova is being stored. He is driven insane, and burns the whole town down. Cloud, in a state of rage, kills sepiroth.

-About 5 years ago: Cloud is injected with Jenova cells. This causes him to go into a comatose, thus losing his former self. He escapes, with the help of Zack.

-Sometime prior to the game: Jenova is moved to the Shinra HQ.

That kinda sucked, but oh well. I tried. At least It will help as a refrence point.

Chapter 3:Theories+++

Part 1: Basic Theory-

Okay, why that extremely long explanation on pretty basic information? Simple. I wanted to make sure you understood the facts. The point is, that is all fact. No doubt in my mind. Now we must begin the basic theories and idea's that define the 'new age' of Jenova. The basic theory is...Sephiroth is NOT the villain of the video game, but it is Jenova who is. That is a huge statement.

Why would one say such a thing? Well, evidence suggest that Jenova plays a more major roll than it appears. The fact is, Sephiroth is not the one who lets Jenova out of the chamber in the Shinra HQ. In fact, Sephiroth is too busy being DEAD in the northern crater. Well, I won't say dead...but the fact is he was in the northern crater. Either Jenova is the one who lets herself out...or it was cloud. Another possible explanation...A soldier, as they have Jenova cells in them. And you will see later, Jenova can easily manipulate anybody with Jenova cells in them. One more, A black-robed-man. I don't know about this one, but it is general the same as they soldier theory. The basic point, Sephiroth could not have let her out, and cloud is also unlikely, though more so than Sephiroth. This provides us our first instance of Jenova manipulating.

Now Where is the next time we meet Sephiroth? Well, Rephrase that, the first time? On the Shinra boat of course! Here...Sephiroth appears to have forgotten, or not recognize Cloud.

???:After a long sleep... ..the time..... ..time has..... come...

Barret: Look, Cloud!

Cloud: Sephiroth! You're alive!

Sephiroth:Who are you?

Cloud: You don't remember me!? I'm Cloud!

Sephiroth: Cloud...

Cloud: Sephiroth! What are you thinking!? What are you doing!?

Sephiroth: ...the time..... is now....

Wow, you would think he would remember the guy who killed him. Don't forget the line "Just like you.". This, leads a lot of people to believe Sephiroth KNEW Cloud personally. Up to that point in the flashback, where he kills Sephiroth by throwing him over the edge of a bridge, Sephiroth is unaware of cloud except by asking him about his hometown. Now, Why would Sephiroth say to Cloud "Just like you." after getting stabbed by cloud? The answer is he must have known him personally, or learned a lot about him in a short amount of time. The latter is an assumption, while the first is pretty safe assessment. Now of course, Sephiroth tells cloud that little speech above..after not knowing him?

How could this be? 1) He is just using psychological attacks against Cloud (unlikely). 2) He honestly forgot who cloud was, as he was insignificant, thus making more of President Shinra's line "Excuse me. I can't be expected to remember everyone's name. Unless you become another Sephiroth." HA! that is a likely explanation right? 3) It is Jenova. Pure and simple. Not likely until you read this evidence.

We know Jenova can change forms...

Sephiroth: Cloud... Don't blame Tifa. The ability to change one's looks, voice, and words, is the power of Jenova. Inside of you, Jenova has merged with Tifa's memories, creating you. Out of Tifa's memory..... A boy named Cloud might've just been a part of them.

Now, I will not attempt to get into cloud and his whole bag of BS, but this line gives validation to the statement "Jenova can change forms". The fact is, Jenova is also used in male pre-text. Now how in the hell can Jenova be man and female. She must have some type of changing ability. Also, there is a line where Iflana mentions Jenova showing them Specters of their ancestors and She appeared as one of them, a brother. This would explain why the male pretext is used.

Iflana: That's when it appeared! It looked like...our dead mothers ...and our dead brothers. Showing us specters of their past.

Gast: Who is the person that appeared at the North Cave? I haven't any idea.

Iflana: That's when the one who injured the planet...or the 'Crisis from the sky' as we call him, came. He approached as a friend, deceived them, and finally...gave them the virus.

Hmmm? Evidence? HA! I think that'll do. So have we established Jenova can change forms, shape and impersonate people at will? Now is it so unreasonable that Jenova decided to use Sephiroth's guise as a means to further manipulate cloud. This would seem likely, as if you believe Sephiroth to be truly dead, she has no person to manipulate for her means.

NOTE: This is just Idea, just an idea, but what if Jenova's motive was to complete the destruction of this unlucky planet earth. She gets confined, and then decides to use, or manipulate, Sephiroth to get her out. This is unlikely, only because there is no proof of any such motive to escape. Other than common sense of course. She must hate being locked up and used for an experiment.

