At the moment, this is just a technique list. Technique chains, execution times, stat grades, range notes, and anything else that I happen to stumble upon will eventually be included in this guide. Please note that 'eventually' does not mean 'tomorrow'; I am only human and must work within a humanly possible time frame.

Here is a sample entry from the movelist:

```
          Range 4
+-----+
|Tasty Banana |
|  Int  40(gR) |
|  B/E/-/-   |
|  Special Tec|
+-----+
```

Range:

Each monster's technique list has a column with heading "Range" heading, each of which numbered 1-4, Range 1

Range 4

```
+-----+
|..... .. |
|  ... .. |
```

being closest to your opponent and Range 4 being farthest from your opponent. This indicates the Range at which a technique is available for use.

```

| ..... |
| ..... ...|
+-----+

```

Name:

```

.....
The name of the technique. +-----+
|Tasty Banana |
| ... .....|
| ..... |
| ..... ...|
+-----+

```

Pow/Int Based:

```

.....
Indicates whether the technique's +-----+
damage is based on your monster's |..... ..... |
Power or Intelligence stats. For | Int .....|
instance, "Int. based" techniques | ..... |
will do more damage if you raise | ..... ...|
your monster's Intelligence. +-----+

```

Guts Cost:

```

.....
The number indicating how many Guts +-----+
points must be spent in order |..... ..... |
to execute this technique during | ... 40....|
battle. | ..... |
| ..... ...|
+-----+

```

Special notes:

```

Range 4
Special notes on a technique are +-----+ indicated in parenthesis and are |..... ..... |
represented by a single letter. | ... ..(gR)|
Several notes may be grouped together | ..... |
as illustrated in this example. | ..... ...|
+-----+

```

Notes:

- e = "evil" technique                      g = "good" technique
- R = Recovery move                         L = steals life
- G = steals Guts                            D = damages your monster when used
- M = damages your monster if it misses the opponent

Nature Notes: (e,g)

e - Indicates that a technique is, for lack of a better word, "Evil". Monsters with 'Good' or 'Best' natures will have a very difficult time learning "Evil" techniques, and monsters with 'Bad' or 'Worst' natures will have little difficulty learning the technique. For all practical intents and purposes, "Evil" techniques are only learnable by monsters with a 'Bad' or 'Worst' nature.

g - Like the above, but in reverse. This note indicates that a technique is "Good". Monsters with 'Bad' or 'Worst' natures will have a very difficult time learning "Good" techniques, and monsters with 'Good' or 'Best' natures will have little difficulty learning the technique. For all practical intents and purposes, "Good" techniques are only learnable by monsters with a 'Good' or 'Best' nature.
