Flying Squirrels

You can recruit the Flying Squirrels much similar to Mukumuku but they aren't counted as Stars of Destiny. To get these, you must walk between two specified locations on the world map with best results occurring when Riou (HERO) is the only person in the party. He will then appear in battle with you. This can take a long time so you have been warned!

These are there locations:

Makumaku - Walk on the road between Greenhill and Two River City
Until he appears in a fight.

Mikumiku - Walk on the road between Greenhill and Forest Village
Until she appears in a fight.

Mekumeku - Walk on the road between Greenhill and The border of Matilda until he appears in a fight.

Mokumoku - Walk around the clearing south of Forest Village
Until he appears in a fight.

4 Monsters of the Listening Crystals

You must recruit Badeaux for any of these to join you because he Gives you 2 Listening Crystals. When you come into contact with Any of these Monsters, the Listening crystals will activate and Force a scene with the Monster in that specific place. Once a Crystal has been activated it is gone forever, so you can only Recruit 2 of the 4 Monsters. These are entirely your choice.

Here are the Monsters and there locations:

the path and Gremio/Ellie will get distracted by Ko and rush to save him. Now head up to the Dock and you will meet McDohl (Wahoo!) then there will be a scene at the inn and McDohl will offer to join you. Now head through the Forrest path and you will encounter a worm boss who evolves into a Poisonous Moth. After that, head to Gregminster and Watch the scenes there. You will eventually arrive back in Banner Village and from then on you can go to Gregminster anytime you want and add McDohl to your party. On a side note, McDohl's name will appear different depending on what you named him in the original Suikoden; if you named him 'Adam' he will be called 'AcDohl' in Suikoden 2, the first letter of the name you gave the main character in Suikoden will replace the 'M' in McDohl, unless you named him something beggining with M. ;)