Now that we have proved a shape-shifting jenova, one must ask, why control Cloud? Sephiroth is dead. That is what I believe, and this is just my belief. No evidence, OTHER THAN CLOUD KILLS HIM! But, no evidence to say Sephiroth isn't so weak to just die. We do know that Lucercia wishes to die, but can't. This is due to her jenova inside of her, from the injection of Jenova during child birth. Though, if you believe Sephiroth dead, then it is easy, she needs the black materia. She needs it. She has a new plot, to become god!

Lucercia tells Vincent she wishe to die, but the Jenova cells inside of her wont let her. She says she knows sephiroth cannot physically die because of the Jenova he possess. I of course believe this to be true, as she is a Jenova expert, seeing as she was part of the 'Jenova Project'. But perhaps Sephiroth died mentally. Look at it this way, Sephiroth died. Cloud kills him. Yet Sephiroths body lives on. His body is infused with Jenova. A dismembered Jenova, seeing this open vessel(sephy's body) decides to use it. We never actually hear Sephiroth say, after the Nibelhiem Reactor incident, tell the party he is an Ancient. Infact, he only tells us he is better than the Ancients.

During FF8, Edea says many lines that sound out of whack. She is of course possessed by ultimecia, who is saying these things. She talks about things in a manner that is consistent with Ultimecia. Now is it so unreasonable that Jenova=Ultimecia and Sephiroth's Guise=Edea? Of course not! We have already discussed that jenova is Sephiroth...oh wait....more evidence you want?

Remember who takes our black materia? Right after we receive it? Sephiroth. Now how do we get it back? Right after the battle with jenova...Hmmm? Interesting. Now Jenova, acting as Sephiroth, is out of the black materia. But she is able to manipulate EVEN MORE PEOPLE(Barret, red xiii or cid) by changing into Tifa. Aha! Does Sephiroth ever, during any point in the story, not just the game, display any shape-shifting abilities? Negative! Who does though? Oh, a being named Jenova.....She impersonates Tifa, and takes back the materia. Is that enough to prove that at the very least, Jenova was acting as Sephiroth during most of the game. Doesn't that boat scene make a little more sense? What about the fact we fight a Jenova monster 2/3 of the times we see Sephiroth? HMMMMMMMMM?

During the final battle, Bizzaro that is, Sephiroth is obviously the enemy. But should you be inquisitive, you'll see that Jenova is atop Sephiroth with strings (or tentacles... You decide) attached to the massive Sephiroth form. One could infer this means one of two things, 1) Jenova is Sephiroth in this battle, or 2) She is controlling/manipulating Sephiroth. I tend to agree with the first instance. This would explain why Safer-Sephiroth is so deformed. Though, one could say, the latter instance also explains this. Jenova is merely 'lending' her power to Sephiroth. Although I will go into more detail as the Guide continues... as they say... that is a completely different bag of beans.

So that is it for basic theory. The fact is, and I hope I have articulated this correctly, Jenova CAN shape-shift, CAN morph, and WAS using Sephiroth as a disguise. That is now common knowledge to you. Next we move onto more "Wacky" stuff. Most of this is not even theory, unless you include the introduction to the theories as I have.

Part 2: The Sephiroth=Jenova--

A lot of people will agree with me if I say Sephiroth is merely another incarnation of Jenova. Simply put, Sephiroth IS Jenova. During the lifestream trip he takes after Cloud throws him into the Mako pit of the Nibelheim reactor, he states he has become more than the Cetra. Now one could infer that Sephiroth means he has become better than Jenova, and that Jenova now looks up to him. The clone (Cloud is clone of Sephiroth, which simply put means that Cloud underwent the same procedure and was experimented to have the same strength as Sephiroth; not literally a "Clone", Sephiroth in the same token is a Clone of Jenova, although Jenova never underwent procedure for her power) has become better than the original. Thus, one might infer that Sephiroth believes himself to be Jenova. Now Jenova is obviously alive, but this explains the instances in which we see Jenova as Sephiroth. You see? It is really simple to be honest. He is now controlling Jenova. He puts himself in Jenova's image, and thus uses her actual body to manipulate Cloud. Although... this does not explain why Sephiroth does not recognize Cloud. Interesting?

Part 3: The Puppet Master--

-A: Introduction

Ahh... The Puppet Master theory. This is almost more than theory now, as this is almost generally accepted by most people. This is the most famous concept other than the basic 'Take What The Game Gives you' idea. Although you can understand this theory at many message boards or forums, I am attempting a complete guide to everything Jenova. This MUST be included. This section on theory is almost a guide in itself. So, read carefully.

