I. Introduction

Big Show is my favorite wrestler in the WWF. I have watched his career since WCW when he was known as The Giant. While in WCW he has held WCW World Title at least once possibly more. In the WWF he has it once as well. Big Show is known for his incredible size 7'2" 500 lbs., and is unstoppable. Currently he is among the top contenders for the WWF belt. His finishing move The Show Stopper Choke Slam, is much like a regular ChokeSlam but he holds you in the air longer. In the game he is a powerful wrestler, maybe the strongest in the game, but he is slow. To create him pick all 4's. His strong characteristic would be Royal Rumble's and almost any other match. The only match he is not good for is a Steel Cage Match. Well on to the rest of the FAQ.]

II. Bio of Big show (Courtesy of WWF.com)

Height: 7' 2"

Weight: 500 pounds

From: Tampa, Florida

Finishing move: The Showstopper

Career Highlights: Federation Champion; Tag Team Champion (2)

The Big Show tore into the World Wrestling Federation-literally. He first showed up at St. Valentine's Day Massacre in February 1999 by ripping through the ring canvas and, in an amazing display of strength, throwing Stone Cold Steve Austin through a steel cage! Since then he has proven that his big debut wasn't a fluke. Simply put, the Big Show is a blue chipper. Whether it is lifting up an entire ring or pulling the entire Titan Tron down to the floor, he puts on a show that fans won't soon forget.

Show realized a lifelong dream when he won the Federation Championship at 1999's Survivor Series.

Now, aligned with Shane McMahon, the Big Show is quickly on his way to returning to WWF Championship bliss.

Skip Royal rumble During season

When the Rumble starts press start and go to exit game and hit yes. It is very useful in the season mode. Note: There will be no winner and it will go to Febuary Matches Submitted by Jrg320 @aol.com
