

Breath of Fire Monster List Final

by FFMrebirth

Updated on Apr 5, 2004

This walkthrough was originally written for Breath of Fire on the SNES, but the walkthrough is still applicable to the GBA version of the game.

- Going to finish this thing in one day, since there's nothing to do on sunday, other than watch the game.

9/15/03

- I got super bored with typing up the same thing over and over again. So I just finished it up today.

If you actually need to contact me about this FAQ, then send the e-mail to:

swtzwondrboy20@yahoo.com

You can catch me on AIM, same name as above. I won't respond to gameplay questions, as they'll be answered in the FAQ. If you see an error or some infactual piece of writing, then contact me about it e-mail. AIM is only if you need something really badly. I don't think anyone needs something in this walkthrough to be update the next day, unless it's like a critical error on my part. If you IM me about gameplay questions, you'll be blocked ON THE SPOT. I like to keep an open list so people from school can contact me. I'm not going to let my FAQ writing get in the way, and promote me to close my list. Thanks! Onwards with the FAQ!

Introduction:

This is a simple monster list with stats of monsters in Breath of Fire. Breath of Fire is the first game in a long line of one of the most popular role playing series. Breath of Fire is produced by Squaresoft, the series later found itself in the hands of the developer Capcom. If you find yourself stuck, or just wondering about the stats of a certain monster, then you've found the right place. Here I'll post the stats of every single monster in the entire game that you encounter. Hope you enjoy.

Key:

HP = Hip Points. Higher the HP, long it'll take you to kill the enemy.
AT = Attack. Higher this is, the longer it'll take you to kill the enemy
EX = Experience. The highter, the better.
GO = Gold. Lets you be able to purchase items/weapons.

Don't take this piece or writing without my authorized consent. If I catch you hosting this bestiary on your website, I'll e-mail you asking you to take it down. If you want to use it for any reason, just e-mail me and I'll probably let you host it without any real trouble. Since it's not one of my larger pieces of writing, I won't be as picky about where it goes and what sites it is posted on. These rules aren't too hard to understand I realize they only apply to about .2% of the people out there that feel as though they have to rip off other's work because they're too lame to produce their own. These things are hard to write, they just take so damn much time.