NOTE: This next 3 sections are almost identical to the basic theory section. Though, much more detail and accuracy will be attempted to be given. Just refer to the 'Basic Theory' section of the guide for any 'dumbed down' concepts of this.

-B: The Nature Of J-cells

No one really knows the nature of J-cells. Although we do have limited knowledge, we do know they increase strength when use properly. We do not, however, know how should someone use them properly. Only a few in the game show a considerable increase in strength, namely Sephiroth(although he never really had any beginning strength to compare his j-cell strength too), Cloud and Vincent. Vincent, though, cannot be considered because it is just an inference he was used in J-cell experiments, though it is likely that he underwent J-cell experiments. So this leaves us with only cloud, who was obviously strong enough to kill Sephiroth on his own. But he obviously shows an increase in strength due to J-cells. So this still leaves us with a murky view of J-cells. Cloud says...

Cloud: You see, someone in SOLDIER isn't simply exposed to Mako energy. Their bodies are actually injected with Jenova cells..... For better or worse, only the strong can enter SOLDIER. It has nothing to do with Jenova Reunion. But weak people..... like me, get lost in the whole thing.

So we can rule out member of Soldier being anything special. Although they probably would show a more extent measure of strength with J-cells in them. But we can still safely assume they were already strong enough to have little notice of any increase in strength. Cloud was weak, so when he was fully injected/or completed treatment of J-cells, he was extensively more strong than his former self. So what does this leave us with? Do J-cells have to injected into the body? The obvious answer is yes. And that is a good answer. Let us now review other questions you should ask yourself....

What is it that makes J-cells work? We see so many Nibelhiem residents lose their self being and become vegetables. Why is Cloud different? Is it his mental willpower? Wasn't he weak emotionally and mentally? Didn't he shell up and become socially unstable(HA!!lol)? Is it his lifestream sequence?

Why is it that Sephiroth/Jenova can control those with J-cells in them? Is it because of the Jenova Reunion theory, stating that Jenova will always attempt to return itself to its' original form...no matter how small the pieces. Why is it then we see no Soldiers at the northern crater? We see residents of Nibelhiem, why no 1st class members of Soldiers?

Why the ability to change forms? Why not doesn't Sephiroth/Jenova change into president Shinra or Rufus, to simply go and order someone to get the black materia? Then he can parade around...maybe he does, and that is why Rufus is chasing Sephiroth as well as cloud, though that is unlikely.

These are questions I cannot answer. I can say however, the J-cells make its host unstable for one reason, the introduction to an unknown substance is traumatic to the body. That is why only the strong can enter Soldier, they have to be able to withstand the pressure of these new cells in your body.

Vincent is strong, thus he can withstand them. Zack, and all of soldier are strong. Sephiroth was born with j-cells, thus he could of course withstand them as they grow along side his other cells in harmony. This is of course, common sense.

That is all I can say about the Nature of Jenova Cells.

-C: Motive?

Now why would I put such a lengthy explanation on the nature of J-cells? Not too simple, but there is a reason behind my methods. I wanted you to ask yourself questions, while I still provide answers to some of them. This section will mostly deal with the raw meat of the whole Jenova theory in general. J-cells seem to be a common bond between all characters, events and concepts in the game. It is important you understand 'the nature of j-cells'.

Motive, let us tackle that issue first. It is fact Jenova came and spread a virus to the Cetra, whipping all but a few out. Those few manage to defeat it. Common knowledge, as I have infact already quoted the game on this. One may assume that Jenova is a malevolent being, and thus does not need motive to whip out a race, or planet. Though I cannot provide an clear explanation as to why she came to earth in the first place, I can safely assume she wanted to destroy humanity. Whether it be Man or Cetra, she wanted them gone. This might be due to two reasons, revenge or a complete lack of time displacement as she was in stasis(Contained, which I would believe to be like cryogenic freeze)and when she was to come out of that freeze, she would still believe she was in the Cetra's time, 2000 years ago. She would still be trying to spread a virus for whatever(UNKOWN) reason in the first place. This could be a hint to a SPOILERperhaps this is the reason for Geostigma...just a theory.....
ENDSPOILER**

So she is either trying to continue what she started or taking revenge. The revenge sounds good, until we learn the only evidence is inferences. Although they do add up. The continuation of her plan in the first place is more likely as it gives a little more explanation to her forgetting/not recognizing Cloud. Her head is at the northern crater, thus is the place where the reunion takes place. She is using her body, the one trying to get back to the head, as a lead for Cloud to follow, right up to the northern crater and her.

Hojo: ...but the Jenova Reunion Theory has now been proven. You see, even if Jenova's body is dismembered, it will eventually become one again. That's what is meant by Jenova's Reunion to start. Five years have passed, and now the Clones have began to return. I thought the Clones would begin to gather at Midgar where Jenova is stored. But my predictions were not entirely correct. Jenova itself began to move away from the Shinra Building. But being a genius that I am, I soon figured it out....

Well, just incase you did not know. So, the body is instinctively trying to get back to the head, or the center piece. Jenova knows that, she also learns cloud is afraid/confused by Sephiroth. As the game progresses , she probably learns more about him. This would explain why she is able to control things later on. She is able to directly manipulate cloud instead of just making him follow her body. Although, why would she take Sephiroths form on the boat?

Maybe she looked at the surface of cloud, the only thing she could penetrate at the time. She would she one thing, "I have to settle the score". She would instantly know cloud was afraid of Sephiroth. I still cannot say this enough, the boat scene is the most puzzling scene in the game. NO MATTER WHAT YOU BELIEVE! It starts out innocent enough, then after one or two playthroughs, you understand the complexity of the scene...

Anyhow, back on track. You see, I have made reference to Ultimecia=edeia in ff8. So when Sephiroth says "I'm greater than the Ancients" because he traveled the lifestream and gained their knowledge (thus the black materia) I see that as Jenova saying "I'm better than them now!" or something to that effect. It is almost like Ultimecia saying to the people "you lowlives" or something. She is acting a rebel to them, because in her time she is hated. Now she is in control and they love her? To her this is insane! But to the gamer it is just Edea being evil, which she is not. It is Ultimecia. She finds it ironic that the people who hate her now love her. So she of course says her famous speech atop the podium in deling.

So the point is, Jenova is saying something to that effect. She is now acting a rebel to the Cetra. There are many of those quotes throughout the game, so I need not apply them. Perhaps now you're seeing it. Jenova most likely needed someone to get her out of her confines. We see it three times, although only twice count. The first time is of course the 2000 year old geological stratum...and Gast is our lucky man! Though, he does not count and you'll see why. #2 Is of course good ol', blinded to the truth, Sephiroth. He is manipulated into letting Jenova out of her chambers in the Nibelheim reactor. #3 is Cloud/Herself/Soldier/Black-robed-man. All of these people have J-cells in their system, so they are easily manipulated by her. This tends to make sense now doesn't it. It does not matter who, but how.

She manipulates the J-cell injectees in order to get be freed. Except Gast, as he had no J-cells. He merely stumbles upon her. Now, Cloud is merely the next Puppet in her play. Sephiroth, yes the mighty Sephiroth, was the first. Why the cryptic talk in the basement? He is obviously blinded by the truth. First by society (I.E Jenova being his mother) then by her (Taking this planet back FOR the Cetra).

Sephiroth: (reading a book) ...an organism that was apparently dead, was found in a 2000 year old geological stratum. Professor Gast named that organism, Jenova... X Year, X Month, X Day. Jenova confirmed to be an Ancient ...X Year, X Month, X Day. Jenova Project approved. The use of Mako Reactor I approved for use... My mother's name is Jenova... Jenova Project... Is this just a coincidence? Professor Gast... Why didn't you tell me anything? ...Why did you die?

More?

Sephiroth: You ignorant traitor. I'll tell you. This was a itinerant race. They would migrate in, settle the Planet, then move on... At the end of their harsh, hard journey, they would find the Promised Land and supreme happiness. But, those who stopped their migrations built shelters and elected to lead an easier life. They took that which the Cetra and the planet had made without giving back one whit in return! Those are your ancestors.

Hey, we're on a roll....

Sephiroth: Long ago, disaster struck this planet. Your ancestors escaped... They survived because they hid. The Planet was saved by sacrificing the Cetra. After that, your ancestors continued to increase. Now all that's left of the Cetra is in these reports.

OMG...WE ARE ON FIRE!!!

Sephiroth: Ha, ha, ha..... They've come again, mother. With her superior power, knowledge, and magic, Mother was destined to become the ruler of the Planet. But they... Those worthless creatures are stealing the Planet from Mother. But now I'm here with you so don't worry.

Okie dokie, one more...

Cloud: What about MY sadness!? My family... friends... The sadness of having my hometown taken away from me!? It's the same as your sadness!

Sephiroth: Ha, ha, ha... my sadness? What do I have to be sad about? I am the chosen one. I have been chosen to be the leader of this Planet. I have orders to take this planet back from you stupid people for the Cetra. What am I supposed to be sad about?

Hmmm...what the hell does all this mean you ask? Good questions. I don't know. It just sounds cool to put down in a FAQ/Guide. Just playing.

The purpose of this text is to show the confused Sephiroth. How does she confuse cloud? By showing him images and thoughts of Sephiroth/burning Nibelheim. Now this is due to Clouds inner emotions and fears. Sephiroth on the other hand, his inner fears must have been his family/life/birth.

This would tend to explain Jenova BIRTH/LIFE/DEATH. Though not quite. Back to the meaning of the text, she is confusing him...thus he is going to open her chambers and release her. He is the chosen one. He now believed he was an Ancient, and his mother one too. He now wants to get the planet back for the Ancients...and to do that he must release his mother.

Cloud though, with his emotions and rage, kills Sephiroth, her strongest puppet. Now she is screwed, though her head escapes. I'm not saying she needs to be complete to function or something, though that could be true. I'm just saying her body is still locked up.

Now remember the whole Jenova Reunion theory? Well her body does need to get back. She doesn't pick the strongest clone to carry out her plan, but more of an easily manipulated clone...Cloud. With his confused present, boxed up past and hatred towards Sephiroth, he is a prime candidate for her plan.

Her brain has formulated this plot after falling into the lifestream. She now needs someone to get the Cetra's precious black materia...Do I even need to give you examples of Clouds manipulation? Although one could easily say it is Sephiroth doing the controlling, Isn't it more likely the actual JENOVA being herself is controlling EVERY JENOVA CELL? Even after we take it back from jenova, she once against changes forms and takes it right back! Or rather, leads the person with it back to cloud, whom she is controlling just as she did Sephiroth 5 years ago...

-D: Conclusion

In general, this is the biggest part of the FAQ. I hope you understand everything I was trying to get across. This was no easy undertaking, and thus took a lot out of me. Sephiroth may still indeed be alive and in good mental shape. I forgot to include the final battles. Those can be summed up in merely saying...It is jenova tricking cloud. Sephiroth is his biggest fear. Herself obviously did not work. So she needs to use someone more menacing...HIM!

Part 4:Debunking--

*NOTE: In no way am I saying the following debunking is completely correct. I mean to include all the facts, and there happens to be a lot of contradictory statements through the game. I mean to include those.

Tra-La-La-La...where to begin! I type all that stuff out and now I believe it. Don't worry, the Jenova is one interpretation on the matter. I mean to provide them all. Though, I tend to agree more with a Jenova villain game...

For one, I could easily say that Cloud and Barret end up having gay sex. I mean, they go on a date, isn't that evidence enough? Cloud dresses up as a lady...hmmm? Their dialogue does seem pretty suggestive...though you would say I'm nuts to say such a thing(well, not everyone). And you'd be 100% right. There is no declaration they are gay. Now even if they did come out and say it, would we assume they had sex? No..but that would be a safe bet. That they would, should they declare it. But we never get such a declaration from Jenova. Not that she's gay, but she is the villain. One, she never comes out and says it. Two, she never says anything to the effect of "I'm going to destroy the world". Now wait, Jenova is Sephiroth...which I tend to agree with even as I'm typing this debunk. But no...this is like saying cloud is gay just because he dresses up as a lady...to save a friend. Since we only hear Sephiroth say he is going to destroy the world, and since we have to piece together clues in(still without game telling us) that jenova is Sephiroth, we can assume it is the same as the gay thing. Jenova or rather Sephiroth never says "Jenova is me" which that is = to cloud saying I'm gay. We can piece it together by using evidence, though the game never says it. Then we have to, after declaring that jenova is just posing as Sephiroth...even if to lure cloud into sephiroths hands, assume jenova is the real villain, with even less evidence than declaring jenova=sephiroth. This is the gay sex part of the cloud Barret analogy.

Using the reunion quote...Hojo says "You see it was all Sephiroth's doing. Sephiroth is not just content to diffuse his will into the Lifestream; he wants to manipulate the Clones itself."

hmmm? Now wait a minute? I thought Jenova was at the end of the tunnel? And once again you'd be right. But it seems Sephiroth is using the whole jenova reunion to get the black materia to HIM! MWA-HAHAHAHAHA

Hojo: Did you see it!! It's Sephiroth! So he IS here! This is perfect! Both Jenova's Reunion and Sephiroth's will! They won't be diffused into the Lifestream, but gathered here! Mwa, haa, ha,.....

LOL...Jenova, Sephiroth is using Jenova's head to lure all the other clones back into his part of the woods and thus, is of course getting the black materia. This is almost the same theory as before, just with Sephiroth at the end of the tunnel. You see, he believes jenova to be using the reunion for her purposes...though it seems more likely that it is infact Sephiroth using his mother to get it all, and perhaps he doesn't want her to become whole again...another theory for another day.

He is using her body, to lure cloud, to him, with the black materia, so he can summon meteor and destroy the world and become god! Simple enough...sheesh.....

I ADMIT, I WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO PROVE JENOVA IS THE VILLAIN OF THE GAME

UNLESS AC PROVIDES NEW EVIDENCE, AND THAT SEEMS UNLIKELY. YOU SEE, IF THE GAME NEVER ACTUALLY OFFICALLY STATES IT, IT IS JUST A THEORY.**

Part 5: Wacky theories--

"By JT

There has been all this talk about the main villian. Sephiroth... Jenova... who is who? Well, I just came up with this while talking with a friend. If Jenova was really in charge, wouldn't she influence Sephiroth BEFORE he got there? The answer is yes. There are other things that could prove she isn't in control. Just read the Sephiroth Villian Theory on the site. But there are also things supporting the "Sephiroth is controlled" theory. Him acting possessed. Attitude change, practically overnight. That stuff. So my conclusion? Sephiroth shut himself up in the Library in Nibelheim and told everyone to leave him alone. But he was not alone. There was someone else down here, in that library. Someone pulling the strings. A certain dark party member can be found in that area. Who is it? VINCENT. Vincent is there. For all we know, Vincent could've been influencing Sephiroth. He had access to the library and perhaps planted the books there, knowing Sephiroth would find them. Why would he bother? He knew Lucrecia, Sephiroth's REAL mother, and he knew Sephiroth was strong, or would be strong. Why not use Sephiroth as a pawn of his own evil scheme? He would be easy to manipulate after being put through emotional hell discovering his past. All it would take would be a few of his own planted books, or maybe a word or two with Sephiroth. Vincent doesn't age. Could it be that those Hojo experiment things were lies, and he was immortal from the get go? Maybe he was there when Jenova landed. Maybe he bent her/its influence then and there. He joins the party after Sephiroth leaves the mansion. Perhaps to follow his pawn? He is freaked out each time you mention Sephiroth to him. HE is the real villian! Think about it. It might be true...

--Jt"

My Resonse: This is ludicrous. Though, Magus was once the villain of Chrono Trigger, and then joins the party. Though, that game delt with time travel, FF7 dosen't. There is no evidence to suggest that Vincent ever left theroom. he was in It was locked. The player needs to find the key. Though, we don't know if it was locked from the inside. But one can safely assume such a claim. Even so, one must ask if it was Vincent or Hojo who put Vincent in that room. So, anythoughts on this? Also, the dialouge in the game suggest that vincent was completely good.

From Annoymous: Cloud is Zacks "Biological" brother:
Cloud has to be Zacks Biological brother. I mean, They look exactly the same, save their hair color. They carry the same sword, wear the same outfit, and act the same. Plus, they look exactly alike.

My response: This is absurd. Completely. I don't know what to say. For one, we know who Cloud's mother is. We see her during the nibelhiem flashback. Now remember the Gongaga scene? Zack's parents are there. So of course, this cannot be true based soley on that evidence. Need I mention Cloud's BS back-story? I think not.

From DarkStarRdp: Cait Sith= jenova.

Well, I don't have the exact text he used when he told me this, but I still know the basic idea behind the theory. He states that Jenova is posing also as Cait Sith to lure the party across the continent. Notice how it is impossible to continue the game IF you don't recruit Cait Sith? Also, we are never told that Cait Sith is Reeve. And, well, marlenes voice? Jenova impersonating it. Like the Terminator....

My Response: Completly crazy. Notice how we cannot proceed in the game without recruiting Nanaki? Well, of course...It is reeve. I just don't really know what to say about this theory. Must be a joke(It was).

IMPORTANT....SEND ME ANY THEORIES YOU HAVE. I WILL LIST THEM ANNOYMOUSLY TO AVIOUD EMBARRASMENT. Email me at Geostigma7@Hotmail.com...or Geostigma7@aol.com

++Chapter 3: Boss Strategies++

Though, I don't think anybody reading this needs a boss strategy(mainly due to the fact that if you are reading this, you have beat the game. So it is pointless to read this. But I suppose some people will look at this for the purpose of beating jenova.) I still have put this up, as this is a guide for Sephiroth/Jenova. So, You need to beat them.

-JENOVA-BIRTH-

Lvl: 25 HP: 4000 MP: 110

Well, pretty easy I think. Wacth out for it's laser attack. You should have around 1000 HP by now, but it does 200 damage, and frequently attacks twice in a row with this attack. So if you are at around 700, be careful. It also uses stop. Though, the effect wears off after about 6 turns. If you got 'Flame Thrower' Enemy Skill back at the mithril Cavern....this should be easy. Althoug Jenova is not weak agaisnt Fire, It still does considerable damage to her. Attack strong physically with cloud, use Aerith to heal...and Yuffie to summon and be more balanced. You recieve 600 exp and 64 AP for this fight.

-JENOVA-LIFE-

LVL: 50 HP: 10000 MP: 300

Well, what can I say. If you equip the 'water ring' you should have found during the trip here...this battle is a piece of cake. There is no way you can lose. All of Jenova-life's attacks are water-element based. So, you should win.

I guess, If I have too, I will post a Non-Water ring strategy later....
You recieve 4000 exp and 350 ap for this fight.

-JENOVA-DEATH-

LVL: 55 HP: 25000 MP: 800

Pretty tough fight. She uses stop as always. If you have a 'Fire Ring' equiped, you should do well. Though, this is diffrent than that of the Life battle. She has non-elemental attacks. She is much quicker, so you should cast haste, barrier and regen quickly. If you lack regen, use barrier then haste. Trust me. Barrier espically on the person with the Fire Ring, so that he takes less of a blow when she hits him. Haste to counter-effect her speed.

summon that nifty Neo-bahumat you got a while back. Immune to gravity...

You receive 6000 EXP and 400 AP.

-JENOVA-SYTHNISES-

Lvl: ?? Hp: ?????? Mp: ???

I currently don't know HP and other values. If you do know, email me with the info. Basically, use strong attacks like slash-all(OR mega-all) and ultima. Comet 2 is pretty effective. If you must, I suggest attacking the body first. The tentacles just revive themselves, so it is not worth it. When the body is low on HP, it will countdown. When the countdown reaches ZERO, it will attack with Ultima, though you should have MB barrier set up. Even though, HEAL. The countdown does not mean she is dead. She will continue to attack. Use kotr for an easy win, or bahamat zero-quadra magic if you didn't get the KOTR materia. Vincent' Chaos limit break is effective here if you are at low lvls.

++Chapter 4: Frequently Asked Questions++

Q. Why does Jenova always leave an arm after you defeat her?

A. Good question...It is perhaps a literal part of her body. You may have cut off a good piece of it. And through that, another set of cells will grow, just to make sure that arm gets to the reunion. Though this is also unlikely. I'm thinking of her arm being like a worm. If you cut it in half, you will have two full functioning worms. If you cut one of those two in half, you have three. But with Jenova, it is never stated whether or not another Jenova will be born from one arm. Though, I do believe that arm will continue to try and re-unite with the whole.

Q. Why doesn't Jenova(or Sephiroth) use supernova to just blow up the sun, thus creating more life energy to drain up.

A. One, because its a spell, a special effect if you will. It has no real application during the game. Two, It would likely destroy earth before he/she has time for the lifestream to work...and three, It is unclear if a star has a lifestream...

Q. Is jenova going to appear in Final Fantasy 7: Advent Children?

A. Yes, although her role is unknown. SPIOLER Highlight to read.

During one trailer, kadaj(A Sephiroth look alike) yells "MOTHER!!" and Vincent is heard telling cloud of jenova, and if she is found, another Sephiroth could be created.

END SPIOLER**

Q. IS THAT A BEARD I SEE ON JENOVA?

A. Yes. It is more likely some fleshy-extra skin. I mean, she is an alien. We don't know how she grows hair, or what type of skin grows where. Some will call this another example of Jenova changing genders, but in my mind, I just find it as a extra skin thingy. I mean, don't certain marine life have those?

++Chapter 5: Facts++

Well, currently all I know is jenova to be from outerspace, shapeshifter, male/female context and cannot be killed unless every cell is destroyed.

I'm also looking to update with more accurate facts, as well as real life connections with jenova.

Jenova sounds awfully close to 'Jehovah' the name of Jesus' father, or god.

From FF7 wikipedka: "Her name is said to be a portmanteau of Jehova and nova: the Hebrew name of God is Jehovah and the last two syllables, '-nova', translate into 'new'. So Jenova is a 'new god', or wants to become one. She's an usurper trying to rob the powers of the Planet."

intresting.....

Anybody with any help in this section email me at Geostigma7@hotmail.com....

++Chapter6: Trivia!!++

Extremely easy, perhaps one or two toughies...though you can manage... See if you can get a high score...I might post your name up. I provide answers though, so scratch that. Well, just test you're own knowledge....

1. Where is the the first time you see Jenova's name in the text box?
2. Who showed reaction to jenova cells...Cloud or Zack?
3. Name in reverse order the Jenova boss battles.
4. What word is misspelled in Jenova's one and only line?
5. Did Lucercia die?
6. Who shot Vincent?
7. How much HP does jenova life have?
8. Who is the only person to inject themselves with J-cells?
9. True/False: Jenova defeated weapon, that is why they are in the northern crater?
10. What year does the inscription plate read? Hint: You can barely see it... even with a hi-res. pic.

11. How many tentacles does JENOVA-Synthesis have?
12. What Item of Jenova is missing during the first time we see her.
I.E A limb.
13. What reactor is approved for use specifically for the Jenova Project?
Hint: It is a numbered reactor...not what town's reactor.
14. Name Jenova's theme song.
15. What spell does Jenova-Synthesis cast once her countdown is finished?
16. What two spells does Jenova cast, that the party can cast?
17. What item do you equip to become invincible during a Jenova battle?
18. Name all the people (Excluding Soldier and Vincent) who have J-cells inside of them.
19. Name all the WEAPON's. You know...the big monsters.

Okie Dokie...gotta have a hard one...
20. How many Numbered Clones were there. Not how many black caped men, but clones with Numbered tatoos'?

ANSWERS!!!!

1. Cloud: Jenova... Sephiroth's... So... they've brought it here. during the HQ mission.
2. Cloud, of course. Zack showed no reaction as he already had j-cells from soldier.
3. Jenova-SYNTHESIS, Jenova-DEATH, Jenova-LIFE, and finally Jenova-Birth.
4. Because is spelled "Beacause". Jeez, her only line and they mess it up....
5. No, even though I stated she did, that was only because for instance purposes, she did. Though the jenova inside of her won't let her...so easily.. she says.
6. Hojo
7. 10,000 Finally just looked up two sections for it ^_^
8. Hojo
9. False
10. 1995 of course! Base upon interpretation of course, though many have agreed with this assumption. 73.3% of people agree with me (11 out of 15).
11. 2
12. Her @&^(ing head! lol

13. Number 1.
14. J-E-N-O-V-A
15. Ultima
16. Stop and Ultima
17. Water Ring
18. Hojo, Sephiroth, Lucercia, Cloud, Zack(I include him, though you might not), and some will argue Nanaki(Red xiii) though, I will not get into that crap right now. You will get the answer right if you say that.
19. Emerald. Ruby. Ultimate. Diamond and well, the purple one who gets his head blown off by Sister Ray.
20. 12. Red xiii is the thirteenth "thing" tatoood, so..we can assume that he was branded after the mansion incident, which would of course make him the last thing branded, and thus, we know that there are 12 subsequent Clones. Note: When I say clone, I mean a clone of Sephiroths power, or the same experiment that Sephiroth went through. I do not mean a literal clone.

Well, how did you do?

0-10%-you suck, plan and simple. This is the easiest test ever.You are STUPID! Though, If you are reading my guide, then you at least WANT to learn.

11-20%-Still, pretty damn low. Don't stop learning, it is always good. Only when we stop learning do we become fools.

21-30%-Alright, we are getting better. I can see missing 7.....TCH!

31-40%-Okie dokie, you're climbing....not quite ff material though....

41-50%-I did write a pretty idiotic test...so blame it on the test.

51-60%-Part time ff7 player?

61-70%-you obviously been on a few message boards....

71-80%-Wow, pretty good. DAMN GOOD!

81-90%-Genuis. Even though my test is stupid

91-100%-You're a FF GOD! Though, this test is still stupid. I guess if the questions were harder...

Well, I hope you enjoyed this FAQ. I enjoyed writing it, and I'll enjoy having someone, even one, person learn something new in this Guide. If you have any questions, thoughts or contributions...contact me at Geostigma7@hotmail.com or Geostigma7@Aol.com.

Thanks goes to DarkstarRdp aka Ricky Price for his Jenova Acsii, which I have no clue as to what he did to get that. Also, wacky theory help.

Note: In a new update, I removed that ASCII as it was too big, and took up one whole page and 1/7 th of another....=p

Thanks to Steele at Advent Children.net...even though he doesn't know it yet, he helped me in this whole process. Also, Squall of Seed and Bender for their debates with me on the Jenova theories. Visit "www.FF7-Universe.com"...great website with a huge TEXT version of the story, also with pics....

Thanks to DarkSephiroth at Bluelaguna for all her long ass debates....

Thanks O Kong for his FF script...though I don't need his permission to use actual game quotes, I still would not be here without it, and he gets his dues.

Thanks to Jt at FF7 Citadel for his wacky theory.

Most of all to SquareSoft, and that is what they'll always be to me. They made this great game, and great villain. I love em'! I do not like 'SquareEnix'. But that is just my opinion. I guess im afriad of change.....

Okie dokie, cya around for the next update.
